Limehouse

W. I. baking judged two attend rug show

By Mrs. A. Benton

The W. I. meeting was held in Limehouse Memorial Hall on Thursday evening. Mrs. Frank Wilson, curator of the Halton Tweedsmuir histories, displayed her well-kept books, and gave suggestions towards keeping our own histories up to date. The meeting opened with a poem by president Mrs. Frank Brown, and the singing of Home Sweet Home. Roll call was, A Humorous Story. Announcement was made of the District Annual meeting to be held at Campbellville on May 24, and tickets were sold for same. Three resolutions to be decided there were discussed. Current events were compiled and read by Mrs. Brown. Mrs. Kirkpatrick sent her motto "It's not what you start, but what you finish," and a thank-you note to those who remembered her while she was ill recently. Reports were read by several convenera, and Mrs. Booth reported on the recent meeting on Citizenship and World Affairs. Mrs. Frank Wilson and Mrs. G. Booth judged the baking, Mrs. Brown being winner, and later all enjoyed the exhibits for lunch.

she was ill recently. Reports were read by several convenera, and Mrs. Booth reported on the recent meeting on Citizenship and World Affairs. Mrs. Frank Wilson and Mrs. G. Booth judged the baking, Mrs. Brown being winner, and later all enjoyed the exhibits for lunch.

Mrs. Benton thanked the speaker and others contributing to a successful meeting. Guild show Mrs. Frank Brown and Mrs. Neil Anderson attended the annual meeting and rug show of the Ontario Rug Hooking Guild at Belleville a week ago. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pohl on the safe arrival of a little daughter, Ellen at Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital on May 2.

SWATHMS of bugs were flying in masses at the park on the weekend... a less pleasant sign of spring.

Erin Shamrocks hold graduation

Dancers from Toronto, Port Credit, Acton, Milton, Burlington and Guelph helped celebrate the graduation of 12 members of the Erin Shamrock Squares at Brisbane School Saturday night. Graduates include Ernie Brown, Vera Brown, Fred DeHaan, Mary DeHaan, Gayle Gorse, Roy Grant, Helen Grant, Glen Helkaa, Dianna Helkaa, Turner Koorda, Joan Koorda and Frieda Tuintjer. Jim Lee of Hamilton was guest caller for the evening's square dances. Co-presidents of the three year old Erin Shamrock Squares are Chris and Sandra Purton.

Dr. Mutchmor speaker at church anniversary

By Mrs. R. Shortill
A number of high school students are having a weekend trip to Ottawa and will return Sunday evening. Kathy Lee French was one of those who took advantage of the trip. Several of our new babies have been tendered a baby shower lately. On Monday evening, a party gathered at the home of Mrs. Harry Shortill to bring pretty things for Baby Bailey. Also a group of callers rapped at the door of Baby Burnett's home asking "Please may we come in." Both parties were really for two reasons, also to get acquainted with each other-mothers-wise. Synaathy goes out at this time to Betty and Elwood Snow. Betty's sister passed away last week and burial took place on Thursday at her home place near Van Kleeck Hill. A dance was held in the Community Centre on Saturday night to Al Dermott's orchestra.

The Scouts and leaders went camping this weekend. We're sorry the weather was not of the best. Anniversary services were well attended on Sunday. The "Inspirations," a musical group from Guelph inspired us with their songs sung in beautiful harmony. Also four of our Junior Choir accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Kerr sang two numbers. One hymn they had sung before and we especially enjoyed hearing it again, for music and words had been written by our minister Rev. K. Johnston. The girls gave a very sweet rendition of it. Guestspeaker Rev. Dr. Mutchmor was our guest speaker and in his own unimutable way his words taken from a text in St. John's gospel Ch. 10 emphasizing the meaning of "fold" and "flock" as the "Christian Fellowship" with Jesus, the good shepherd," gave his listeners much to ponder. After the services, a social time was enjoyed down stairs, where old acquaintances were renewed. Extend sympathy We all were saddened this weekend when news of the death of Mrs. Margaret Davidson was heard. Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to her bereaved ones. Also passed on this week, Mrs. J. Douglas, the former Mary Butler, and we send through our column, our sincere feelings for her brother William and his family as well as her sister Mrs. Fisher and also her bereaved husband. Many friends and relatives from far and near called at Ballinafad Community Centre on Sunday afternoon and evening to congratulate Margaret and

Robert McEnery on this milestone of their life together—their diamond wedding anniversary. Visitors at the home of Mrs. Ern. Rogers and Mr. William Rogers and Mrs. Tarzwell on Sunday were Mrs. Dan McKechnie, Miss Elva McKechnie, Mrs. Elsie Cymbal, Mrs. A. Vannater, Miss Beatrice Hiltz, of Georgetown, Mr. Wm. Evans, Mrs. L. Sparks, Ottawa, Mrs. M. Cobbin, Islington, Mr. and Mrs. Al Whitney, Mrs. Verna Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Rogers, Mr. Thunby, Mrs. Uan Wheeler. Mr. Wm. Rogers was celebrating his 86th birthday which was Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Campbell, Acton visited Mr. and Mrs. Reg French for dinner on Sunday.

Churchill news...

February. A lovely program was planned with Ray Denny acting as master of ceremonies for the following: accordion solo by Miss Jennings; duet by Misses Helen Cocks and Susan Milne; solo by Miss Mary Lou Brown accompanied by her brother Ted Brown on the guitar; a humorous reading by Mrs. S. Morrison. Ray Denny called on his parents Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Denny to show a mixed collection of special slides they chose including some taken the day of Lynore and Gordon's wedding. They were enjoyed by all. The honored couple were asked to come up and take chairs at the front; Mrs. W. Linham read an address and they were presented with a china cabinet, coffee table, two end tables and a flower arrangement. Both Mr. and Mrs. McDonald spoke briefly thanking everyone for the lovely and useful gifts and the nice evening. Stan Morrison gave a few remarks and then Ray invited all to the basement where a lovely lunch awaited all who attended. Weekend visitors Mr. and Mrs. Charles Binnie spent Sunday in Brampton visiting with Mr. and Mrs. William Maynard. Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hamilton visited on the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Ian Wallace at Lobo. Mr. and Mrs. W. Gelter of R.R. 2, Acton, have returned home from a month's holiday visiting friends and relatives in Germany. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Drysdale and family of Brampton were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Brown and family. While convalescing at his home after being confined in Guelph General Hospital, Mr. Wilbert Brown felt he could do a chore at home and he slipped off the stepladder hurting his foot. He had X-rays showing a bone was cracked or broken. He has been on crutches but is now coming along nicely. Senior Wardens meet at lodge Walker Lodge entertained the senior wardens of Wellington district Monday evening, with about 90 attending altogether. Acton lodge's senior warden Meb Bost organized the evening and guests were here from Drayton, Hespeler, Guelph, Fergus, Erin Etona, Georgetown and Hamilton. Among them were the D.D.G.M. Rt. Wor. Bro. J. J. Spark, Grand Senior Warden Rt. Wor. Bro. David Miller and Grand Junior Warden Rt. Wor. Bro. Peter de Karwin. These grand lodge officers took part in the ceremony. A lavish cold buffet was enjoyed.
