Muriel Watson, daughter Mrs. George Burt and Mrs. Shirley Chaplin, granddaughter. In front are Carolyn and Lisa Watson and Wendy Chaplin, great granddaughters. Mrs. Foster used to live on a farm in the Acton district. She now lives in Toronto. (J. Jennings Photo)

Ballnafad

Form tentative plans to erect cemetery cairn

By Mrs. R. Shortill

On Wednesday night the Cemetery board, Mr. Rob Warne, F. J. Shortill, Richard Shortill, met at the Shortill home. Mrs. Wm. McLean and Mrs. Ada Kirkwood from the W. I. met with them to form tentative plans for a cairn to be built. The W. I. offered a donation to help along the work which they had begun by a purchase of a historical plaque two years ago. Interest and finances are needed for this project and also for mowing the grass this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie McEnery have sold their farm here. Several other lots have been sold around here and cellars excavated.

Miss Maggie Given, has completed her legal secretarial course at Sheridan College, Oakville. She has secured a position at Guelph, with a law firm and will begin on Monday. Congratulations Maggie!

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lawr and Miss Jean Lawr visited at the parental home Sunday.

Several friends and neighbours called recently on Mrs. William Wright, 9th Line to greet her on her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Volmar have been doing a brisk business from a stand at the road, of nursery stock. This was the former Jack Cole farm.

Several of the men in the neighborhood went for a fishing trip this weekend. Reg and Delmar French, Bud Anderson, Ray Swindler and Dick Shortill.

Gordon Smith was one of the Erin District High School students who also went to Ottawa over last weekend. Kathy Lee French was the other Ballnafad student who went. The students travelled by bus so they had a splendid sight seeing journey.

The girls volleyball team from Brisbane School played at John Ross School last week and were the winners with pictures in the Guelph Mercury. Congratulations, girls!

Cub Campout
Brian Bumbolt, Glen Allan, and Robert Trueman attended a camp at Alliston over the weekend. The camp was held for those who will be going into Scouts this coming year.

Women's Institute
On Wednesday the May meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Given with 12 members answering the roll call. Different public relations activities were given in response.

Mrs. Eleanor McLean in the chair conducted her first meeting as president. Mrs. Slessoraitis read the minutes and recorded the May minutes. The treasurer, Mrs. F. Smith gave a satisfying report of finances. Mrs. Eleanor McLean had been in attendance at the officers' conference. She thanked her branch for sending her and gave a short resume of what went on there.

Mrs. Jesse McEnery and Mrs. Ada McLean had attended the Halton Music festival that morning and had been a privileged to present the award to the Mrs. of Limehouse school, and to enjoy both the singing as well as the comments of adjudicator Roy Holton.

Send delegation
Business followed concerning the long delayed matter of erecting a cairn to display the plaque, already in possession of the W. I. It was decided to send a delegation to the Cemetery Bd. meeting.

Mrs. Lola Marshall gave the motto, Mrs. W. Smith, current events and Mrs. Given auctioned the plants and bulbs.

Mrs. Jamieson and Mrs. Slessoraitis served a tasty salad plate, two loaves of quick bread had been entered as competition.

Ebenezer

Death seems like end of an era

By Mrs. R. McLean

Friends from near and far gathered at Brookville Hall to honor Catherine and Walter Freeman, who have moved to Milton. Their farm on the Guelph Line has been sold to the Zippens from Toronto. Mrs. B. Young read the address and Stan Robinson presented the couple with a bowl of money, after which dancing was enjoyed.

Large funeral
The funeral of Janet Borthwick, widow of the late Robert McAlpine, was largely attended at Ebenezer. Mrs. McAlpine celebrated her 92nd birthday, on Feb. 29. Her husband predeceased her in 1923; she was also predeceased by a daughter Mary. Born at Ancaster, she was the last of a family of nine. After her marriage, she lived in Nassagaweya, until moving to Chesley, 8 years ago. Long before hospitalization was so readily available, Mrs. McAlpine's services as a practical nurse were much in demand. Many a new little Nassagaweyan was helped into the world by her ministrations. Her passing seems like the end of an era. Pallbearers were five nephews, Andrew and Henry Leachman, George McAlpine, George Wright, Belford Smith and a friend, George Locker.

She was a member of Geneva Presbyterian Church, Chesley and an associate member of the W.M.S. Mrs. McAlpine leaves three daughters, Alena, (Mrs. George Swanson), Mrs. Isabel Wallace, both of Guelph, and Ellen (Mrs. Les Lowe) with whom she made her home, of R.R. 4, Chesley; and two sons, Leslie, of Toronto, and Charles, of Hamilton; 16 grandchildren, 34 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandson.

Christening
Mr. and Mrs. M. Hayward were in Orangeville, on Sunday, attending the christening of their granddaughter Lori Lynn Trimble.

Best wishes are extended to newly-weds, Mr. and Mrs. John David Moffatt, (formerly Valerie Carol Steele, of Lowville). Lovely flowers were left in the church in memory of the groom's late father and grandmother, Del Moffatt and Mrs. Rena Easley.

U.C.W. meeting
Mrs. Ward, the president, opened the May U.C.W. meeting with a verse. Two ladies volunteered to take charge of the Spin (recycling) collection at the township hall, on the first Saturday in June. Mrs. Early expressed her thanks for the lunch served at the golden wedding. Mrs. Diamond reported on the bale sent to Africa. Mrs. D. Munro dealt particularly with Zambia and Tanzania, in the study from the Africa pack. She quoted what the little black boy said, "If I'm ignorant, I can educate myself; if I'm poor, I can better myself; if anyone complains about the color of my skin, I can refer him to God, who gave it to me."

Three baptised
Three babies were baptised at Ebenezer on Sunday: Paul Edward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Vernon Coverdale; Walter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Alexander Windeler and Kevin Frederick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen William Wood. The junior choir sang, with Jay Kitching as soloist.

Eden Mills

Baptism Mother's Day

By Mrs. R. Wright

Eden Mills United Church had a large attendance on Sunday. Baptized were the children of Mr. and Mrs. David Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hare, Mr. and Mrs. Kimberley Hare, Mr. and Mrs. Morey Ritchie.

Full junior and senior choirs rendered selections.

Rev. Russell Finley took as his text "The Home and The Seed." He spoke on the importance of a good home-upbringing, and sowing the seed on good soil.

Family Sunday
At the Eden Mills Presbyterian Church it being Family Sunday the junior choir rendered three numbers. Margery Ramsey read the responsive scripture and Leslie Chamberlain gave a reading on the use of a Postage Stamp.

Flowers in both churches were in memory of the late Paul Fendley.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson visited their parents for Mother's Day. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Thompson, Hillsburg and Mrs. George Flewelling, Elora.

Mr. and Mrs. David McDonald and family, Burlington, and Mr. Ogg McLean were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William McLean at the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mills, Kingston, were home for Mother's Day with Mrs. Beryl Wright.

Churchill

Dedication at church Sunday

By Mrs. F. MacArthur

Mother's Day Service at Churchill Church was well attended. Our pastor Rev. Fosbury's sermon was, "These Mothers of ours." There was also a dedication service when new hymnaries, the gift of the C.C.C.-W. were presented by Mrs. W. Thompson and The Communion Chalice and Paten in memory of Robert George Chalmers, the gift of his sisters Mrs. William Cattell and Mrs. A. Walter Fosbury unveiled by Jeff Caruso, Rev. A. W. and Mrs. Fosbury's grandson. The anthem by the choir was, Honor Thy Father and Thy Mother.

Sister dies
We wish to extend deepest sympathy of Churchill Church friends to Mrs. Annie Burns and Mr. and Mrs. David Williamson in the death of a loving sister of Mrs. Burns, Miss Ruth Taylor of Hornby.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Swackhamer also Miss Debbie Swackhamer visited with her parents Mr. and Mrs. George Reimer of Virgil last week.

Mother's Day visits
Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brooks on Sunday were Mrs. Mervin Harness and Daughter Marie of Kitchener, also her mother Mrs. H. Porte. All the family were home for Mother's Day also.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brown of Acton spent Mother's Day with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Willbert Brown and family.

Constable Vern Denny was home for the long weekend including Mother's Day with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Denny, Joyce and Ray. Mrs. Susie Denny of Acton was a guest at the same home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Turner, David and Julianne spent Mother's Day with all the Juliens in Brampton at the parental home.

Shower held
Mrs. Brian Evans held a miscellaneous shower for Miss Nancy Spear on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Barbara White, Hillsburg. Members of the Hillsburg baseball team that she was a member of presented her with some lovely and useful gifts prior to her wedding day.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spear report all their family were home for Mother's Day. How lovely.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Near of Kitchener also Mr. and Mrs. Earl Vanatter of Fenelon Falls visited on Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Archie Kerr.

Phone call
Betty Ann, Mrs. Robert Tyler of Simi, California had a visit by phone when she called her mother on Mother's Day.

Miss Vera Strokov spent the weekend with Dr. Lois Cameron of Fergus.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hamilton were guests with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hamilton and family on Saturday. The occasion was Paul's birthday. On Sunday Shiela and Paul were with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sinclair at Guelph, also her grandmother Mrs. William McEnery.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kerr, Christine and Jeffrey were dinner guests of Dr. Lois Cameron on Sunday at Fergus. Vera Strokov who had been visiting up their returned home with the Kerrs.

Guest on Sunday with Rev. A. W. and Mrs. Fosbury were Mr. and Mrs. J. Caruso, Jeff, Carolyn and Barbara of Brampton. They all attended church with her parents. Also Mr. and Mrs. Orval Cross and son Craig of Lorne Park visited at the parental home on Mother's Day.

Neighbors move
Another of our neighbors of many years have moved from Churchill to live in Acton. Mr. and Mrs. Elton Cole sold their farm and held an auction sale May 12, and are now living in their newly purchased home on Cameron Street.

Neighbors and friends wish them many years of rest and town life. I am told they still wish to be included with any special activities held at Churchill, and it is little wonder having lived in this district almost 53 years.

Silver-Wood

88th birthday, shower in news

By Mrs. George Burt

Silver-Wood W. I. had their May meeting at Mrs. H. Marchington's home on May 11 with 20 ladies attending. Mrs. Gillen opened the meeting. The W. I. Ode and the Mary Stewart Collect were repeated. The roll call was answered by a verse on health.

Delegates were appointed to go to the District Annual on May 24, at Campbellville, being Mrs. Gillen and Mrs. Burt.

Mrs. H. Marchington, gave a good report of the officers' conference she had attended in Guelph.

Interesting speaker
Mrs. Norton, convener of health, had a speaker, Miss Sally Chodorove from the health unit. She was very interesting.

The baking, in preparation for the district annual was judged and Mrs. W. Norton was winner for both the fruit loaf and the squares. A plant sale was held and a good sum of money was made from the plants and bulbs that we had taken to the meeting.

Lunch was served by the committee and a social time spent

Shower held
Mrs. Don Lindsay held a miscellaneous shower at her home recently for a bride-to-be, Eva Lindauer. Eva received many useful and lovely gifts and thanked everyone for them.

Mr. and Mrs. George Burt had a family gathering at their home on Mother's Day to celebrate Mrs. Burt's mother's 88th birthday. Over 30 relatives attended and had a buffet luncheon and birthday cake.
