Ballinafad

Graduate, cub leader, cemetery, dance news

By Mrs. R. Shortill
The May meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Elaine Sales, with Pres. Mrs. Sinclair in the chair. About 15 answered the roll call—a verse containing "Mother". Two visitors attended. Mrs. Grace McEnery had charge of minutes in absence of Mrs. Snow. Several items of business came up and decisions were made.
Mrs. Le Rose had charge of the devotional period. Mrs. McKenzie of Georgetown showed slides of her journey to the Holy Land. The social hour was in charge of Mrs. Ernie McEnery and Mrs. Harry Shortill.
Business included plans for a booth at the McEnery sale in the middle of June, as well as a box lunch catering for a future picnic.
In hospital
Mr. Wm. Smith has been in the hospital the past week undergoing surgery, but has returned home.

Mr. F. W. Shortill is also in Georgetown Hospital for treatment.
Flower beds and lawns around Ballinafad corners are taking on a very attractive appearance.
Cub meeting
The Cubs met in the hall on Wednesday night as usual. The District Commissioner Mr. Gordon Douglas attended and performed the investment service to install Karen Shortill as "Blue" leader of the Cubs. Mrs. Lillian Curtis attended and with the cubs there, an interesting meeting was held.
Rev. Kelvin Johnston also came to present an interesting musical project to be started in September.
Their camp out the previous weekend led up to the graduation of three of the cubs to the scout group.

Dance Friday
The Group Committee of Cubs and Scouts held a dance in the Community Centre on Friday night. Mr. Harry Arbie supplied the music and all report a pleasant evening.
Optimistic view
The Cemetery Board and the Women's Institute delegation met again on Wednesday night to have further discussion on Cemetery matters. It was decided to have Ken Grahame keep the grass cut as usual. Expense of this service runs into money, which the trustees do not have but an optimistic view is held that neighbours around and also those who have ancestors and nearer relatives resting there will feel inclined to contribute to this worthy public service, rather than have this corner grow up in weeds.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Barnes are having a vacation in Virginia and will return home this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Sid Spear have a new baby son. Congratulations are extended to them.
W.I. presentation
At the recent W.I. meeting held at the home of Mrs. Given, a presentation was made to Mrs. Grace McEnery for her faithful service as president for the past years. The history of the Women's Institute book was given her.
Finishes course
Miss Kathryn Sinclair has finished her B.A. course at Waterloo University, and will be graduating this Thursday. She is presently working at the Goodrich plant in Bramalea as a temporary job.
Kathryn hopes to continue her education in the fall.

St. John award to Georgetown

St. John Ambulance awarded the title of Ontario First Aid Champions to Volunteer Firefighters from Georgetown at the close of the annual Ontario open first aid competitions in Moss Park Armoury, Toronto.
Teams were required to solve three First Aid problems and 100 young people were made up with a variety of injuries which looked so much like the real thing that the Armoury floor resembled a disaster area.
Winners in the five categories were as follows: senior men: Volunteer Firefighters, Georgetown; senior women: Canadian Ski Patrol System, Burlington; senior mixed: 406 Canadian Division; Burlington; intermediate: 391c (Mohawk) Nursing Division, Hamilton; junior: 374c Nursing Division, Arnprior.
Trophies were presented to team captains immediately following the competitions.

Eden Mills

Churchill will observe its 110th anniversary

By Mrs. R. Wright
The 110th anniversary of Eden Mills Presbyterian Church will be observed next Sunday, May 28, with special services at 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m. At the morning service the Eden Mills choir will provide special music. At the evening service the Acton Legion Chorallers will provide special music and there will be informal congregational singing.

Guest preacher at both services will be the Rev. Jack McIntosh, a missionary of the Presbyterian church in Canada with the Korean Christian Church in Japan. A native of Guelph, Mr. McIntosh is program director for the Korean Christian Church in Osaka, one of a team of lay and professional workers seeking to make the tiny Korean Christian community an effective influence of Christian witness and renewal in that area.
At the evening service Mr. McIntosh will show slides and talk specifically about this work. The ladies are making arrangements for lunch for everyone following the evening service. This is an invitation to everyone in both congregations and friends to two enjoyable and inspiring experiences of worship and fellowship.

W.M.S. meeting visits in news

By Mrs. A. Benton
Miss Blanche Brigham R.N. of Haney, B.C. has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Roughley and family for the past month and was a guest at her nephew, Mr. Robert Roughley's wedding to Miss Marsha McKenzie a week ago.
Mrs. Bert Benton was hostess for the May W.M.S. meeting where 14 attended. President Mrs. Mitchell opened by reading a prayer poem. Scripture from Matthew 18 was read by Mrs. Roughley and Mrs. Appleyard led in prayer.
Supply money is to be handed in at the June meeting at Mrs. Landsay's home.
Report allocation
The treasurer reported our 1972 allocation as $231. Roll call and text word "Offend" were answered in a verse of scripture and a number read a current event. Mrs. Sanford read Biblical explanations while several members read scripture verses. The Mizpah closed the meeting and the hostess served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Trimble and family of Oakville were Sunday guests at his sister's home with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Brown and family.
Mr. and Mrs. John Knox of Hampton spent Friday last with their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kerr, Jeffrey and Christine; and on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Jim Buck and sons of Georgetown visited at the same home.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dawson of Chatham also Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gaurreah of London made Mr. and Mrs. Leroy MacArthur and family a short visit, then came down and visited with their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacArthur. They were on their way home after holidaying at their parents' home at Gravenhurst.
In hospital
We regret that Mrs. Kirkpatrick is again hospitalized but hope for her return to better health soon.
Mrs. A. Marshall and Miss Eileen of Toronto visited Mrs. Osburn on the week-end.
Mr. and Mrs. Ingram and twin sons of Unionville and Mr. and Mrs. Banish of Toronto visited their daughter and son Beverly and Randy Banish on Mother's Day.

Churchill Mrs. Bessem speaker at C.C.C.W. meeting

By Mrs. F. MacArthur
May 28 church service and Sunday school will be withdrawn, for those who wish to attend the ordination service for Rev. Bob Hyde to be held in Waterloo University at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.
Mrs. Bessem speaker
The regular meeting of the Churchill Community Church Women was held at Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson's new home on Churchill Road North on Wednesday evening, May 17. Our president Mrs. W. Swackhamer was in charge. Devotions were given by Mrs. C. Storey. Mrs. Storey gave two readings, Temptation and To My Children on Mothers' Day. Mrs. Fosbury gave a humorous reading on Housecleaning.
Mrs. W. Swackhamer introduced our guest Mrs. H. Bessem from R.R. 1, Georgetown, who had many of the collection of stones that she and her husband have gathered and polished and some found, also a number of articles showing her handicraft in knitting, sewing and toys.
They are retired and now this is their hobby. Mrs. Bessem was one of the teachers at night school in Acton.
Bulbs and plant slips were exchanged among the members. Plans were made for a cold pot luck dinner to be held and served in the basement following the morning service on June 4. The June meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. Norman Turner on June 21.
