Rev. P. Brouwer moves to Jarvis

On June 4 the Rev. Peter Brouwer will be preaching his last sermon at Beth-El Christian Reformed church here. Mr. Brouwer is going to Ebenezer Christian Reformed church, Jarvis.

Mr. and Mrs. Brouwer have been in Acton for almost five years, coming in September 1967. They have seven children, the youngest, Annette, being born while they were here.

The family has enjoyed their stay in Acton very much. Mr.

Brouwer comments.

Resignation
He was secretary of the Ministerial Association and submitted his resignation to the other members Tuesday of this week. His work will be done temporarily by the Rev. A. H. McKenzie until the association has elections in the fall.

Mrs. Brouwer was active in the ladies' work of the church. The consistory is considering the matter of a new minister for the congregation here.

Poppies, 200 geraniums Decoration Day

On Sunday afternoon, June 4, over 200 geraniums will be planted in the Acton cemetery. Decoration Day has become a tradition in town on the first Sunday in June, with a parade followed by a service.

The parade leaves Fellows St., at Foodland store, and this year will stop at the cenotaph to commemorate the birth of Col. John McCrae. Bob Angell, president of the Acton branch of the Legion will lay a wreath. This year a poppy will be placed on each grave as well as the usual geranium to mark this occasion.

Col. McCrae is the writer of the world-famous poem "In Flanders Fields." Guelph is holding special commemorative events all this year.

behind Knox church to see this well-preserved old landmark, part of the town's history. It's well worth a visit, say members of the town's decoration day committee.

The committee met Wednesday evening last week to make plans for the occasion.

Good start
This year arrangements are also made for the firefighters to go to the cemetery on Monday, Wednesday and Friday after decoration day to water the flowers and make sure they have a good start.

Members of participating organizations each year plant geraniums on the graves of deceased members. Eighteen dozen geranium plants are on order this year. Many families also choose this day to remember their own loved ones. Flowers are planted and bouquets placed at tombstones. The event is always well-attended and has always had good weather.

Picnic, party coming events

by Mrs. Elsie Reed
With the third week of June officially proclaimed Senior Citizens' Week by the Ontario government, the Acton Golden Age Club already has two of the days marked off on its calendar.

Wednesday, June 21 is the date set by Zone 13 for the annual picnic, to be held this year at Hidden Valley Park, Aldershot. The bus to the picnic leaves at 10 a.m. from Luxton Hall. Each person should bring their own lunch, beverage and eating equipment, as well as the usual 25 cents for the collection towards expenses. This will be collected on the bus by the club treasurer.

as a moment of silent tribute was held for three beloved members, Mrs. Bert Davidson, Mr. Robert O'Hara and Mrs. Jane Smith, who passed on, since the previous meeting.

Mr. Ivan Harris presided for the business meeting and was also emcee for the entertainment. He brought on the well-known Chorallers, who put on a wonderful program of songs in their usual fine style.

Slag duet
Mrs. Flora Harris was introduced and then sang some solos accompanied by her husband. Later, she sang duets with her husband, with Mr. Hansen at the piano.

Repeat treat
The Lions Club is repeating its treat to the club of a bus trip to Halton Manor garden party, Saturday, June 24. Mr. Vic Bristow is arranging the Milton trip and all who wish to go are to be at Luxton Hall at 1.30 p.m. The bus will return about 5 p.m. A feeling of sadness prevailed.

Mr. Daigle and Mr. Leachman with guitar and mouth organ played toe-tapping favorites, "A Schottische", "Waltz Quadrille" and "Old Crooked Stovepipe".

Mr. Jack Hargrave moved a hearty vote of thanks to the Chorallers and Mrs. Harris for the splendid program. Mrs. Near and her helpers served a lunch of sandwiches, cookies and home made cakes.

Come to the next meeting, June 6 to hear further plans for Senior Citizens' Week.

ALMOST everyone had the urge to clean up on the weekend.
