Bolton strikes early to outscore Rams 15-9

Trying to overcome a 7-1 first period deficit proved to be too great a task for Acton Rams Monday night, although they played adequately in the final two periods against the undefeated Bolton juniors.

The visitors claimed a 15-9 victory mainly on the strength of the seven shots they whipped past Ram sub-goalie Bruce Murray, whom coach Bruce Sears started for the first time this year in place of regular netminder Gary Turkosz.

Even a five goal effort by Mike Marcoux wasn't enough to prevent Bolton from rolling to their fifth straight win.

hammering Bolton forwards, who more often than not chose to bog the ball rather than pass it. Marcoux' fifth goal was a direct result of Stu McCulloch's excellent defensive effort on Dave Mills.

McCulloch forced Mills out of the Ram Zone right back to centre floor, where he finally lost control allowing Marcoux to pick up the loose ball and race in for a breakaway.

Sears dressed two midget players George Artem and Rick Newman.

In a hard-hitting third period, Grant Haines and Gary Watson of Bolton traded punches and quick intervention by referees Ron Wicks and Murray Taylor stopped a potential bout between Turkosz and Mills in the early stages.

Rams hope to have Harry Barens in the lineup for the first time, when they host Wallaceburg Red Devils at the community centre, Monday, June 19. Red Devils snuck past Acton in the standings.
