

Moffat girls keep winning

Moffat 15 and under girls chalked up their sixth victory without a loss, when they trounced Ponsonby 17-1 Thursday night.

Darlene Snyder hit two home runs and Laurie Pierce, JoAnn Popp and Sue Thomson hit one each.

Winning pitcher Sue Thomson received excellent support from her fielders.

Bounce back

Moffat 12 and under girls came from behind in the final inning to edge Hillsburgh 18-17 last Wednesday night. The game was a see-saw battle all the way.

Tamie Henderson, the winning pitcher, helped her own cause by clouting a grand slam home run.

Big heroes of the Moffat win were Laurie Kennedy and Donna Dennis. With Moffat down 17-16 going into the last inning the first

Rockwood bombs barbers Shaw outshines "Shoe"

Rockwood Seniors rolled to their third straight victory Sunday night, whitewashing Pete's Barber Shop 6-0 behind the five hit, 14 strikeout pitching of Bob Shaw.

Shaw baffled barber shop batsmen with an assortment of risers, curves and drops to complement his bullet-like fastball. Every player in the Acton lineup, except John Dunn and Bruce Thomason whiffed at least once.

Dunn touched Shaw for three of the five Acton safeties, one of them an infield hit. A Texas league single by Jan Riddall and a wrong field liner by Denis Gibbons were the only other barber shop base hits.

Bombed

Starter Eric "Shoe" Lace and his successor Doug Vickery gave up a total of 12 base hits and were saved from further shelling only by an Acton outfield which accounted for 15 of the 27 putouts, many of them on balls' hit deep enough to go for home runs in parcs equipped with a fence. Centre fielder Dave Husson ran miles to haul in eight fly balls.

Second sacker Harry Barber started the onslaught with a home run down the right field line in the first inning. Barber also collected a single and a double.

Catcher Arlon Popkey singled three times, Blake Hind singled twice, Bob Shaw tripled and Dan Arbie, Steve Redmond and Chick Milne singled once for Rockwood.

Barbers aided the Rockwood cause by committing five errors.

Peewees suffer double defeat

Acton Reid's Gulf peewees dropped a 14-1 decision to Brampton Saturday and were outscored 16-9 by Georgetown Monday night in Halton County Minor Baseball peewee "B" league action.

Brampton pitcher MacDonald hurled a four hitter Saturday yielding only a pair of base hits to John Galt and singles to Terry Bateman and Steve McKnight. MacDonald fanned nine Acton batters.

Acton's only run came in the fourth inning, when Mark Morrison and Del Roach walked and McKnight singled.

Seven first inning runs by Georgetown provided the exact

Belwood victims of villagers' wrath

Held to a single base hit by hard throwing Jake Neu in a 2-0 loss to Hespeler last Tuesday night, Rockwood Seniors brought out the lumber to win back to back games against Belwood Thursday and Friday.

Bob "Buck" Shaw was the hero of a 5-11 inning victory posted by Rockwood in the first game in Belwood. Shaw shut Belwood out on two hits, while fanning 11 batters, after he relieved starter Chick Milne in the third. He also singled home the winning run in the 11th.

Hits galore

Rockwood pounded out 21 hits, including five by Norm Beattie and four each by Steve Redmond, Chick Milne and John Salmon in clobbering Belwood 22-1 back home Friday night. Going the route for the first time this season, Salmon gave up only three hits and struck out 11.

Junior John Thatcher broke up Neu's no hitter with a seventh inning single in the Hespeler game. Neu set 12 Rockwood batters down on strikes. Rockwood's only two losses have been to Hespeler. Rockwood play host to Fergus tomorrow (Thursday) night and travel to Glen Williams Sunday night.

Hespeler picked up both their runs in the 7th on a triple by Bill Hillis, a single by Dan Donahue and a pair of ground outs.

Win streak halted Merchants beaten

After four straight wins Campbellville came up with a bad game and were defeated 9-2 in Oakville Monday night.

Gord Currie, the league's leading pitcher with a 4-0 record, giving up two runs off five hits. He walked five and struck out 10.

Garnet Mitchell, the ace of the Campbellville staff lost the game but was the victim of shoddy support as seven of Oakville's runs were unearned. In five and two-thirds innings he gave up seven runs off five hits.

He walked two and struck out seven. In two and one-third innings, Peter Roberts allowed two runs off three hits. He walked four and struck out five.

Pitcher Gord Currie hit two doubles for Oakville and Conrad had two singles. Higgs, Reynolds, Hall and Kane all singled once. For Campbellville Loris Faggion and Doug Lang each singled twice. Hearnis tripled and Doug Lang singled.
