By Mrs. A. Benton

By Doris Fines Mr. and Mrs. Ward Bruce visited recently with Mr. and near Barrie. Among the recent visitors of Mrs. W. J. Jackson were Mr. and Mrs. Alan Watson, Mr. and Mrs. George Cruickshank, and Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Watson, of Hillsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Jestin, Everton; Mr. Kenneth Leighton, Toronto; Mrs. Fred Hall, Mr. Howard Hall, and Mrs. Jack Anthony, Erin.

Grade 7 pupils, and their teacher Mrs. Mary Nellis, travelled by bus, driven by Gordon Aitken, to Collingwood and Midland, where they visited the Shrine-a Catholic church, and the Huron Indian Village, where they gained an insight to the ways of this Indian tribe.

The Ladles' Aid

The roll call for the June meeting of the Ladies' Aid was an exchange of plants, when 11 members were present. The meeting was at the home of Mrs. Byron Bruce. The subject of the Devotional, by Mrs. Barrie Clarke, was Relationship between Jews and Christians. Mrs. Gordon Aitken told the stories of familiar hymns, and the group sang a verse of each.

Mrs. D. M. Dudnik conducted a contest in which sides were chosen, and the winning side was the one that could whistle first after eating crackers.

Lunch was served by the hostess to conclude a pleasant evening.

Knox Anniversary

The 84th anniversary service of Knox Presbyterian Church was observed on Sunday morning. Mrs. Gordon Aitken was organist for the service.

A very beautiful rendition of The Holy City was given by the Bruce trio, Mrs. Byron Bruce and daughters Beverly and Brenda. John Smedley of Erin sang two solos, "A Prayer of Moses", and "I Go on My Way In the Strength of the Lord for the Mountains Shall Depart" - from Elijah. The Rev. J. M. Murray of Knox Presbyterian Church, Milton, used as his text The Burning Bush, which was burning, but was not consumed, and from which Moses heard the words of the Lord. The church today is
