

Leslie - Costello marriage in Burlington on June 3

Marguerite Elizabeth Costello and Robert Gordon Leslie were married at St. Christopher's church, Burlington, on June 3. The Rev. David Luxton officiated at the ceremony and the church was decorated with two large bouquets of white and mauve lilacs.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Pat Costello, Burlington and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Leslie, R. R. 3, Acton.

Gift of groom

With her traditional long white wedding gown the bride wore a black diamond necklace, the gift of the groom.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Trudy Leclerc and the bridesmaids were Norma Leslie, the groom's sister, Kathleen Costello and Dolores Costello, the bride's sisters. The older attendants wore flowered gowns in fuschia, moss green and lilac shades while the youngest, Dolores Costello, wore a long mauve gown.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle Frank Costello. Wayne Aitken was groomsmen and the ushers were Tom Costello and David Wardlaw.

Reception in Hamilton

The reception followed at the Selco Veterans hall Hamilton. Guests attended from London, Montreal, Orangeville, Guelph, Hamilton, Dundas, Ancaster, Mississauga, Georgetown, Toronto and Hamilton.

The bride's grandparents Mr. and Mrs. George Costello, London, attended and the wedding cake was made by the bride's uncle, Clare Somers of Hamilton.

The couple left on a honeymoon to Lake Simcoe, the bride wearing a navy blue and yellow outfit topped with a navy and white poncho, and a corsage of yellow roses. They are living in Hamilton.

Before the wedding Mrs. Merle Jardine and Mrs. Carole Flack, neighbors in Burlington, held a shower for the bride-to-be, Mrs. Frances Somers, the bride's aunt, was hostess for a shower, and Mrs. Leslie, the groom's mother also held a third shower.

SIGNING THE REGISTER are Marguerite Costello and Robert Gordon Leslie, married June 3 in Burlington.

25th anniversary for well-known pair

Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson, R.R.2 Acton, held open house at Churchill Community Church on Sunday, June 18 afternoon and evening on their 25th wedding anniversary.

When 165 friends, relatives and neighbors called to offer congratulations and wish them many more years of happily "married life."

The church was decorated for the occasion and tea tables were centred with a bouquet of white bridal wreath and sweetheart roses. Smith Griffin, cousin of the bride, received in the afternoon and looked after the signing of the guest book; Fred Thompson, brother of the groom, did this in the evening. The ladies who poured tea in the afternoon were Mrs. Ralf Mulder, Mrs. Mary Hardy, Mrs. Robert Shekelton and Mrs. Cecil Berry who had been Mrs. Thompson's teacher. In the evening—Mrs. Clark Armstrong, Mrs. Harold McLaren, Mrs. Fred MacArthur and Mrs. Gordon Johnston poured.

Those who helped in kitchen were Mrs. Alvin Root, Mrs. Clarence Denny, Mrs. George Mellon, Mrs. Bert James, Mrs. Alvin Moore, Mrs. Fred Thompson, Mrs. Frank Thompson and Mrs. John Thompson. Serving were Mrs. Lorne Keeler, Mrs. Harvey Peavoy, Mrs. Mac Sprowl, Mrs. Jack Marshall, Mrs. Ken Hall, Mrs. Wilmer Davidson, Mrs. Charlie Plouffe Sr., Mrs. Bert Berry, Mrs. Robert Marshall, Misses Bonnie Armstrong, Carol and Janice Thompson and Elisabeth Thompson.

Miss Pamela Richardson of Manchester, England, arrives this afternoon (Wednesday) to spend three weeks vacation with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. George Richardson, R. R. 1, Acton. This is her first visit to Canada and plans are made to show her much of Ontario.

Jason Edward Masales was christened at St. Alban's church Sunday, June 18. He is the son of Gary and Jennifer Masales, Willowdale. A family luncheon followed at the home of Jason's grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Owen Masales. Attending were four generations of the Masales family and the Clement family of Milton.

Mr. Gus Bollert is recuperating in Guelph General Hospital following a fall, and may have a cast on his leg soon. He's spending his enforced spare time making models of planes and gliders. Friends hope he'll be out and back at his new building in the industrial park soon.

The president closed this most enjoyable meeting by wishing all a very happy summer holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Root celebrate 40th anniversary

The Innerkip home of David and Evelyn Ketchen was the recent gathering place for the family of Lillie and John Root (M.P.P. for Wellington-Dufferin) for the celebration of their 40th wedding anniversary.

The pleasant afternoon of visiting indoors and out was completed with a delightful dinner served by the ladies of Innerkip Presbyterian Church. Following the meal kind words were spoken by Mr. Root's brothers and sons. Then John and Lillie's grandson, fifteen year old John Root of Guelph presented the speech on Peace which has won him trophies across two provinces.

Mr. and Mrs. Haines Lillie (John's brother and Lillie's sister), attendants at the wedding 40 years ago, presented gifts on behalf of all those present.

Lillie thanked everyone for the bridal rose teapot and cream and sugar which match her dinnerware. John thanked them for the hibachi and accessories and reminisced about the past and present, comparing prices and customs of then and now. Present for the occasion were John's brothers and their wives, John and Lillie's sons and daughter with their families, and a nephew with his family. Lillie's sister in Ottawa.

Termly Times second edition

The second edition of The Termly Times has been issued by the Robert Little school, to the delight of students and friends. The book has about 40 mimeographed pages of material and advertisements assembled by the editorial staff.

Editor of this year's Termly Times is Kathy Frost; assistant editor Carol McKenzie, staff consultant Mrs. Marlene Tilton, artist Kevin Broostad, reporters Beverly Duval, Ricky Jackson, John Nessel, Kim Wood, Kim Bishop, Sharon Cunningham, Eunice Gibb, Margaret Huxley, David Marcoux, Bob Patterson, Neveen Kamel, Stan Petric, Kim McCristall, Rhona Silcock and Rick Van Fleet.

The issue is dedicated to vice-principal Mrs. Mary Judd who is leaving to become vice principal at Brookdale public school in Oakville. There are 450 copies of the magazine prepared at a price of a nickel a copy.

Included is a letter from a former teacher, Glen Banks of Wawa. Other letters make a lively Letters to the Editor section.

Included also are an editorial, recipes, craft instructions, poetry, stories, biographies of some of the staff, predictions, riddles, sports scores, and accounts of highlights of the school year.

There are plenty of dandy jokes such as:

Mother: Did you take a bath today? Dick: Why? Is there one missing?

And: What did the beaver say to the tree? It was nice gnawing you.

Mrs. J. Frank has returned home after holidaying with friends at Parry Sound, Little Current and Manitowaning.

Mr. Albert Louttit, driver for Custom Cleaners, is a patient in Guelph General Hospital. Friends wish him a quick return to health.

Effects of Hurricane Agnes were felt here in winds, rain and thick clouds for about a week. One of those feeling more immediate danger was Mrs. A. B. Lyon, sister of Mrs. G. A. Dills. As water rose steadily around her Lewisburg, Pennsylvania home, a crew of men arrived to move all her furniture upstairs and drive her car to higher grounds. Mrs. Lyon was told to be ready to evacuate her house at any time, but left last Friday to stay temporarily with friends. She was able to return home Sunday to find just her cellar flooded, although properties nearer the Susquehanna River were completely inundated. Traffic in and out of the city was stopped; one inconvenience was a severe lack of bread.

Accident sidelines caretaker

Caretaker Roy Arnott, Peel St., caught his right hand in a power motor belt recently while working at Fairview cemetery. The resulting injuries will likely keep him off the job from six to eight weeks.

Mr. Arnott said the accident happened so fast he really does not know how. He was able to reach town superintendent Alf Duby, nearby and was taken to the medical centre for treatment, and then to Guelph hospital. He suffered lacerations and torn ligaments.

Council steak fry

Reeve Frank Oakes and Mrs. Oakes were hosts for the annual Acton Council mid-term steak fry and social get together at their Knox Ave. home last night (Tuesday).

Councillors, town office and supervisory staff and members of the press attended along with their wives.

The "singing Mayor" Les Duby led a sing song of old favorites to the accompaniment of his guitar later in the evening.
