Olde tyme garden party ends year at school

By Mrs. A. Benton

A very large crowd patronized Limehouse Public School Olde Tyme Garden Party on June 27. Booths selling popcorn, candy, ice-cream, pop, wieners, etc., games of chance and even the Gypsy's graveyard were scattered over the grounds. The well-filled baked goods table was soon cleared.

The weather co-operated perfectly, and Bob Gracey with his guitar was m.c. for a lengthy program. Mrs. Carpenter and her dancing girls from Acton performed over and over. James brought and his folk group from Georgetown pleased the modern ones of the audience.

Mrs. Bert Benton and Mrs. David Barrager with their primary and junior choirs and the triple duet repeated winning numbers from the festival with others as well. Miss Carol Lawson was accompanist.

Several Grade 6 girls provided a humorous skit in costume. Miss Norline Noble obliged with a piano medley of old time songs.

Presentations made

Retiring principal Ralph McKeown and September principal Mr. D. Haley both briefly of times past and the hopes for the future respectively. Mrs. Benton and several students on behalf of the staff and pupils presented Mr. McKeown with two upholstered chaise lounges and a grass edger as a parting remembrance. He expressed his thanks, saying he was not completely surprised as some little people talk out loud.

To wind up the party an hour or so of dancing was enjoyed outdoors with music provided by Earl Burt, Bob Kerr, Fred Piehl and Mrs. Marion Armstrong, and Mrs. J. Crichton calling the squares.

The staff, students and a number of parents and all those contributing to the entertainment are to be complimented for such a memorable evening. Proceeds will provide educational trips in the future.

Dinner at school

The school staff and 20 mother helpers at the school enjoyed a smorgasbord dinner at noon one day late in the term.

The staff enjoyed a barbecue at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McKeown on Thursday evening. Mrs. D. Barrager was remembered with a parting gift as she will not be on the staff next year.

Rev. Peter Barrow will conduct church services at Limehouse Presbyterian Church at 12.30 during July. Services will return to 9.45 a.m. in August.

Picnic planned by Ladies' Aid

Knox Ladies Aid met in the Dr. A.C. Stewart hall, Tuesday, June 27, with the president, Mrs. McIntyre, in the chair. The meeting opened with a poem, Friends, hymn He Leadeth Me, and prayer by the president. The roll call was answered by naming an all Canadian product.

Arrangements for a picnic on July 11 were discussed. After the business period, the devotions were taken by Mrs. A. Robinson reading the scripture, Psalm 11, and Miss Ruby Clark led in prayer. The offering was received followed by prayer by Mrs. McIntyre. Mrs. Matthews gave a reading, Hymn God be with You 'Till We Meet Again was sung and The Lord's Prayer repeated in unison.

Lunch was served and a social half-hour enjoyed.

NEW taps are installed in the cemetery to make watering easier. Not that it was much needed this year. The Decoration Day geraniums are blooming well.

Eden Mills

Surprise gift, reunion news

by Mrs. R. Wright

The monthly meeting of Eden Mills Presbyterian Church Ladies' Aid was hosted by Mrs. R. Wright Tuesday afternoon. Scripture was read by Mrs. Wm. McLean followed by prayer by Mrs. Garnet MacDougall. A reading from an old school book was the roll call which brought back memories.

Readings by Mrs. Herb Gilbertson and Mrs. Anna Wilson were enjoyed.

A pleasant surprise awaited Mrs. Wallace Lasby when she was presented with a gift by Mrs. Beryl Wright on behalf of the Ladies' Aid—the occasion their 25th wedding anniversary.

No meeting is to be held in July and the annual picnic in August will be at the Lasby Farm.

The Blair reunion which is held every two years was planned for the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Blair, Eden Mills, on Saturday, June 24. Due to the inclement weather the community hall was used. The business part and games were in charge of the capable committee of Mr. and Mrs. Art Blair and family of Simcoe.

Around sixty relatives were present from Ohio, Michigan, Simcoe, Brantford, Hespeler, Hamilton, Windsor, Burlington, Everett, London, Kitchener, Ottawa, Toronto, Goderich, Stratford, Sudbury, Waterloo and Exeter.

Presentation, picnic, visits

By Doris Fines

Mr. Sydney Craik is enjoying a few weeks' holidays in England, visiting relatives and sight-seeing.

A presentation was planned for two couples who were recently married—Mr. and Mrs. William Clarke, and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Archibald. The committee in charge decided against having an evening party, so on behalf of all the friends and neighbors who contributed, the money in a Blue Mountain teapot was presented to each couple with the best wishes of the community.

Mr. William Bruggen and daughter Marion, of Drachten, Friesland, The Netherlands, are visiting for three weeks with Mr. Bruggen's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Vander Heide and family.

Social evening

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Browne entertained the school teachers and bus drivers, their wives and husbands, on Wednesday evening at their cottage on Belwood Lake. They enjoyed a picnic supper, and spent a nice social evening.

The welcome of the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Mullen and family who built their house on 24 Highway near the river, on the old toll hill.

A welcome also to Mr. and Mrs. Van der Meulen and family from Oakville, who are moving into the Klooster house. Mrs. Jeanette Hurd, who has been keeping the home fires burning, moved to Acton on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Buck, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fisher, spent the holiday weekend at Wasaga.

Mrs. Russel Stevenson of Simmie, Saskatchewan, was a guest on Sunday of her aunt and cousin, Mrs. Thomas Fines and Doris. Mrs. Elwood Peavoy of Erin visited at the same home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cheyne of Stonehaven, Scotland, are visiting this month with their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Fraser and family. Mrs. Fraser has not seen her parents for 15 years, so it will be a joyful reunion.
