

60 attend Bible School, hay ride, closing program

By Mrs. Fred MacArthur
 Sunday Church Service was very well attended when Acton Baptist Church friends joined with us in our morning worship. During the past week in the forenoon a very successful and rewarding vacation Bible school was conducted at Churchill Church.

The daily attendance was approximately 60 children. The theme study was "Fitting all of life together."

Young Teen Class (grade 6-8) was led by Joyce Denny. They held group discussions, did work book assignments and completed projects from leather and yarn.

The junior class (grade 4 and 5) led by Janice Swackhamer had the largest enrollment. They completed the attractive posters from colored tissue paper and made leather novelties as well as working on assignments in their pupil books.

Miss Ruth Kirkwood assisted by Elizabeth Thompson and Karen MacArthur taught the primary children (grades 1 to 3). These pupils completed assignments and projects co-ordinating with their lessons.

Pre-school fun
 The pre-school class was taught by Debbie Swackhamer assisted by Vera Stokov. They studied Bible verses and stories and learned songs.

The school activities were supervised and directed by Mrs. Joanne Turner and Mrs. Shirley Anderson.

A lively sing song and refreshment time was the highlight of each day. Mrs. Marie Anderson assisted greatly to the enjoyment of the singing by playing the organ.

Hay ride
 On Wednesday evening Mr. Bonell took the Teen and Junior Classes for a hay ride arriving at the Turner home for a wiener roast returning to the church by bus.

On Thursday evening the children presented skits, sang songs and repeated memory verses to proud parents and interested friends who viewed their work which was attractively displayed in the basement. Mrs. Shirley Anderson provided ice cream for a treat for all the children at the close. The assistance of those who provided transportation, cookies, leather supplies and capable leadership is greatly appreciated.

W.M.S., reunion, visit of interest

By Mrs. A. Benton
 Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wiles on the arrival of another wee son on July 2, named David Martin.

W.M.S. meeting
 The W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. Patterson on Tuesday evening last week with ten attending. Scripture was read by Mrs. Crichton and Mrs. Kirkpatrick led in prayer. Roll call and text word exit were answered by scripture verses, and several read interesting current events. Mrs. Booth read, "The Story of a Church," for study which told that only 28 percent of the people in a section of E. Harlem were affiliated with any denomination. One sect tried to establish a congregation and drew a number of children and one adult at the first service. Misunderstanding and suspicion were overcome in time until services lasted several hours to accommodate all. The church did good work as a drug addiction correction centre.

The meeting closed by repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison. The hostess served refreshments afterwards.

To Kingsville
 Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roughley visited Mr. and Mrs. Rob Roughley at Kingsville last week. Mr. and Mrs. August Spitzer accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Benton attended the King reunion at Thornbury on Sunday.

Centennial flags wave soon!
 The first issue of the Acton Centennial Flag will appear in August. A four color nylon, 54" x 36", the flags will be numbered and bear the centennial date.

Price for a flag is $8 for those who would want one to fly from their home. The first prints will feature the Centennial emblem on a white ground as well as on a gold ground. Many residents have already placed orders for flags. With proper care the flags will last until Centennial year; however it is part of the program to get as much publicity for Acton's Centennial to have the flags on display for the next two years. Contact any one of the Centennial Commission or write to Box 100, Acton, for information or to order a flag.
