

BIG GUN of the Moffat 12 and under girls' ball team is Laurie Kennedy. This petite miss slammed six home runs and a single in a 37-5 win over Belwood last Wednesday.

'Burg takes one Moffat gals rack up two

The Hillsburgh (19 and under) girls slid past home team Moffat 14-9 last Tuesday on the basis of a five run effort in the seventh inning.

Moffat pitching duties were shared by Sharon McCormick and Cheryl Baynton in a game where both fans and players were entertained by the antics of Coach George Wheeler.

B. Sinclair and A. Somerville both contributed home runs to the Hillsburgh cause.

Smash Belwood
The Moffat (12 and under) girls smashed Belwood 37-5 last Wednesday to strengthen their grip on first place.

Tammy Henderson pitched a good game for the winners but it was Laurie Kennedy who earned recognition batting in 13 runs on six homers and a single.

Rally falls short midgets bow 15-13

Down 7-1 early in the second period, Acton Rotary midgets made a remarkable comeback to force their Central minor lacrosse league game against Port Credit into overtime last Tuesday night.

Port Credit eventually claimed a 15-13 victory by outscoring the Rotarians 3-1 in the overtime period, but not before they sweated through some anxious moments in the dying minutes of regulation time.

Woody Scores
Rick "Woody" Newman sent the game into overtime with his third goal of the night with a little over a minute to play. Rotarians tied the score three times in the third period.

Making his first start ever in goal, Terry "Moochey" Holmes played an excellent game and could not be faulted on the winning goal in overtime. He beat a Port Credit player on a clean cut breakaway just seconds before.

Rams butt Hurons in Junior C boxla

After a lacklustre first period, Acton Rams came on strong in the second and third to run up a 14-5 win over the Midland Hurons in Jr. C lacrosse Monday night.

Coming back after a 2-2 first period deadlock, the hometown Rams reorganized and easily dominated the rest of the game. Frustrated Midland squad showed their anger by taking cheap penalties, which allowed the Rams to score.

Mike Marcoux played a strong game for the winners racking up six goals and assisting on another. Mike Cooper scored twice and set up one. Single goals went to Craig Weldon, Dave Manes, Gord Williams, Gary Fisher, George McPhail, and Barry Court. Assists went to McPhail with three, Weldon and Court with two apiece and Grant Haines, Randy Coker and Harry Barrens with singles.

Ram goalie John Povey played well in the Acton cage and earned an assist on the slide.

Despite the heat a fair-sized crowd was on hand to view the match. Hurons snatched a win from the Rams on their last visit to Midland.

Wanderers edge Rams Friday night

A strong effort by Bolton Wanderers at home Friday night allowed them to beat the Acton Rams 14-12 in Jr. C lacrosse.

Mike Marcoux had a good night for Acton scoring three goals and setting up three more. George McPhail with three goals and two assists and Mike Cooper with two goals and three assists did their part in the Ram effort.

Craig Weldon played a strong game beating the Bolton goalie twice and aiding in two more. Single goals went to Bruce Cooksley and Barry Court. Assists went to Court with two and singles to Cooksley and goalie Mike Kreiner.

Barbers clipped by Georgetown

Georgetown came from behind to beat Pete's Barber Shop 6-4 in intercounty fastball Sunday.

Georgetown pitcher Holtby tied the score on a homerun late in the game and his team followed through for the win.

Ed. Phillips swung a hot bat for the hometown team hitting safely three out of four times at bat. Jim Bullough kept a .400 average with two hits out of five bats.

Fred Buchanan, Jan Riddell, Andy Williams and Bob Andrews all hit safely for Acton.

The Barbers have three tough road games this week.

Bob Shaw fans 10 in Rockwood win

A seventh inning rally by the Rockwood Seniors gave them a 5-4 comeback victory over Glen Williams in intercounty fastball Thursday.

Blake Hines started as pitcher for the Rockwood club but was replaced in the second by Bob Shaw who went on to fan ten batters.

The Rockwood offense was highlighted by the seventh inning rally that gave them the win.

Harry Barber, Norm Beattie, Charlie Milne and Bob Shaw chalked up the game winning markers.

McGowan pitched the entire game for the Glen retiring ten batters on strike-outs.

Billy belts two homers but Roadrunners lose

Acton Canadian Tire Roadrunners were defeated 8-3 last Wednesday night in Burlington. The game marked the locals their fourth straight defeat in Halton County "B" baseball.

Despite losing 8-3, the Acton team was blessed with the heads-up play of centre fielder, Billy Cushman. Cushman led Acton's offensive attack belting two home runs and a single.

Top star for Burlington was lead off hitter Mike Albanese who scored four runs.

Max Stafford and Blake Ingills were the big bats for Glen Williams. Ingills hit three times for four bats while Stafford doubled and singled driving in three RBI's.

House league baseball

Hornets and Bombers tied 14-14 last Sunday in Acton house league baseball. Tim Atkinson supplied a consistent effort for the Hornets as did Robbie Dukker for the Bombers.

In other league action, Hornets edged the Dodgers 17-16 last Monday. Norm Charette and Tim Atkinson played well for the victors. Murray McNabb played well in the losing effort.

Bombers were on the losing end of a 22-16 game with the Tigers last Tuesday. Terry Coleman and Martin Van Opstal sparked the win. Robbie Dukker led the Bomber effort.

Tigers slide past the Hornets 13-12 Wednesday on the basis of a good performance by John Woodman. Howie Hatt played a strong game for the losers.

Norm Charette, Howie Hatt, David Lawson, and Bill Sheppard paced the Hornets' 19-13 win over the Dodgers Monday. Murray McNabb, Dave Williamson and Danny Schonnop played well for Dodgers.

Oaks bomb Acton Bants

Oakville's number two Bantam squad bombed Acton 12-3 in minor lacrosse at Oakville Thursday night.

Ronnie Moore scored twice for the losers with Peter Arbic supplying the other Acton tally.

Assists went to Rick Van Fleet with two, Cliff Creasey and John Kirkwood with one apiece.
