

4-H members travel to Maryland for week

Halton 4-H members, 17 of them at least, will be busy travelling on exchange trips and to regional conferences this summer. From July 22-29 a group of 10 deserving 4-H'ers will visit with 4-H'ers from the State of Maryland. This is part of the exchange trip in which Halton participated with Maryland last year. Ten delegates from there spent a week in the homes of Halton 4-H'ers last summer. The members attending are

Valerie Ella, Hornby; Leah Leslie, Acton; Beryl McEnery, Limehouse; David McKinnon, Milton; Ken McNabb, Georgetown; Dave Reid, Georgetown; Beth Laidlaw, Norval; Dennis McClure, Georgetown; Tom Parker, Campbellville; and Grace Bird, Georgetown. The Regional 4-H Conference this year will be held August 8-10 at York University. This conference is for 15-year-old 4-H'ers. The delegates attending from

Halton this year are Bruce McKeown, Caledon East; Rob Murray, Acton; Les McDonald, Georgetown; Keith McKinnon, Milton; Barry Reid, Georgetown; Jane Nixon, Norval; and Dan Willmott, Milton. The Halton County Livestock Judging Competition will be held on Wednesday, August 2 during the day. This activity will take place in the Acton area this year. The competition is open to anyone in 4-H or Junior Farmers who is 26 years of age or under. It will also be the final Achievement Day for the Halton 4-H Livestock Judging Club. Members in this club must attend and judge all classes.

Skating medal for Kevin Parker

Pursuing his favorite sport—skating—even in July, Kevin Parker, 11, captured first place in juvenile men's singles free skating Sunday. The invitational summer free skating competition was held in St. Catharines Memorial arena, and Kevin was competing against about 25 other boys in his category, which goes up to age 13. A keen skater he's a grade six student in Brookville school. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Parker and family, moved recently from Acton to Campbellville. He started with Acton Figure skating club and is now with Guelph club. He is skating during the summer at Galt memorial arena under his pros, Mr. and Mrs. Pocock. He was presented with a medal and trophy Sunday.

Oaks edge Acton Squirts in extra time

Acton Squirts played a hard fought game in the Ontario Cup Competition last Sunday in Oakville. In the evenly matched game there was no score after full time forcing the game into overtime. The Oakville team broke the deadlock in the second extra period by capitalizing on Acton errors to bang home two goals. Chris Harrington and Gordie McArthur played well for Acton. Both teams also played well to provide the most exciting game of the season.

House league soccer

Paul Nolan scored four, Gordie McArthur registered two and Pierre Wimeshzi netted one goal as the "Loovers" squirts smashed the Angels 7-0, last Saturday in house league soccer play. On Tuesday of last week the Angels and four Chevs travelled to Georgetown for an exhibition game. Both teams played well in the scoreless tie.

Hornby shades Acton girls

Acton Junior girls' ball team visited Hornby Thursday and came back on the losing end of a 15-10 score. Sherry Spielvogel supplied some batting punch while Dorothy Kaiser and Heather McEachern shared pitching duties. Monday the girls managed a 14-11 win with Dorothy Kaiser and Heather McEachern pitching. Susan Gunther and Valerie Irwin dominated the offense.
