Calf club meets for demonstration

By Carol Somerville
The July meeting of the Acton 4-H Calf Club was held on July 17 at the Indian Garden Farm of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Murray and family, in Nassagaweya. It was decided by the members to hold the business part of the meeting later.

Club Leader Nino Braida gave a type demonstration for dairy cattle and all judged a class of mature holstein cows. Reasons were given by all members to leaders, Bill Lasby, Russell Murray, Vern Butchers and Nino Braida.

Rob Murray, Mike Hanosauk, Marie Murray, Karen Pierce and Laurie Pierce brought out their project calves, and showmanship and grooming were discussed with Vern Butchers and Russell Murray. Members practiced showing these calves.

Official placing
The meeting was then moved to the barn, where Russell Murray gave the official placing and reasons on the mature holstein cow class. The business portion of the meeting was opened with the repeating of the 4-H pledge, led by the president, Cathy Lasby. Fifteen members answered the roll call with "A part of a dairy cow". A committee was appointed to decide if a float would be built for Acton Fall Fair, and several items of business were discussed.

Cathy Lasby, the Ontario Shorthorn Lassie Queen, who had just returned from a trip to the Calgary Stampede, told of some of her adventures and activities out West. Members congratulated Cathy for being chosen for this trip by the Ontario Shorthorn Association, and Mr. Braida spoke of the honour Cathy has brought to herself, her family, her club and her county.

Bill Lasby discussed the digestive system of ruminant animals and Russell Murray gave the lesson on some common diseases of calves. Mr. Braida reminded members of important upcoming events. Cathy Lasby introduced our hosts, and thanked them for their enthusiastic support of 4-H work in the Acton area. Mr. Murray replied. Barb Brown thanked the Murray family on behalf of the club.

Orangeville whips Acton midgets

Hometown Orangeville whipped Acton 16-9 in midget lacrosse Wednesday night.

After the first period Acton was on the losing end of a 6-3 score. Acton's markers were supplied by Rick Newman with two and Kent Kentner with one.

By the end of the second period Acton had narrowed the gap to 9-7. Newman, George Arten, Gary Delong and Mike Luty scored once each that period.

Seven in first
Orangeville drove seven into the Acton goal in the final period. Acton could only reply with single goals from Newman and Kentner.

Wade Knight and Mike Luty earned two assists apiece in the game while singles went to Newman, Kentner, and Bill McGilloway.

Celebrate records at A.A.

About 120 attended the annual July birthday celebration of the Acton A.A. mobile group in the scout hall Saturday night. Despite the heat there were A.A. representatives here from Kitchener, Waterloo, Guelph, Collingwood, Hamilton, Milton, Georgetown, Toronto, Orangeville, New Hamburg, Elora, Fergus, and Erin.

group was back from his home in Naples, Florida, to receive his 10 year medallion for continuous sobriety. He moved to Florida four years ago.

Two others joining him in the special celebration were a member with 13 years sobriety and another with 12.

A Hamilton man, Cliff M., was the speaker; he was celebrating 21 years continuous sobriety the same week.

The Acton group has two special nights each year, the birthday celebration in July and the group anniversary in November.

TIRE INFLATION

Watch tire inflation, particularly on long trips. Under-inflation threatens both your safety and your wallet, warns the Ontario Safety League. Not only is it dangerous in fast driving, particularly in slippery conditions, but it can shorten a tire's life by as much as 20 per cent.
