by Mrs. R. Shortill

Arriving by Jumbo Jet on Wednesday from Maidstone, England are two little girls Christine and Diane Cutler, aged 9 and 7 years. They are in Canada for the month of August to visit their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Cutler here at Ballinafad. They had not seen them for four years. They will also visit their aunts and uncles at Hillsburg and at Orton. They were placed in the care of the Stewardess at London airport and landed safely at Malton to be met by their grandparents.

Family moves
Mr. and Mrs. Murray Eyre and Tammie moved this last week to the trailer home at Mitchell's.

It seems the big stone Shortill home has been sold this week - the one next to the store.

Mr. Wayne French and Michael Rotz, are on a motor trip this week.

Morley Shortill and a group, of friends also had a trip north on the week end.

Tragic death
Our sincere sympathy through this column is extended to the Given family on the tragic death of Kathy's husband, Kevin Hall. The W.I. had a booth at the auction sale of Hugh Bass.

Many Limehouse residents and others were entertained on Thursday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Norton's new house arrived by truck from Streetsville, to be placed on their back lot.

Church service
Church service was conducted on Sunday morning by Mr. Grant Wright and his two sons, using his record player Danny had us hear a record of modern hymn arrangements. Then Danny read us the children's story, after which Barry read the scripture. Mr. Wright gave the discourse. What a fine thing it is to see a family take part in a service.

Mrs. Elaine Sales pronounced the benediction and took the prayer. It seemed too bad more were not in attendance.
