Water well

By Burke McNeill
Most homeowners tend to water their lawns too often and too lightly. This method of watering encourages shallow root growth and increases the possibility of damage during the hot summer months. Generally it is better to water a lawn heavily and less frequently. The amount of water needed varies, depending on the soil, the weather and the grass variety.

Mrs. H. Beasley as her talent

They were dressed in peasant style dresses of white silk organza over taffeta with a red figured skirt, frilled scoop necklines and puffed short sleeves. The skirts were gathered with laced bodices. They also wore Venice lace chokers that matched the bride's, and carried Victorian clusters of red and white miniature carnations.

The brother of the bride, Lloyd McIntyre of Georgetown, was groomsman while friends Bernie Frouler of Acton and Bernard Weadick of Guelph ushered.

Dr. George Elliott was organist while Miss Bonnie Hill of Milton sang The Wedding Prayer and We've Only Just Begun.

The reception was held at the Acton Meadows Golf Club preceded by a relaxing hour on the lawn visiting and viewing gifts on display at the bride's parents' home.

Mothers receive
The mother of the bride received wearing a mauve polyester crepe street length dress with Swiss lace collar and elbow length sleeves and wearing a mauve cattleya orchid. The groom's mother, Mrs. Nellie Wieck, received wearing a pink polyester chiffon overlay street length dress with full length sheer sleeves with a white cattleya orchid. Peppermint stick carnations in double bud vases decorated the reception hall. A special wedding dance was held in honor of the couple later in the evening.

The bride wore a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses and was dressed in a white and brown toned dress departing for a three week honeymoon trip to the prairie provinces and the west coast, returning on August 13.

Also, on a date to be announced later, the Ospringle girls will test their skill against the Ospringle boys in a ball game. So be sure to come and see these young folk play. The girls are ages 10 to 14 years, and their coaches are Mrs. Jim Taylor, Miss Lydia Dudnik, and Miss Natalie Dudnik.
