Sue shows 'burg another no-hitter

Sue Thomson hurled a no-hitter, while her teammates slammed base hits all over the Brookville diamond Friday night, as Moffat 15 and under girls advanced to the ORSA semi-finals by whitewashing Sweaburg 44-0.

Second game of the series was to have been played in Sweaburg, near Woodstock Sunday, but Sweaburg conceded the series after Friday's game.

Moffat will now meet either Fisherville or Cayuga in the semi-finals. Hillsburgh and the defending champion Limehouse girls are involved in the other semi-final series.

Sweaburg batters hit the ball in fair territory only twice against Sue Thomson, who struck out 18 with her blazing fastball.

Batterymate Cathy McLeod connected for a pair of home runs and Sue also homered once. Every player in the Moffat lineup hit safely at least once.

Peewees upset Brampton

Acton Reid's Gulf peewees rallied for three runs in the bottom of the seventh and upset Brampton 8-7 in a Halton County peewee "B" baseball game at the park, Monday night.

Base hits by Randy Upton, Ray Kingsmill and Marvin McNabb lifted Acton to victory in a game that Brampton led 6-2 after five innings.

Upton also singled to start a sixth inning Acton rally which produced three runs. McNabb and Del Roach picked up runs batted in.

Jim Matthews paced a 13 hit Acton attack on Brampton pitcher Walker with three singles. Randy Upton and Marvin McNabb both rapped out two base hits. John Galt, Del Roach, Steve McKnight, Bert Post, Ray Kingsmill and George Bliden had one hit apiece.

Right hander Bert Post scattered seven hits and struck out four in recording the win on the Acton mound. He issued only three walks.

Ramettes gain tie

As a warmup for their rematch with the Huntsville Hawkettes here at the community centre, Sunday, September 10, Ramettes have accepted a challenge from the recreational league all-stars to play a game, Tuesday August 29.

"I'm going to make it clear to the recreational leaguers, we intend to still be unbeaten after that game," coach James said.

Barber's miss playoffs

Pete's Barber Shop lost all chances of making the Intercounty Fastball league playoffs when they bowed 12-7 to Belwood Thursday night. Barber's finished in the league cellar.

Bruce Thomason had four hits and Andy Williams three in a losing cause for Acton.

Barbers must still play their remaining league game with Fergus. They'll also compete in a tournament in Lowville this weekend.

Minor Soccer

Town fathers prep for softball game

Lights at the Prospect Park softball diamond burned bright till the wee hours of this morning (Wednesday), as town council took batting practice following their regular meeting in preparation for this Friday night's softball showdown with the "Comin About" coffee house Cats.

Mayor Les Duby and his "Dubes" have accepted an invitation to play the game in the park at 7.30 Friday. A collection will be taken up at the game to help kick off a campaign to form a youth council in town. Halton M.P. Rud Whiting has consented to umpire the game.

Following the game, players and spectators are invited back to the coffee house in the community centre to listen to folk singer Joe Eichenhoffer of Brampton and enjoy refreshments.

University of Waterloo bluegrass and ragtime folk singers Alf and Pie will appear at the coffee house Saturday night.

Official closing date for the coffee house is, Thursday, August 31, when a dance will be held featuring "Hot Summer's Night".

Financial assistance of the Acton Rotary Club has helped the coffee house operate during the month of August.

A dance to the music of an Acton group "Sidewalk" was well-attended Saturday night.
