

DAVID KALLANTENE

New vice principals at all town schools

All three town schools have new vice-principals this September.

Brian Downes, new vice principal at the high school, has been in hospital with a back ailment and is still not able to come to school.

Now at the J. J. Rennick school is David Kallantene, a B.S. in Campbellville, who taught at the Martin St. school in Milton for the last three years. There he taught grade 10. He will have a grade 11 class.

He is married with three children, Jennifer, 1, Mark, 4 and Laura.

He attended St. Bernard's elementary school, Waterdown high school, Hamilton teachers college and then received his B.A. from McMaster University. He is marking his 12th year teaching with his transfer to M.Z.S.

She is a scout leader in Carlisle and is interested in sports. He plays basketball and enjoys car rallying. He's a member of Campbell Masonic lodge.

vice-principal Mrs. Judd is being replaced by another woman, Mrs. Barbara Rennick, who lives in Georgetown with her husband and daughter Nancy. She also has a married daughter Mrs. Mary Lou Barrieau, who lives in Toronto.

Mrs. Rennick was born and educated in Montreal, took teacher training in Quebec but received her B.A. from Waterloo Lutheran university.

She taught in Montreal and Toronto and then coming to Halton, in Stewarttown and Pineview schools. In her 21 year teaching career she has had all grades from kindergarten to grade 8, and also taught an integrated language arts program in grades 4, 5 and 6.

The Rennicks have a cottage in the Laurentians. She says she particularly enjoys gardening, reading, sewing, cooking and playing bridge.

H. Wizzenz heads Council

Hank Wizzenz was named chairman of the Acton Youth Council Tuesday night at the park. Colin Price was chosen as treasurer and Barry Breen got the nod as Information and Publicity Officer.

This was the new organization's first meeting and a large crowd discussed the programs objectives, terms of reference for the council, election of officers and needs that the council sees itself as providing assistance with the community.

The council's next meeting is set for 7:30 on Monday, September 11; at the Keaton Organ Factory on Frederick St. An invitation is extended to all.

Award winner

Robert Ellerby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Ellerby of Acton Blvd., Acton was this year's recipient of the Hurst Memorial Award for proficiency in Grade 13 History at Acton High School.

Mark Hurst made the presentation on behalf of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hurst. It will begin classes next week at Carleton University, Ottawa.

Market closes on Saturday

Closing day at the Acton Country Market attracted a good crowd of shoppers. Twelve stalls did a brisk business in everything from eggs to handicrafts and flowers.

Students from the Opportunities for Youth program who operated the market all summer said they hoped someone would carry the project next year. The stalls have been donated to the Acton Centennial Commission.

Outdoor service

An outdoor service was held Sunday evening in the Foodland parking lot, under the direction of the Pentecostal church.
