Ramettes are conquered

Huntsville Hawkettes stopped the unbeaten streak of the Acton Ramettes girls lacrosse team when they handed the local girls an 8-5 defeat in the final game of the season for both teams before a reasonably good crowd of 200 fans at the community centre Sunday afternoon.

The teams played to a 1-1 tie in the first period, but Huntsville enjoyed 3-1 and 4-2 goal advantages in the second and third periods respectively. Ramettes won a game in Huntsville 10-2 earlier this year. "They were a vastly improved team Sunday," Ramette coach

Jim James commented. "The play of their goaltender Diane Brueton was the best we've seen this year."

Leads attack Pat Steward led the Hawkettes attack with two goals. Single goals were scored by Wendy McLennan, Carol Wolfe, Sharon Skulms, Shelley Jones, Pat Wood and Paula Ruby.

Colleen Spielvogel and Anne Luty both scored twice for Acton. Liz Strokov added a single goal and two assists. Ramettes played without the services of one of their best defence players Cathy Ashley who was sick.

Both teams enjoyed a lunch provided by the Acton girls following the game.

Ramettes will enter a float in this Saturday's Fall Fair parade to wind up the season.

Windsor Warlocks win Junior "C" boxla title

Windsor Warlocks have succeeded Acton Rams as Junior "C" lacrosse champions of Ontario.

Warlocks upset Long Branch PCO's 19-15 in the championship game of a special tournament held in Rexdale on the weekend. PCO's won the Canadian Junior title in another week long tournament held in Edmonton in August.

Windsor ousted Wallaceburg and Bolton to qualify for the tournament, then were given a bye into the final when Brockville Magdelmas, the Eastern Ontario representatives failed to show up.

Long Branch decided to play the semi-final game. Acton Ram captain Mike Marcoux was officially presented with his O.L.A. league scoring championship trophy in between periods of the tournament title game. Ram past president Howard Dwyer also attended the final game.

Rams won the Junior "C" title last summer with a series of victories over Midland and Brockville.

Novices reach boxla finals

Acton Rotary novices wrapped up their Minor Oaks house league lacrosse semi-final series with a 4-4 victory in Oakville Saturday. Acton also won the series opener

5-3. Rotarians now advance to the league finals with the first game slated for Kincardine in Oakville tonight (Wednesday).

Big game at Brookville

Moffat 12 and under girls take on Hillsburgh Sunday afternoon at Brookville diamond in the deciding game of the Tri-County softball finals for their age bracket.

Moffat forced a fifth game by upsetting the Burgers 11-8 night behind the pitching of Tammie Henderson. Annette McArthur pitched a fine game for Hillsburgh as well.

Home runs in the game went to Margaret Intzi of Moffat and L. McIntyre of Hillsburgh.

Big defensive play of the night was made by Moffat's Mamie Van Gainerin, who speared Annette McArthur's liner for the third out in the final inning.

Second game will also be played in Oakville Saturday morning. A three goal effort by Todd Cook and steady netminding by Gareth Turner were key factors in the Acton win Saturday.

Todd McIntyre, Derrick Nealey and Mike Marshall also scored for Acton. McIntyre earned three assists and Nealey, Marshall, John Toebes and Gareth Turner picked up one apiece.

Coach Dave Cookley predicts the final series will be nip and tuck all the way.

"We played this team four times during the regular season and each team won twice," he said.

Early exit for Rockwood

Rockwood Scissors bowed out of the Intercounty Football league playoffs when they lost 3-0 to Georgetown Mets in Glen Williams Sunday night. Mets won the first game of the best of three quarter-final 4-1 in Rockwood park Thursday night.

The villagers outlasted their hosts 11-4 in Sunday's game, but weren't able to connect when it counted. Chick Milne had a perfect four for four night against Georgetown ace John Holtby.

Holtby gave up only two hits in outduelling Bob "Buck" Shaw in Thursday's game.

Playing coach John Salmon underwent knee surgery last week and is still a patient in Guelph General Hospital. Rockwood fans wish him a speedy recovery.

Two Rockwood girls who learned their softball in the Tri-County minor league, Pauline Pinder and Gail Nichol, were members of the Kitchener-Waterloo Civitan team which won the Provincial Women's Softball Union Junior "A" championship against Frigate last week.
