

Hasselfeldt - Lang vows exchanged in Milton

Bonnie Marie Lang of R.R. 1 Acton and John William Hasselfeldt of 100 Court St. N., Milton, were married in a five o'clock ceremony in Grace

Anglican church, Milton, August 28. Rev. Foster officiated for the double-ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Height of Acton and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hasselfeldt of Milton.

The bride chose a long satin gown with long lace sleeves, a train of lace falling from the Empire waistline. She wore her sister's shoulder length veil held in place by a beaded headpiece and carried a bouquet of red carnations and white stephanotis.

Pink and mauve
Maid of honor Judy Lang, sister of the bride, wore a floor length floral gown of pink georgette with a pink headpiece and carried a bouquet of pink mums.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Jeanne Robinson, sister of the bride; Mrs. Sharon Barr, sister of the groom, and Carol Height, sister of the bride. Their gowns were of mauve georgette with mauve headpieces and their bouquets were of mauve mums.

Flower girl Tammy Hasselfeldt, niece of the groom, was dressed in pink also.

The bride was escorted by her father; groomsmen were Fred Herenga, a friend, and the ushers Gord Hasselfeldt, brother of the groom; Bob McKee, a friend, and Bill Lang, brother of the bride.

Ring bearer was Tim Height, brother of the bride.
Don Clements was soloist for the wedding, singing The Wedding Prayer and The Lord's Prayer.

Reception at Legion
The reception in the evening was held at Acton Legion Hall. The bride's mother wore sapphire blue lace over taffeta, white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The groom's mother wore raspberry crepe with silver accessories and white carnations.

Guests were welcomed from Acton, Milton, Guelph, Erin, Paisley, Port Elgin, London, Campbellville, Rockwood, Ear Falls and Ripley. Among them were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hagedorn, a family friend Mrs. Isaac Beech and the groom's aunt Mrs. Agnes Hathaway. The bride's mother made her wedding cake and her aunt Mrs. Ola McDonald of London decorated it.

For leaving the bride wore a peasant dress of brown and white checked cotton with matching accessories and a white gardenia corsage.

The couple are living at R.R. 5, Milton.

Showers held
Before the wedding, Mrs. Jeanne Robinson held a Tupperware shower for the bride-to-be; Mrs. Rosemary Stull held a miscellaneous shower; Judy Lang held a miscellaneous shower and Mrs. Sharon Barr a kitchen and bathroom shower.
