Limehouse to Terra Cotta hike for district scouts

"Only take pictures and don't leave anything but footprints" were the probing instructions from Scout leader Dave Hartman when, with Assistant Vince Johnson, he led 11 Rockwood and district scouts on a hike along the Bruce trail from Limehouse to Terra Cotta last Saturday morning.

Meeting at the Rockwood Community School at 1:30 p.m., the enthusiastic crew were enthusiastic as they slathered in the waxy rain, assuring themselves that the weather would be clear and a nice day.

From the school they were driven to Limehouse by cooperative parents. The young hikers carried packs with lunch, water, and other supplies. They had a picnic at 4:30 p.m. and then continued on their way. They had a picnic at 4:30 p.m. and then continued on their way. They had a picnic at 4:30 p.m. and then continued on their way.

Rockwood Boy Scouts Association, including Brownies, Girl Scouts, and Cubs, have a blanket picnic for members of the Bruce Trail Association. Cub master Vince Johnson purchased the truck and hopes to see members from all groups take part in the opportunity for experience in outdoor living.

LINEING UP AGAINST Cub master Vince Johnson's small truck are Brett Currie, Allan Swanson, Steve Johnson, John Smit, and Russell Glendenning. The boys took the 10 mile trek from Limehouse to Terra Cotta in jute time and then ate an outdoor meal which they cooked on their own sterno stoves.
