Ospringe Korean receives aid from W.I. 10 years

By Doris Fines
 Photos of Cheng Ping-shue, a Korean boy, were shown to the women of Ospringe Institute, who help to sponsor the lad, at their October meeting at the home of Mrs. D. M. Dudnik. The pictures were taken at age 7 when the first aid was sent to him, and now ten years later at age 17.
 The roll call, An Improvement I Would Like In Consumer Goods, brought to light a few beefs.
 Mrs. Elmer Fisher read the scripture, Psalm 100. The motto, A man shouldn't plant more than his wife can hoe, was very ably spoken on by Mrs. H. R. Howard.

At meeting
 Guest speaker was Mrs. Sheldon Trousdale, who had attended the meeting at Conestoga College, Guelph, on Man and Resources. One of the items discussed there was Land Utilization, saying the biggest mistake made was allowing thousands of small farmers to be squeezed out of business. They had to find jobs elsewhere where there were already plenty of workers. City spread is also taking valuable farms.
 In education it is found not all who get their BA can find a job, and it is also a fact that not all can get their BA. It is better for those to take practical training, so now they are advised to go to technical school and learn a trade.
 Mrs. Gordon Aitken expressed thanks to the speaker, noting that man's resources can come to an end.
 The meeting closed with The Queen, and lunch was served by the hostess.

Co-incidence
 Mrs. D. M. Dudnik tells of a funny co-incidence. In 1953 she began using a recipe for banana bread from the Guelph Mercury Cook book, which she has been using ever since. Last year the Dudniks, coming from Meffat, purchased the grocery store at Ospringe from Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Robertson, and moved into the apartment. Having some over ripe bananas from the store, she got out her favorite recipe and found it had been sent in by Mrs. D. G. Robertson of Ospringe.
 Mrs. Fred Hahn of Kapuskasing visited with her sister, Mrs. George Grundy. Miss Nancy Grundy of Guelph was also home for the week-end.
 Erin fair
 Congratulations to Lydia Dudnik, who was chosen Miss Erin Fair, on the Saturday afternoon.

Nurse claims third win in competition

Fourteenth was Don Sherwood, R. R. 6, Milton, 82 points - Northrup.
 The competition was judged by Elgin Laughlin of Orangeville, Sept. 13. Corn was exceptionally good.

The event is sponsored by the Halton Agricultural Society and the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food.

Other winners were ninth, Robert Marshall, R. R. 1, Milton, 88 points, DeKalb. Tenth was Bob Merry, R. R. 5 Milton, 87 points with DeKalb. Eleventh was Cecil McCann, R. R. 4 Milton, 86 points with Pioneer. Twelfth was Harold Middlebrook, R. R. 2, Milton, 85 points with DeKalb. Thirteenth was J. C. Richardson, R. R. 2 Milton, 83 points with DeKalb.

Shrinking zippers
 Here's a sewing tip. Sometimes a zipper tape in a cotton garment will shrink and look puckered after the garment has been washed. Avoid this by soaking zippers and drying them flat before stitching into a cotton garment.
