Dublin W.I. curator seeks more articles

Mrs. Clark Armstrong, Lake Avenue, was hostess for the regular monthly meeting of Dublin Women's Institute on Thursday evening. A fine turnout of members attended. Opening exercises were presided over by Mrs. H. Blyth, president.

"A simple resolution that will improve home and country" was well responded to by the ladies who gave many suggestions to make this a better country to live in.

Mention was made of the wedding that had been catered to which was quite a successful event.

District day

Several ladies will attend District Day at Lowville next Tuesday to hear Mrs. Austin Zoeller, of New Hamburg; a former president of F.W.I.O speak.

A review of the three fall fairs in the district was made, as to the Women's Institutes exhibits.

Mrs. M. Nellis spoke on Resolutions.

A humorous reading Ten Commandments for Women's Institute Members were given by Mrs. D. Hunter.

Tweedsmuir book

Mrs. W.J. McIntyre, as curator gave a most interesting talk on the Tweedsmuir Book and requested news items and pictures about their property, their families etc. The going-ons in the neighborhood have been recorded in this book for many years. Mrs. McIntyre displayed the Tweedsmuir Book, and as it was started and had kept records for many years, it was decided to start a new book, which Mrs. E. Norton showed the group and it is an entirely new style.

Mrs. W. Frank, also a member of the Curator Committee, read an interesting article on Do's and Don't's for the Tweedsmuir History Book, and advised every branch to have one. It is a record of the happenings of the district to be kept for all time.

A report of the District Directors' meeting at Milton on October 7 was given by Mrs. H. Blyth.

Family night

A Family Night was discussed and a committee was named to make arrangements.

Mrs. E. Norton reported on having obtained safe storage for the minute books of the branch since its inception.

A sewing class with instruction on Sewing with Knits will be under way soon.

The hostess, Mrs. Armstrong, assisted by Mrs. J.A. Van Fleet and Mrs. J.C. Dennis, served lunch and a social time was enjoyed over the teacups.

Mrs. C. McIntyre, as courtesy convener, thanked the hostess and everyone who took part in the program for a very interesting meeting.

LINDA ELIZABETH TOWNSEND

B.A. degree

Linda Elizabeth Townsend (nee Weaver), granddaughter of Mrs. E. Phillips of Church St., has completed the requirements for a Bachelor of Arts degree at Queen's University, Kingston, majoring in English Literature and Art History.

Mrs. Townsend is the daughter of Dorothy and Arnold Weaver of Hamilton and is a teacher there.

1,100 attend craft show

Over 1,100 attended the annual exhibit of the Georgetown Arts and Crafts group at the Burgundy Club in Norval this year. It was the 30th anniversary of the group.

Action members again participating were Mrs. Wes Beatty with stuffed toys and animals, and Mrs. H. Bessem with polished stones and jewellery.

Candlelight wedding in Trinity October 6

A candlelight ceremony in Trinity United church joined in marriage Donna Jane Pendleton and Paul Ian Meyer. Dr. Wm. Onion officiated at the wedding at 7:30 p.m. Friday evening, October 6, and arrangements of white mums, daisy mum, glads and cornflowers decorated the church.

The bride, a teacher at Burlington Central high school, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Pendleton of 120 Tiddy Ave., Acton. The groom, who is with Otis Elevator Co., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Meyer, 23 Wood Glen Rd., Scarborough.

White and blue

The bride wore white organza over satin with lace applique and short veil trimmed with daisies. Her bouquet was of daisy mums and blue cornflowers trimmed with white velvet.

Her attendants were her sister Marylou Pendleton as maid of honor, friend Jill Hurst and cousin Joanne Thomas as bridesmaids; and little Kris Dawkins as flower girl. They wore long milk-maid gowns in royal blue trimmed with white Austrian lace and carried baskets of white daisy mums and blue cornflowers.

Mr. Pendleton escorted his daughter down the aisle, Brian Pendleton, cousin of the bride, was groomsmen, and the ushers were Drew Daniels, a friend, and brother Bill Pendleton.

Dr. George Elliott played the organ for the ceremony.

Reception

The reception followed in the Curling Club with guests welcomed from Toronto, Burlington, Oakville and Acton. Among them were Mrs. Karl Meyer, grandmother of the groom, and Mrs. Thomas Appleton, great-aunt of the bride.

The bride's mother received wearing emerald green trimmed with silver, white gardenia and yellow roses. The groom's mother wore printed chiffon in turquoise, navy, pink and green with a gardenia and pink roses.

Leaving, the bride wore a black jacket and red palazzo pants black accessories and red roses. The couple are living in Mississauga.

Several showers and special events were held before the wedding.

DONNA PENDLETON and Paul Meyer were married in a candlelight ceremony in Trinity United church October 6, and are living in Mississauga.

Dublin Hot Potatoes dress up vegetables

The second 4-H meeting of Dublin Senior girls was held on October 16 at Mrs. Douglas's. They voted on the name of the club, Dublin Senior Hot Potatoes. Books are going to be orange with brown potato on it made of Bristol board.

They talked about cooking vegetables and the many different ways to do so.

The menu consisted of Penny Kirtan's cauliflower covered in Doris Black's and Karen Pierce's special medium white sauce. They also had Cathy Hinton's and Bonnie Armstrong's pan fried cabbage. A special treat by the younger members was Laurie Pierce's and Marie Parkers baked carrots.

Cathy Barber and Heather McKerchery did a fine job of cleaning up the mess. Dishes were left as the cleanup girls noticed the dishwasher.

Elect officers

The first 4-H meeting of the Dublin Senior girls was held on October 2 at Mrs. W. Lasby's.

The project is Dressing up Vegetables.

Leaders of the club are Mrs. W. Lasby and Mrs. N. Douglas. Election of officers was: president Doris Black, vice-president Laurie Pierce; treasurer, Cathy Hinton; press reporter Karen Pierce. Pamphlets and project booklets were handed out.

Fresh salad on 4-H menu

On October 16 Acton Homemakers 4-H club the Carrot Curls held their third meeting. The girls took notes on various vegetables. Shirley and Lorna Sayers served a light lunch that was well liked.

Fourth meeting was on October 23. After the usual business they discussed the making of fresh salads, using vegetables of course. Jane Munro made a salad, and there was a potato-tuna casserole as the main dish.

Jack Wensley, who has been working in British Columbia, is back again now.

The town's reeve, Dr. Frank Oakes, is convalescing at home now and all hope to see him out and much improved in health soon.

Many friends will be pleased to hear that Mrs. Alex Near is showing improvement in Guelph General Hospital following surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Irwin celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary with relatives and friends at a surprise party given for them at their home on Sunday.

Mrs. Harry Mainprize met some of her pupils Sunday—pupils she hadn't seen since she was an 18-year-old teacher at a country school outside Dundalk! The informal surprise reunion was arranged by the former editor of the Dundalk paper, Frank Macintyre, and his wife at their home. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mainprize and Bill had a delightful afternoon.

A wine and cheese party began the season for women curlers last Thursday evening, with the crowd attending at about the hundred mark.

A variety program was enjoyed at the club with Gill Malcolm introducing musical numbers, Agnes McIntyre and Isabel Moore playing guitars and singing, and Joyce Carpenter's young dancers performing.

Mrs. Knoerck of Brampton spent Thanksgiving weekend with her sister Mrs. E. Lidkea here, and they had Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. Lidkea at St. Joseph's Chronic Wing. Mrs. Willard Lidkea and Victor of London, Ont., and Mrs. Howard Lidkea, Kitchener, spent the next weekend with Mrs. Lidkea. And another visitor was Mrs. W. Lidkea of Saul Ste. Marie who spent most of the week here and enjoyed this part of the country. Mr. and Mrs. Randy Lidkea and baby Drew of Owen Sound and Mrs. Gail Lidkea and little Tasha also visited with Mrs. Lidkea and their aunts.

R. H. Elliott's retirement from business in Acton was marked by a house full of friends Friday evening. Welcoming the guests with Mr. and Mrs. Elliott were son George, daughters Shirley (Mrs. Jim Dills of Milton) and Jane of Toronto. Relatives, fellow merchants, neighbors, church and Lodge associates were among those spending the evening together.

Most of the evening was spent chatting but there was some musical entertainment that was really unusual. George Elliott was persuaded to take groups upstairs to see where he had taken over one of the bedrooms to install a rebuilt church organ. He still hasn't got the foot pedals installed but played for the visitors and explained what he had done. (George is church organist and bandmaster.)

Mr. Elliott started in business here with his brother Harold as Elliott's general store on October 1, 1932 at the corner of Mill and Willow. Their store was sold for the Bank of Montreal. Subsequently Mr. Elliott took over the operating of a stationery store in the old Free Press building, when the printing business moved from that location. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott have lived for many years on Bower Ave.

Dr. J. Chamberlain and 33 staffers of the Halton County Health Unit attended the Ontario Public Health Association annual meeting last week. Members attended the three day affair on a staggered basis, allowing each to attend at least one session.

Chamber of Commerce member Jack Rol kept up his contact with the Chamber while he was away in Florida — and very unusual contact it was, too! Mr. and Mrs. Rol, with her father Jim Hennessy and uncle Mike Richards, were enjoying the 85-90 degree heat at Indian Rocks on the Gulf when they realized a contractor next door had begun dumping earth into the water off the beach. Mr. Rol phoned the local Chamber of Commerce since, as he explained, he didn't come 1,500 miles to swim to find the water polluted! The Chamber contacted the police who came speedily and put a stop to the dumping. The multi-million dollar project was held up for a while while other dumping arrangements were made—and the Acton people continued to enjoy the beach! The Rols and their relatives had a very pleasant three week holiday.

The wait is over!

People talk to Betty Kennedy ... all kinds of people!

Weekday afternoons are special times for radio listeners around Toronto. Monday-through-Friday from 3:05 to 4 p.m., CFRB's Betty Kennedy interviews interesting people whose ideas and achievements are stimulating and newsworthy.

Betty Kennedy doesn't attempt to lead either you or guests to her way of thinking. Nor does she necessarily expect you to agree with her guests' views and activities. "After all," she says, "listeners are intelligent enough to make up their own minds."

You'll find in Betty Kennedy interviews a depth and perception rarely equaled in Canadian broadcasting today.

The "Bill Deegan Show" follows Betty Kennedy at 4:05 p.m.
