Hallowe'en party fun

By Mrs. Fred MacArthur
Churchill Community Church worship service on Sunday was well attended. A full choir was in attendance. Our pastor Rev. W. A. Fosbury held a baptismal service when Mr. and Mrs. Tom Medland's two children Michael Allan and Robert Dale were baptized.

We are pleased to report Mrs. W. A. Fosbury is back home after being a patient in Guelph General Hospital for three weeks. We do hope and trust she will improve and gain back her strength. She is missed at our church and its activities so much.

Will be missed
Churchill friends wish to extend their sympathy to the family and friends especially an only sister Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warne and family of the late Beatrice Hilts who was buried in Georgetown Cemetery. She will be greatly missed in Ballinacraig Church and district where she lived all of her life prior to moving to Georgetown. Funeral Service was at Rumley-Shoemaker Funeral Home in Acton last Wednesday. Burial in Georgetown cemetery.

Anniversary
Churchill friends would like to extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Thompson of Hillsburgh who have reached their 50 years of wedded life. An anniversary dinner was held in their honor on Saturday evening when all the family and grandchildren were present at the daughter's Shirley and (Bud) Emerson Anderson's home. Everyone enjoyed the lovely repast also the happy evening spent together. Picture and write up elsewhere.

On the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary, Mr. Thompson's two sisters Mrs. Alma Davies and Mrs. Grete McEwan of London and a nephew Mr. and Mrs. Bert Davis of Port Stanley were guests on Sunday at their home in Hillsburgh. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will be at home for any of their friends to come and visit with them this week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kockx attended the funeral last Wednesday of little Michael Sheridan.

Toronto who was instantly killed by a car.

Open house
Friends of Churchill Church and neighboring locality would like to extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Archie Kerr who held open house on Sunday afternoon, October 29 when many of their friends from far and near called at their home to have a hearty handshake with Lydia and Archie.

The family are one of the oldest members of Churchill Church. Archie is a member of the trustees and one of the session and their daughter (Marie) Mrs. Don Anderson is organist. Archie has also played the violin at the church since a young man.

Birthday
Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hamilton, Betty and Andy joined with Mark on Saturday at his parents home Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hamilton in Georgetown and all celebrated Mark's 9th birthday with his sisters Amy Lynn and Cara Jane.

Hallowe'en Party
The annual Hallowe'en party at the Churchill church basement was very well attended on Friday evening by young and old. The decorating by the senior girls showed great imagination with jack o' lanterns and knotted pine roots casting wierd reflections on the crowd of frolicking youngsters.

The same girls also organized the contests and games. Prizes were given to the winners. Little tots enjoyed a peanut scramble. The costumes were judged amidst much laughter and fun. Bobbing for apples produced a few wet heads for successful dunkers. The ladies served a delicious lunch to everyone.

Especially thanking the two outside ladies Mrs. Fred Kentner and Mrs. Bob Anderson, Acton, also Mr. John Bonnell and Mr. George Mill from our own church for being the judges.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Cross and Craig, also Dr. C. E. and Mrs. Bayless and Melinda visited at the parental home last Sunday with Rev. and Mrs. Fosbury. Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Dark of Warren, Manitoba visited for a few days last week.

MR. AND MRS. ALFRED Thompson of Hillsburgh celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Saturday at a party given by their daughter Mrs. Emmerson Anderson at her home, R. R. 3 Acton. They are shown here holding their congratulatory messages from the Prime Minister and the Government of Ontario.

Golden anniversary of well-known couple

After 50 years of married life, Mr. and Mrs. James Alfred Thompson, known as Alf and Georgena, were treated to a gala night on Saturday, October 28, by their sons, daughters and grandchildren at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Anderson, R.R. 3, Acton.

The members of the family, all in attendance, were Ralph and Freda Thompson; Bill and Donna Thompson and children John, Lynne and Laurie; Leroy and Bernice MacArthur and children Ron, Barry, Tim and Sharon; Dick and Ruth Shortill and family Dan, Karen and Mark; Bud and Shirley Anderson and sons Jim and Earl; Jack and Dolly Brown

They especially thanked their family for a gift of money toward a color T.V. which they will enjoy very much, and friends for their lovely cards, gifts and flowers. They are home to their friends and neighbors any time during this week.

Bus trip, two sales news

By Doris Fines

Mrs. D. M. Dudnik and Natalie Dudnik visited a few days in New York with Mrs. Dudnik's sister, Miss L. Miroshnikow.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gorman and daughter Mary, of Toronto, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Dudnik and family.

Bus trip
Mrs. Ed Archibald, Mrs. Ken Subbington, Mrs. John Subbington, Mrs. William Milton, Mrs. Stan Fuller, Mrs. Rae, Miss Doris Fines, Mrs. Enoch Wood, and Mrs. James Ludike, all enjoyed a bus trip to Toronto. The bus was driven by Gordon Aitken, courtesy of Denny Bus Lines, and sponsored by Coningsby W. I. The tour included the Royal Museum and the Planetarium where all enjoyed the showing of Vagabonds in Space.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Archibald attended the 60th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Kitching at Moffat, and later visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Frank.

Sad blow
The community was shocked and saddened by the sudden illness and death of Gordon

Winter. It is always a sad blow when one so young is taken. Sympathy is extended to his parents Mr. and Mrs. Dan Winters, and to his brothers Dan and Ken.

Sympathy of the community is also extended to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hurren in the sudden passing of Mrs. Hurren's father, Mr. John Kirkwood of the tenth line, Erin.

Meet teachers
A meet the teachers night was held at the school Tuesday evening. There was a good response, and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by the parents and teachers, getting better acquainted. The teachers provided coffee and fancy squares.

4-H meeting
The discussion was all about proteins and cheese at the 4-H meeting of the Daisy Duck's Dairy Dutchess, Group 1. Laurel Vietstra read the minutes. The meeting was at the home of Wilmalena Vander Meulen with 15 members present. Doreen Johnston and Judy Jackson demonstrated making a white sauce which the girls learned adds protein to a meal. They had cheddar cheese, and also cream cheese in the main dish. Wilmalena made the drinks for lunch, and the meeting ended with the 4-H pledge.

Visiting with Mrs. Enoch Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ferguson and family one day this week, were Mrs. Wood's daughter Mrs. Arthur Tranah, her granddaughter Mrs. Ben Brand, and her two great grandsons Brian and Brandy, of Toronto.

Two sales
Despite the miserable weather on Saturday, two sales attracted a goodly number of buyers. The same auctioneer, Max Storey, handled both quite capably. Gordon Snyder's was in the forenoon. They have sold their farm and are moving to Guelph.

Robert Ellis' sale was in the afternoon. The Ladies' Aid women were busy with a food booth, and were sold out before the day was over. Ellis' have begun building their house on the town line above 25 highway. There was no service in the local church on Sunday. The congregation attended anniversary services at Burns Presbyterian Church in Erin.

Eden Mills

New craft shop village asset

By Mrs. R. Wright
Eden Mills is having a craft shop in the former store known as Anna's Grocery. The present owners Colette and Dan Macdonald have spent some time and hard work on refinishing the interior. The appearance of the store front also deserves a lot of comment.

The store is known as Eden Place. It will be an asset to the village and is open to the public seven days a week from ten a.m. for business and to view the many beautiful handcrafts from all over Ontario. These include jewellery, pottery, weaving, leather purses, belts etc., wood carving, candles — all shapes and sizes — and hasty notes. The community extend a welcome to the owners and wish them success in their business.

Fall rally
The fall rally at the Guelph Presbyterian synodical was held at Hespeler last week. Those attending from Eden Mills were

Mrs. Wallace Lasby, Mrs. Garnet MacDougall, Mrs. Sada Gilbertson, Mrs. Wilma Gilbertson. Members of the Toronto and Kingston synodical were guests at the meeting and led in the discussions. The Thankoffering meeting of Eden Mills Presbyterian church was hosted by Mrs. Garnet MacDougall. Mrs. W. Lasby took the devotions and Mrs. MacDougall led in prayer. Roll Call was answered with a verse on thanksgiving. A donation was made to the Sunday school also to the Board of Managers. Next meeting in November will be in the form of a pot luck luncheon when the election of officers will take place and Mrs. Donald Blacklock as hostess.

Road resurfaced

By Mrs. A. Benton
Congratulations to Carol Turner and Michael Joe who were married on Oct. 25. They are making their home at Cookville. A large number of relatives and friends attended the reception at the home of the bride's parents in the evening. Mrs. A. C. Patterson spent a few days recently with her sister,

Mrs. S. Smith at Weston. Road resurfaced
Parts of the fifth line were recently resurfaced. We hope it will not be used as a speedway. Mrs. Terry Heblen and two children of Victoria B.C. have returned home after three weeks visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dirk Poot and family and members of Terry's family in Ontario.
