Full house of Sunshine

Numerous cars outside the town hall indicated, last Thursday, October 26th a full house for the Rockwood and district luncheon club. With Rev. Ralph Williams, president presiding, the meeting opened with the Ode and then an open sing song. Mrs. Wm. Black was the piano accompanist in the absence of Mrs. Early who is presently on a bus trip to California. Everyone applauded when Mr. Black sang a solo and Mrs. Max Milne gave a reading entitled "What Canada means to me".

After the games a delicious lunch was served by Miss Florence Till and Mrs. H. Leachman. Committee members extend their invitation for all potential members to attend next month's meeting on November 9 at 2 p.m. when Mr. Cliff McDougall will be in the chair for the business meeting and Mr. and Mrs. Trousdale will act as conveners for the sports activities. Mrs. D. Dean and Mrs. L. Linfoot of Harris Street are slated as lunch conveners.

Games on program
Euchre and crokinole was the entertainment for the afternoon

Comin's and Goin's

It's belated wishes from Rockwood friends but the party was on time on October 9 when 15 members of the family of Mrs. Alice Hills of Harris Street met at the Parkway Motel in Guelph to bowl her over with a surprise birthday celebration. Seventy years young and flowers, presents, and deep affection were part of the fare as daughter May Brain and her family from Guelph, daughter Margaret Lambert and her family from Acton, and Louis Hills and his family from Rockwood all joined in on the celebration. An exciting cake and home to Harris Street for more get-together and the event was one to remember. Happy Birthday, Alice Hills, is the wish from everyone.

What do you know. Just heard that Yosef Denters has returned home but so far hasn't been in touch with all his friends. Welcome home, Yosef, we're glad you're back but anxious to learn of your new findings in England and how they relate to the academy.

There was no blarney but real attachment when Rockwood friends met up with "Grand Aunt Mary" Mrs. Walter Cannell of Oton, Scotland, when she came to visit her nephew and his family, Mr. and Mrs. John Clark of Rockwood. Not the Victorian matriarch her title suggests, but a petite, demure, lady who, in only a few weeks acquired the warm admiration of many new village friends, Grand Aunt Mary Cannell left for Scotland on Monday but hopefully her trip will be a repeat for another Canadian excursion sometime in the near future.

Come on now, folks. Place your change beside the front door, wet up your appetites, and get ready to purchase the shiniest, fattest apple in the basket when the boy scouts come banging at your door this Saturday afternoon. Mmmm good! The boys are spending the morning shining and in the afternoon it'll be good eating for everyone!

Did you forget to take your used uniforms to the home of Audrey Bilton at 856-4296? If you have a Cub, Scout, Brownie, or Girl Guide uniform or part of one, or need an exchange for a new size, or perchance a second hand one, just remember the number and Audrey will assist in keeping all the little people in the crackiest best uniformed condition in the district. Can't match your socks? Holes in your sweater? Call Audrey and have your son or daughter ready for the November 12 Remembrance Day parade.

Hi, ole friendly voters. Remember it isn't always the best man who should win but the man who can do the job best! It's the one who's shown honesty, dependability, responsibility, and vision, who makes a good councillor or trustee. One who can see the real needs of the community and will work to find out how best to improve or solve them. One who cannot be influenced but with enough integrity to change his opinion if a better presentation is made and one with required initiative to get things done. Remember the date of the municipal election, Monday, December 4, and if you have a name for public office, pick up your form from the township office, write in your candidate's name and return it to the township office with the signatures of at least ten qualified electors. Returning time is from the 9th of November until 5 o'clock of the 13th during regular office hours. The name, occupation, address and office nominated for each candidate for both township and village councillors will be posted in the Eramosa Municipal Building as nominations are received and certified. This is your community and it should be your local government making your decisions; decide now how you want to speak for you but vote!

Mr. and Mrs. Max Milne spent a few days with their daughter Wilma and Lloyd Hunter in Brantford recently and enjoyed a birthday party for their two great grandchildren Kevin and Michael Wood who were born October 22, three years apart. Happy birthday from Rockwood friends, little chum, and we hope you have many years of happiness.

Hey now, it's congratulations to another venerable gentleman who will celebrate his century birthday party on date of November 8, at the Country Club in St. Paul, Minnesota, the present hometown of Dr. Walter Ramsey who was, at one time one of the great children's specialists in the United States, and a former district resident born in the present Croft farm at the corner of Campbellville Road and Eden Mills line. Nieces, Mrs. Mary Milne and Mrs. Ethel Craig of Rockwood will be attending the party along with his son Reeve from Rawley, N.C. and, accompanying them will be the best wishes of members of the Rockwood Presbyterian Church and the old No. 5 Nassagaweya schoolmates who "knew him then".

Now here's the invitation which all ladies in the community have been waiting for. No one will want to miss the coffee hour of friendship and goodwill where an open invitation is extended to everyone to bring a friend and enjoy a special guest speaker, guitar playing hymns, and fun, at St. John's Parish Hall on Thursday, November 9 at 10 a.m. So oil up your vocal chords, sharpen your wit, bring your appetites, and come and be happy. It's free so see you there!

It's time again to remember those who gave their lives for us. Sunday November 12 is the date set for the annual 11 o'clock inter-denominational remembrance day service to be held at the Rockwood Centennial School auditorium when Rev. Tom Appleton of St. John's Anglican Church, Rockwood, will give the address and the Eramosa Choral Society provide the music. As yet the service at the Cenotaph has not been finalized but it is hoped that members of the legion, all churches, and Boy Scouts of Canada Association will parade from the school. Another date to remember!

Great, isn't it? Miles away and several out-of-town university

Grade 3 program has village tour

Trippety, trippety; hippity, hoppety, and 31 little grade 3 tykes were treated to a pre-Hallowe'en adventure last week when their teacher, Mrs. Sheila Robbins trundled them through Rockwood to visit the plants, stores, and bank, to familiarize her students with the "behind the scenes" of village industry.

How to make fishing line, what welding is all about; how to choose Canadian products for daily food consumption, and learning the values of grain feeds and their by-products; these were only some of the countless pearls of "first hand" learning which the children were exposed to and, from the top of the village's Northern Stag Industries right down to the Schneider's candy factory, the students were treated royally by the staffs of every store, and firm, through which they toured.

Souvenirs
Donuts at the bakery, teeny milk shakes, marshmallow candy cones, fishing line, potato wedges, dime savers and book marks, chips and chocolate bars, all were provided by willing donors; it was a five-day village touring session and, sometimes divided into groups accompanied by parents, other times moving in a complete class formation, the grade three social study program was brought into simplified focus as students learned how things were produced ready for customer purchase.

Rounding out the program was a stop-off at the new village post office where post mistress Marg Cox explained what comprises a full staff day at the post office from the early a.m. stage delivery until its evening return students plugged to Rockwood to use their vote in the recent elections. Who says today's youth isn't caring and it was great to see them back in town for any reason.

Arrange canvass

The Fall executive meeting of the Rockwood and Everton branch of the Canadian Bible Society was held in the Presbyterian church, Rockwood, on October 23, with president B. Hill in the chair.

Rev. R. Williams conducted the devotional period. Books were given out to collectors for the canvass of homes in the district. Volunteer canvassers will hopefully be welcomed at district homes. All donations will go to the Society which provides Bibles on a world-wide basis in many languages.

IT'S CLOSING time now and Frank Schneider is about to hang up his rake for the winter but before releasing his spring and summertime responsibilities at the village cenotaph Frank is seen doing a final fall rake-up.
