

Wi' Rock and Broom

(mostly corn)

By Bob MacARTHUR
This week the thumbnail sketches are of two important members of the executive. They are the persons in charge of the club draws. And this season of the year is the most difficult for them. They have to draw up schedules for the playing of the draws and are not sure at this time just how many will be taking part in the play. So they have to juggle names and night of play. It is a thankless job.

Mrs. A.E. (Kae) Hansen
Mrs. Hansen or Kae as she is more familiarly known around the rink was born and educated in Toronto. She lives on Young Street with her husband A.E. (Ted) Hansen. They have three sons and one grandson. Kae looks after the ladies' section of the draws and also assists on the mixed draws. She started to curl in 1962. She frequently goes to bonspiels with a group of the lady curlers.

Bruce Cargill
Bruce is also in charge of draws. He and Mrs. Hansen work on the mixed draws together and Bruce chairs the men's section draws. It is the same job that he held last season. Bruce and his wife Judy live on Acton Boulevard with their two sons. Bruce was born in Nassagaweya and received his schooling there and at Acton. He is a salesman for Armstrong Resilient Carpet and does a considerable amount of travelling in his work. Bruce started to curl in 1965.
The ladies' section feel that some mention should be made of the flowers that decorated the club room for their wine and cheese party. These flowers were donated by Elsie Syme and were much appreciated.

Bants tie Georgetown

Acton Firefighter bantams battled the Georgetown 4-town team to a 3-3 tie in their final exhibition game of the season here Saturday afternoon.
Firefighters opened their regular season against Fergus here last night (Tuesday) and will play a return game in Fergus Saturday.

Arrangements have been made for the showing of the Labbett Silver Broom film. It was made last year in Germany in the World Championships. It will be shown on Friday night at the club. A few ends of curling will take place, then the showing of the film. The evening will end up with a social hour?

Open house

All this week will be open house for those who would like to try out the old game of curling. It is expected that all curlers and prospective curlers will keep the club a busy place this week. Next Monday the regular schedule will get under way. A full season of curling and entertainment has been planned. Each member should get a winter's fun and entertainment out of the club. See you there.
Skip Bruce Munro of the St. George club and his rink won the carspiel in Toronto last Sunday. They beat a team skipped by Alf Phillips.

Ken's rally falls short
Lakeview hangs on to win

Lakeview Centre built up a 4-0 lead, then had to hang on to preserve a 10-8 victory over Ken's Auto Service in Acton Industrial Hockey League action Sunday night.

The automen rallied for eight goals in the final frame, but fell just short of earning a tie.

Dan Kavanaugh bagged four of the eight Auto Service goals. Bill Coon scored twice and Gary Kelley and Bob Andrews counted once each.

Hattrick

Gary Ritchie paced the Lakeview attack with a hat trick. Steve Coy and Ray Stull potted two goals apiece and singles went to Dave Garrett, Mike Miller and John Cunningham.

A super goaltending effort by Jim Pelti helped Hester's staff off a comeback attempt by the Unknowns and protect a 7-5 win.

Bill Cook and Don Schmidt tallied two goals apiece for Hester's. Wayne DeForest, Dave Hyder and Woody Fabian added singles.

Dave Apronin fired a hat trick and Jeff Coy and Cecil Burkless scored for the Unknowns.

Hot goalie

Craig Wedden's excellent play in goal was a big factor in Nielsen's Clothing 6-4 victory over Blaw Press.

Fred Buchmann with two goals and Steve Garrett, Ernie Waller, Don Mallon and Ken Owen with one apiece handled the clothiers' scoring.

Ken Kavanaugh scored twice and Larry McAlen and Jim McHattie each scored for the Unknowns.
