MURRAY, Florence May — At Eden House Nursing Home, on Sunday, December 3, 1972, Florence May Murray, formerly of Guelph and Acton, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Murray.

Funeral service was held at the Rumley - Shoemaker Funeral Home, Acton, on Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. Interment Fairview Cemetery.

CARDS OF THANKS

We wish to thank all our friends and relatives for cards, floral tributes and other acts of kindness shown to us during the illness and the loss of a dear mother and grandmother, Mrs. Margaret McKeown. Special thanks to Mrs. Edna Spence for the excellent care and comfort she gave to our dear mother during her long illness. Also a sincere thank you to Dr. Panobaker, Rumley - Shoemaker Funeral Home and Rev. McKeown for his counseling work.

Lloyd and Dorothy McKeown and family.

The family of the late Mrs. Jennie Coles wish to express very sincere appreciation for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy received during their recent bereavement in the loss of their dearly beloved wife and mother. A special thanks to the ladies of the Rumley-Shoemaker Funeral Home, the nurses and staff of the Eden House Nursing Home including Mrs. Marilyn Ottaway for her beautiful solo, Dr. Vander Bent and the officiating minister, Rev. J. S. Roe.

Murray Coles and Family.

O.P.P. report

The month of Christmas started for Acton O.P.P. with three charges — liquor seizure, drunk and a minor consuming. Date was Friday, December 1.

A Georgetown snowmobile driver was stopped on Bower Ave. and charged with having no license plate for the current year and no license. The police point out the minimum fine for not having an up-to-date license plate is $23 and the minimum for not having a license is $50.

The "usual rash of snowmobile complaints" are coming in to police since the advent of snow, they report. The complaints come from different areas of town.

The theft of $15. in the coin boxes at the Mill St. laundromat was reported to police.

The BP snack bar reported theft of a wrist watch from a display counter.

An Acton youth was charged with two counts of petty trespass at the high school on two succeeding days. He had been warned to keep away from the from the school.

A missing district girl was located here and the youth with her charged with contributing to juvenile delinquency.

An Acton woman was charged with driving while her license was under suspension. Cayuga OPP arrested someone for Acton police and Acton arrested someone for Georgetown.

Three pieces were found insecure, with those responsible for the building notified to come and lock up.

Santa coming to Erin soon

Santa Claus is coming to the Village of Erin with the assistance of the Erin and district Chamber of Commerce, and other public spirited citizens on Saturday, December 16.

Floats, clowns, bands and pretty girls are expected to add to Santa's arrival in a parade that begins at 2 p.m.
