IN MEMORIAM

GOUGH — In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Kay Gough, who passed away December 24, 1970. We had a Mom with a heart of gold, who was more to us than wealth untold, without farewell, she fell asleep. With only memories for us to keep. Sadly missed by Marj, Vince, Maxine, Jon, Charlene, Fred and grandchildren. a25-4309

GOUGH — In loving memory of a dear wife Kay, who passed away December 24, 1970. Gone is the face we loved so dear, silent is the voice we loved to hear. Too far away for sight or speech, but not too far for thought to reach. Sweet to remember her who once was here. And who, though absent is just as dear. Sadly missed by husband Charlie. 24a-4326

Churchill

Minister adapts legend as pageant

by Mrs. Fred MacArthur

Last Sunday morning worship at Churchill Church was very well attended. Rev. Fosbury spoke on the coming of Christmas. White gifts were left at the front of the church as the children gathered for prayer before going to their classes.

Pageant this year
The annual candlelight service took the form of a pageant this year, as members from the congregation assisted the choir in presenting the Old the Chimes Ring. The old legend of Christmas was adapted for production as a pageant by our minister Rev. A. W. Fosbury and Mrs. Fosbury directed it.

Against a backdrop of candle light to evergreens the youthful voices rang out the old familiar carols as well as several new ones.

Mrs. Emerson Anderson sang O Holy Night to set the scene of the pageant. Mrs. W. Swackhamer took the part of the society lady. Jeff Cooper was the soldier and J. C. Denny was the banker. Mrs. Jay Riley appeared regally lovely as queen with attendants Jackie Denny, Karen Craven and Lillie Waldie. John Bonnell made a stately entrance as the King followed by a page, Duncan Waldie.

Star of the production was six-year-old David Milne who as little brother gave the gift of love and made the chimes ring. Bellringer was Elizabeth Strokov.

The orchestra, their numbers swelled by guests Philip Levy, John Duenk and Keith Barber, assisted Mrs. Donald Anderson on the organ. Clarence Denny provided special lighting effects.

Go carolling
Members of the choir and some friends will gather at the church at 7 o'clock on Thursday for an evening of carolling. C. S. Denny has offered his small bus for transportation. They plan to visit the nursing homes in the area and also the shut-ins of the congregation.

S.S. concert
The Sunday School concert is to be held Wednesday evening, December 20, 7:30 o'clock in the Churchill Church. The children and their teachers are working hard for the entertainment and are expecting a visit from Santa

Will fight increase

In spite of advice to the contrary from Warden Jim Swanborough Halton County Council's Administration Committee agreed to support the Association of Municipalities of Ontario in opposition to rate increases by Bell Canada.

Swanborough who is a lawyer by trade commented that the only ones who would benefit by continued attacks against Bell increases were lawyers.

He found support from Georgetown Reeve Ric Morrow but other members of council felt the Association had been fundamental in slowing the rate of increase in rates by the telephone company.

KEEP CHRISTMAS
Christmas is essentially a religious holiday, so church activities should be an important part of holiday planning. The homemaker who entertains during the holidays can plan ahead and prepare foods which will require little last minute attention. Buffet serving is recommended for late groups as it can be informal and easy done.
