 Dec. 15: SNOW ROUND!
 Headpin Hillies
 Just a reminder to the parents of the Y.B.C. Bantams, December 20 "Boxing Day" is the date for the annual family twosome. Your young Y.B.C. bowler has the entry form. This is one time, when you can bowl with your young bowler, and enjoy competing against the other bantams and their parents. The Juniors and Seniors will have their turn later—Entry deadline for the Third National Classified Bowling Championships is January 31, 1973. This is the one tournament where the average bowler can bowl with the top notch bowler on an equal footing. Check with your league secretaries for your entry—at this time of the festive season may we wish you and yours the very best and joyful and merry Christmas—that winds it up once again my friendlies, so adios amigos and to the folks in Concord City have the merriest Christmas ever.

Miss Georgetown Fair Carolina guest

Seventeen-year-old Sue Reddick, Miss Georgetown Fair Fair, was a guest of the town of Georgetown, South Carolina, on December 2, when she rode in the Santa Claus parade with her American counterpart. Accompanied by her chaperone, Mrs. Gail Wallace, Sue left Thursday evening and stayed the weekend at the Holiday Inn. Friday the Canadian couple was taken to dinner at Myrtle Beach and introduced to representatives of Georgetown, S.C.

Saturday, she rode in the parade with Debbie Nooft, the American Miss Georgetown. They returned home Sunday after visits to restored rice plantations, a rice museum, tour of the town and a famous beauty spot, Brookgreen Gardens.

Georgetown, South Carolina, is situated a few miles south of the well known Myrtle Beach resort area, visited by many Canadians each year. LOG MUST LAST In England and France, the Yule log is favored; in some districts of England, whole families go to the forest to select their Yule log.

We wish you a Merry Christmas
