Churchill

Carollers, Yule visits

By Mrs. Fred MacArthur

Once again Christmas Day, a day of joy and peace, of giving and sharing, singing praises to God for the good things he has given us and our families, is over. We reach out and ask for His guidance in the year that is at hand, thanking Him for all the blessings we have received.

We wish Mr. and Mrs. Dills, and daughter Kathy, the Acton Free Press staff and readers a happy new year and may God's blessing be upon us all in our continued prayer.

Sunday morning worship at Churchill Church was fairly well attended. The orchestra was in attendance. The choir sang two anthems.

Choir carollers
The choir members went carolling on Thursday evening and again on Sunday afternoon. The homes and friends they visited enjoyed their carolling very much.

Potluck
The C.C.C.W. held their potluck dinner and Christmas meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson with a fair attendance. A bountiful meal was really enjoyed. Mrs. Swackhamer opened the meeting and called on Mrs. Fosbury who was in charge of the meeting. She opened it with all singing O Little Town of Bethlehem. Mrs. C. Storey read the devotions. Mrs. Fosbury read two Christmas poems Keeping Christmas and The Gift of God's Love. Hymn O Come All Ye Faithful was sung, closing with prayer by Mrs. Fosbury.

Mrs. Archie Kerr gave a reading An Old-Fashioned Christmas. Roll call was answered by each one's favorite Christmas carol. A few of them were sung. An exchange of gifts was again enjoyed by all. Some business was dealt with. The next meeting in the New Year will be held at the home of Mrs. Clifford Storey on January 17.

Visitors
Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Thompson of Elora Terrace spent Sunday at their daughter's home with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cox and family coming down to stay with their son Charlie over Christmas. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson, Elizabeth and John, also Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson had Christmas dinner with them. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Plouffe of Ballinacraig and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robson and family called in the afternoon. Charlie is taking them back to Elora on Tuesday afternoon.

Sunday service
The Churchill Orchestra took part in the candlelighting service at the Christian Reformed Church on Sunday evening in Acton. Miss Erica Strokow played the bells with the orchestra.

Family home
