

Scottish, Icelandic tradition maintained

By Mrs. Fred MacArthur

Churchill Community church morning worship was well attended. After Rev. W. A. Fosbury's message The Marks of a Christian, sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered. The new members received their first Communion served by their pastor, Miss Erica Strokov sang a solo My Creed, accompanied by her sister Miss Elizabeth Strokov. The orchestra was in attendance.

Churchill relatives and friends were shocked to hear Mr. Wallace Swackhamer is a patient in Guelph General Hospital. He was admitted on Wednesday evening. We are pleased to report he is coming along nicely now. Everyone hopes he has a speedy recovery and can soon be home.

Visitors with Rev. W. A. and Mrs. Fosbury on Sunday afternoon were Mrs. Stanley Hurd and Mr. and Mrs. John Masters, Janice and Jeanine, all of Toronto.

First meeting
The first meeting of the New

Year of the C.C.C. Women will be held at the home of Mrs. Clifford Storey on Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. All members are urged to attend this meeting to get the new year off to a good start. All ladies of the congregation are invited to come and enjoy the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stevak of Penticton B.C. and Mr. and Mrs. Alex McDonald visited last week with their aunt Mrs. W. J. McDonald.

New Year's Day visitors with Mr. and Mrs. William Dobbie were her sister Mr. and Mrs. Z. Luty of Acton. They also were happy to visit with their mother Mrs. Frank Graff who is staying with the Dobbies for a while.

Traditions

The new year was rung in, in a gay atmosphere both in Scottish and Icelandic traditions. Mr. and Mrs. George Milne and Mr. and Mrs. John Bonnell were hosts for a New Year's Eve party at the Milne home. Mr. Norman Turner fulfilled the Scottish tradition of the first footer — this being a dark, handsome person crossing the threshold of the home to bring good luck for the coming year. Mr. Bonnell cooked Icelandic meat balls for the buffet.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Eckertidge, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Craven, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Tony De Batista, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Denny, Mr. and Mrs. Andy McDonell, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McAdam, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wyga, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Hines who had a previous commitment but dropped in with friends at the beginning of the evening.

Resume studies

Miss Sandra Hines of London spent the weekend with her girl friend Miss June Swackhamer at her home here with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Swackhamer. They both returned to London to resume their studies at the Western University London for another term.

Visitors on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kerr, Jeffrey and Christine were Mr. and Mrs.

Kevin Shepherd of Toronto. Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hamilton on Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reid of Paigrove.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy MacArthur and family held New Year's dinner on Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Thompson of Hillsburg, also Mr. and Mrs. Ron MacArthur of Acton were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spear celebrated New Year's Eve with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Anderson at their home.

On Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Archie Kerr entertained the Strokov family, also Mr. Mike Cooper to dinner. A happy time was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. David Waldie of Georgetown and Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Medland, Danny and Dana enjoyed dinner on Christmas Eve with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Waldie, Duncan and Lillian.

Mr. and Mrs. Wain Brown and his mother Mrs. Wilbert Brown were down to Toronto East General Hospital to visit with Mr.

Brown, who is back in hospital for more care and treatment on Saturday. Dianne, Roy, Ronnie and Leslie went along for the ride on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Brown visited with his father in the hospital on Sunday.

Lionettes

Mrs. L. Lester of Guelph was the lucky winner of the Christmas stocking in the draw held by the Acton Lionettes. Proceeds from the draw, which was held December 23 will go into the organization's community fund.

Ebenezer . . .

would entail a five mile drive with buggy or cutter to attend church.

Now Thank We All Our God was sung, and Mrs. Darby gave a reading, Strength for the New Year. "I will go in the strength of the Lord my God." Mrs. Young read the scripture from Romans 112. Mrs. Weideman read an article, "So you'll never be a saint."

Mrs. Bill Price is recuperating at home following a bout with pneumonia; Mrs. Bill Early is improving after a tumble; Mrs. Woloshyn is home from hospital. Mrs. L. Goolin is a patient in Mississauga Hospital. Mr. Dave deBlauw is in the General, Guelph. We hope all these folks will soon be feeling better.

Paul Preston leads PCs

Paul Preston of Burlington was elected to reside over the Halton West Progressive Conservative Association Monday night at a meeting in Burlington.

Bruce Cargill of Acton and Noreen Hurren of North Burlington were elected as first and second vice presidents respectively.

Les Preston, Reeve of Burlington was elected treasurer and Ernie Lee of Burlington was named secretary. Paul Preston follows Claude Twiss in the role of president.

Halton West MPP and Justice Secretary George Kerr spoke briefly and reviewed some of the major legislation passed during the year.

Kerr said the Niagara Escarpment report to be tabled early in the new year would indicate a brand new philosophy and contain radical changes in connection with land use on the Escarpment.

Delegates to the upcoming convention named were Bruce Cargill, Stu Cramp, David Coons, Paul Preston, Audrey Hyckman and Joan Husband. Alternates are Gail Maltby, Jim Swanborough and Lois Okuloski.
