Meet Friday land use

By Henry J. Masley
A meeting to discuss the various issues of rural land use planning will be held this Friday, March 9 at the Master Friends Research Farm, R.R. 2, Georgetown at 1:30 p.m. This is a joint venture between the Halton Federation of Agriculture and the Halton Soil and Crop Improvement Association.
The meeting will take the form of a panel discussion with the following participants: Dr. Steve Todd, Department of Agricultural Economics and Agricultural Education, University of Guelph; Bob McNutt, President, Federation of Environmental Groups, Hamilton District; a member of a Planning Board from Halton County; and Tom Foster, R.R. 3, Campbellville, Chairman of the Land Resource Committee of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture.
Everyone, both rural and urban, is invited to this meeting. There will be ample time for questions and discussions of the many issues in the planning of our land in Halton County.
