So being unable to stand the sight of a strong man crying, we mention Jim's triple. Top trio for Hinters were Bill Shannon 746 (385), Ken Riggo 685 (285) and Bob Turkosz 642 (244). Headpin Hi-Lites
George (Lakeview Centre) Bruce out for the rest of the bowling season with torn shoulder tendons. Seems as if George and snowmobiling are not compatible. Don (Industrial-Commercial) Harris posted the seasons' high triple with a neat 941 effort—Bob (Major League) Woodcock missed out on a glorious chance to knock off Phil Southon's 401 high single. Bob's was very consistent in his first two games last Thursday eve, 215-215. Then he caught fire and was sitting pretty in the last frame of the third game with a double strike and a 7 pin count needed to rack up a 402. So what happens, his last ball just missed the headpin and he took out the 3-2 for an even 400 game. Tough luck, Bob! Maybe next week—well, the three Acton Ladies' teams did not fare so well in the Adams' Classified Tournament last Saturday at the Sportman Bowl in Guelph. Winning the Zone round was the Milton Ladies No. 3 team headed by June Gould with a three game pinfall of 317, the best showing of the Acton gals was the team of Pauline Hinkshat, Lis Kaiser, Mary Anderson, Laura Treble and Elsie Edmondson with a pinfall of 260, far down from the winners—that winds it up once again, my friendlies, so adios, amigos and goodnite, Concord City.

Attempted break-in
An attempted break in at the Royal Variety store was reported to Acton O.P.P. Sunday morning. The lock cylinder was found broken.

ALTHOUGH THEY FAILED to make the top 20 winners' bracket, Acton Lanes' Master-Bowler, Bill Anderson along with Junior bowlers, Sue Thomson and Jim Pink, were still able to smile for the photographer after it was all over. Hamilton's Sherwood and Bolero Lanes hosted the 336 teams of master and junior bowlers for the second consecutive year for the 9th annual Master-Junior Tournament. Teams travelled from as far away as Ottawa, Sudbury, Windsor, Chatham, Owen Sound, Belleville, North Bay, Welland, Kingston and Oshawa competed. This annual event is sponsored by Coca-Cola Ltd., the Master Bowlers Association and the Youth Bowling Council.

Woman charges

Investigating a complaint, Acton O.P.P. charged a local woman this week with obtaining services by false pretences.

Dynamite

After speaking to an assembly at Acton High School Monday morning, Tom Rivers arranged to have an hour of the CHUM programming that night dedicated to the students of the school. The students here were referred to as "dynamite" on the radio.
