Double ring ceremony unites Brenda Denny, K. Mainprize

Brenda Joyce Denny and Keith Elmer Mainprize were married Friday, March 2, in St. Alban's Anglican Church, by the Rev. H. Dawson in a double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with purple and white daisy mums, and the altar with 12 white candles for the evening ceremony.

During the signing of the register, Mrs. Betty Oakes played "Theme from Love Story".

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Denny, R.R. 1, Acton, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mainprize of 232 McDonald Blvd. The bride is a stenographer with The Bank of Nova Scotia, and the groom is employed by Beardmore.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white organza trimmed with lace daisies, with a floor length veil. She carried a cascade of pink sweetheart roses, and white stephanotis. She also wore her great-grandmother's gold pin.

Maid of honor was Sandra Denny, sister of the bride, who wore a deep purple crepe floor length dress trimmed with white lace, and carried a bouquet of pink elegance carnations.

Harold Denny escorted his daughter. Roy Mainprize was groomsman for his brother.

Floor length gowns

The bride's mother wore a bright pink floor length gown, with pink sweetheart roses, and the groom's mother wore a floor length gown in light blue with white sweetheart roses.

Friends and relatives from Kitchener, Rockwood, Acton, Milton, Guelph, and Waterloo gathered at Acton Meadows Golf Course after the ceremony for a hot buffet.

Between the ceremony and reception the bridal party visited the bride's grandfather, William Denny, in Guelph General Hospital.

The couple took a motor trip to Niagara Falls. The bride chose a pant suit of black velvet with a white ruffled blouse, and a corsage of orange sweetheart roses for the trip.

They will be residing at 48 Maria Street, Acton.

A shower for the bride was held at the home of Miss Mary Ann Freuler, with the staff of The Bank of Nova Scotia and friends in attendance.

New Apostolic church setting for wedding

Linda Jane Taraschuk of Winnipeg, Manitoba, and Stanley Eckstein of Acton were married March 4 at the New Apostolic church in Acton. Rev. F. Wiesel officiated for the ceremony in a setting of red and white carnations and candles.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Taraschuk of Teulon, Manitoba, and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. K. Eckstein, Elmora Dr., Acton.

Mike Dube played the organ for the wedding and a special group of the Young People's sang selections.

LINDA TARASCHUK and Stanley Eckstein were married in the New Apostolic Church. They are living at 24 Ransom St., Acton.

Bride in velvet

The bride wore a crushed velvet floral-designed gown with matching veil and carried red carnations. Her maid of honor was the groom's sister Miss Janice Eckstein, who wore red velvet and carried white carnations.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Carl Wiesel of Cambridge was groomsman and Danny Kuechler of Hamilton was usher.

Reception

The reception was held at Acton Meadows golf course. Guests attended from Teulon, Manitoba, Cambridge, Kitchener, Waterloo, Hamilton, Rockwood, Bramales, Milton and Acton. Special guests were the groom's grandparents Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Eckstein, Kitchener and H. Hertrich of Waterloo.

The couple took a honeymoon trip to the Niagara peninsula and are living at 24 Ransom St., Acton.

Notes from Acton High

This week not too much is happening; most of us seem to be still recovering from our week of holidays. Our "travellers" arrived at the school Monday morning. They were held up again in Montreal after their flight from Spain. They were to have arrived home Sunday night.

A number of people are visiting the school this week. Yesterday, visitors from Dresden High School were here. Tomorrow, Port Credit is sending some people, and Friday we are expecting some representatives from a separate school in Kitchener.

Other than that, not too much is going on, but keep in mind that Parents' Night is on Thursday, April 5. Letters are being sent home with students to enable timetables to be set.

Fashion show

The eighth 4-H meeting was held at the home of Sherry Ismond on Wednesday, March 22, at 8:30. Two of the girls were absent from the meeting.

Mrs. McCarron discussed with the girls the summer project which deals with flowers.

Several of the girls discussed what theme should be used for the fashion show. The commentator will be Sherry Ismond with Kim Van der Eyken helping her.

After the girls worked on their sportswear Sherry Ismond served the girls a snack.

Y.M.C.A. news and happenings

Due to medical reasons, our program co-ordinator Mrs. Gloria Browne has had to give up her position with the Y. The instructors, supervisors, and youngsters will miss her boundless energy and good will.

Unfortunately, we also lost the services of several of our supervisors at the same time, who are leaving town for greener fields. This puts us in a rather short-handed position so if there are any interested adults looking for something constructive to do, we need a new program co-ordinator and several supervisors for one or two evenings a week. Please contact Mr. Newman at the Y.M.C.A. most evenings for further information. Phone 853-1070.

In the interim we shall endeavor to stay open though we may have to temporarily curtail some activities until we obtain new help.

Swimming program

At present we are working on our swimming program. This will depend on the number of interested parents and youngsters so please contact Mrs. Susan Pratt at 853-2165, our board member who is looking after this program.

Our chess program is starting to move. Several interested parties have phoned though I am sure there are more chess players available. Phone M. Newman 856-4850 or evenings at the Y 853-1070 and let him have your name and phone number and make the chess date worthwhile.

It is time to start thinking of our new fall program. Are there any activities you would like to organize? Phone us!

Invite mothers to last meeting

The eighth and final meeting of the Greenock Groovy Grizzlies 4-H club was held at the home of leaders, Mrs. D. Milton and Donna. This was a party to which they were to bring mothers as guests. Unfortunately, two mothers only were able to come. The roll call was the supper dish they brought, to make a complete meal.

Before sitting down, they were shown how to prepare a buffet table.

Everyone enjoyed the casseroles that were served; some containing spices, which they had learned more about in the project.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pell of Stoney Creek visited friends here on the weekend and attended the birthday party for Gordon Gibbins, Peel St. He was a teacher at Lorne school when the family lived here years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cayer and Jim May of the high school staff spent their winter break in Greece.

It's a good thing I don't have to earn a living as a typist. My fingerwork isn't that good to begin with, but I'm having real problems this week trying to take care of a runny nose and type at the same time. The sneezes that punctuate each line don't help either.

It all started 10 days ago. I guess that fate was tired of hearing me mention that rarely got a cold, and she fixed me up just dandy.

Icy greeting

We were at a dance on the 18th, and somehow, half-way through the evening, my helpful husband managed to empty five glasses of melting icubes down my back. He wears he didn't do it, but he was the only one standing behind me with five glasses in each hand, the nearest five turned upside down.

Anyhow, that sort of put a damper (terrible pun) on my evening as I sat in soggy misery. And then, come time to go home, Fate decided to finish me off.

Just as I was about to climb into the car, a certain newspaper editor lat fly with a snowball and hit me right on the second
