Hall work proceeding

Project Over-hall at Eden Mills hall is taking great shape with about ten men working steadily to complete the work by the end of May. The Community Club women have been providing luncheons occasionally at the United church to help to raise funds and have been pleased with the response.

Another project they are sponsoring in the middle of April is a home baking, white elephant and penny table to be held in the United church Education Room and luncheons again in the near future.

Supper success A Come as You Are Supper last Wednesday at the Eden Mills Presbyterian Church was a huge success. The tables were filled before 5:30 and the committee was kept on their toes steady for the next two hours. Irish stew and turkey was the choice with homemade pies—any kind you could name—for dessert. A thank you to all who helped made it a success.

Trips reported Mrs. James Kirby left for Scotland on Thursday owing to illness in her family. Mrs. and Mrs. Mancel Lowrie, Mrs. Kay Stevenson and son Glenn have returned home after a holiday in the Barbados, guests of Dr. and Mrs. Henry and family. Mr. and Mrs. John Turner have returned home after a trip to Yugoslavia during the school holidays.

Tracy Clifford spent the school holidays with his grandmother Mrs. William McEdwards at Morrison.
