BANTAMS April 7: First Shift: Rabbits are usually fast, but the Snalls showed to be faster as they won both games. Instead of being "hogs", the Whales won one game, leaving the other game and totals for the Cata. As for the Octopus, they just reached out and picked up both games, leaving the Dogs pawless and pointless.

Second Shift: The Kangaroos must have used their tails to "hat" balls down the alleys, because they won the two games from the Penguins. The Teddy Bears lost the first game to the Sea Horsos, but came back to take the second and totals. The Crabs bowled a total of 1197 to win the first game, but in the second game they lost their touch, the game and totals to the Donkeys.
