

EASTER FASHIONS

A parade of smart savings for everyone

SUIT SALE!

20% off

Priced regular $115 to $175

IN SIZES

36 to 46 reg. - - - 40 to 46 tall

SPORT COATS

20% off

Priced regular $75<sup>00</sup> to $110<sup>00</sup>

In Sizes

36 to 46 reg. - - - 40 to 46 tall

LONG SLEEVE

DRESS SHIRTS

20% off

Reg. $9<sup>00</sup> TO $16<sup>00</sup>

Easter Savings especially for you...

SAVE $5<sup>00</sup>

ON ALL

DRESS PANTS

Regular $19<sup>95</sup> to $30<sup>00</sup>

COLORFUL TIES

SAVE $2<sup>00</sup>
On all Ties

Reg. $1<sup>00</sup> to $10<sup>00</sup>

STORE HOURS

Monday-Tuesday-Wednesday-Saturday 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Thursday and Friday 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.

STEVENSON'S MEN'S WEAR

GEORGETOWN MARKET CENTRE

No. 7 Highway, East

877-6661

The Acton Free Press

Ninety-Eighth Year. - No. 42

ACTON, ONTARIO, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 18, 1973

Second Section

Top curlers receive awards

With Stone and Broom

By Bob MacArthur

This past weekend saw the end of the curling season for the Acton club. Sunday evening the switch was pulled and ice permitted to melt away.

The final event of the season was the Hospitality Bonspiel, which started Friday evening and included dancing to records. On Saturday, two games were curled and a smorgasbord supper served. In the evening it was dancing again to the Glen Street Trio. Sunday morning started off with a champagne breakfast, then the final games were played.

The winning team in the first draw and high point score was the Bill Taylor rink of Milton. Playing on the team were Barbara Durman, Bill Wilson and Carol Walker. They were presented with the trophy. Second high team in the first draw was Jerry Sproat, Carol Anne Sproat, Jim Hall and Patti Mocton. One game winner was Ron and Lucille Cooksley, Stan and Flo Bowen.

In the second draw, top team was Ted Tyler Sr. team of Gwen, Tony and Lil Stapleton. Second team was Fred Archibald, Colleen Richmond, Allan and Olive Ellerby. One game winner was the team of Bill and Marg Toth, Harry and Helen Otterbein.

Sunday evening, the skaters took over and tried out the blades. There also was broomball games to add to the merriment, and to wind up the season.

The ladies' section ended up last Thursday evening with a supper and presentation of prizes. Here are the trophy winners and the runners-up:

First Draw - McKenzie Trophy - Skip May Dumarsh, Lil Stapleton, Ian Mellon, Joan Slaven. Runners-up: Skip Gwen Tyler, Nan Hurst, Trevolyn Patrick, Berna Ormsby.

Second Draw - Paul Nielsen Trophy - Skip Lucille Cooksley, Ann Toth, Alice Fraser, Sheena Goldie. Runners-up: Skip Kae Hansen, Dolores Jordan, Trevolyn Patrick, Berna Ormsby.

Mini Spiel - Ben Rachlin Trophy - Skip Gwen Tyler, Kae Hansen, Ann Toth, Barbara Jackson. Runners-up: Skip Lucille Cooksley, Marilyn McArthur, Pearl Barber, Berna Ormsby.

Wind-up Spiel - Don Berton Trophy - Helen Otterbein, Dolores Jordan, Bette Footitt, Muriel McCutcheon. Runners-up: Val Drinkwater, Ina Mellon, Pat Near, Joan Slaven.

Will conduct parking survey

The Department of Transportation and Communication will conduct a survey on Acton's parking needs sometime during the next month.

The survey will help determine whether or not there is enough parking space for the size of the town.

The department will likely bear 100 per cent of the cost. If there is any cost to the town, clerk-administrator Grant Usher said it would likely be only 25 per cent of the total.

Joseph Gardin on trade mission

Joseph Gardin of R.R. 2, Acton, president of Mobile Material Handling Equipment, Mississauga, is one of eight Ontario manufacturers on trade missions to Italy and Germany as part of an Ontario Ministry of Industry and Tourism product prospecting mission.

Based on the successes of missions during the past four years, the Ontario firms will be seeking new products to manufacturer under license in product lines ranging from pulp and paper machinery to pallet trucks and stackers, the latter by Mr. Gardin.

The group leaves for Milan April 19 to attend the 51st Milan trade fair. On April 26 the group arrives at the giant Hanover Fair in Germany.

DON BEXTON trophy for the top team in the Dolores Jordan and Muriel McCutcheon. Skip ladies' windup spiel went to the Helen Helen and Bette Footitt were absent when Otterbein rink. Kae Hansen made the photo was taken. (D. Gibbons photo) presentation Saturday night to rink members

PAUL NIELSEN trophy for the top team in from Gwen Tyler. Also on the rink were l. to r. Ann Toth, Alice Fraser and Sheena Goldie. ladies' section went to this rink skipped by (D. Gibbons photo) Lucille Cooksley shown accepting the trophy

MCKENZIE trophy for the top team in the first draw in the Acton Curling Club ladies section went to this rink skipped by Mae Dumarsh who was unable to attend Saturday night's presentation. Vivian Roszell made the presentation to l. to r. Lil Stapleton, Joan Slaven and Ina Mellon. (D. Gibbons photo)

GWEN TYLER skipped her rink to victory in and Ann Toth looked on. Absent when photo the ladies' mini-spiel to earn possession of the Rachlin trophy. Willa Hewitt made the presentation, as rink members Kae Hansen photo) was taken Barbara Jackson. (D. Gibbons photo)