Nephew saves uncle from lake

An R. R. 2 Erin man is alive and well today, but still shaking off an experience in which he almost was food for the fishes in a lake near Elliott Lake over the holiday weekend.

A non-swimmer, S. Longstreet slipped and fell off a rock into deep water. Prompt action by an 18-year-old nephew, who grabbed a branch from a nearby tree and pulled his uncle to shore, saved Mr. Longstreet from drowning.

Mrs. S. Longstreet told the Free Press she was going to insert a card of thanks in the Elliott Lake paper to show the family's gratitude for the rescue.
