Launch church drive Sunday

Trinity Church campaign will be officially launched on Sunday, May 27, when general chairman Steve Ormaby presents upwards of 30 men to Dr. Onions in a brief dedication ceremony.
The men will be trained at a special instruction class tonight (Wednesday) and invitations to attend have been sent to 80 men.

Dinner Monday
On Monday, May 28, a roast beef dinner, catered by the Presbyterian ladies, is being held in the Knox Church Auditorium and every family having a connection with Trinity United has been invited. Twenty-eight hostesses are busy on the telephone inviting their friends in the congregation to be their guests and sit at their tables.

At the dinner, the needs of the Church will be presented to the assembled guests and the plan of the campaign will also be explained. As the dinner is for adults only, due to limitation of space, nursery-age children are going to be looked after by members of the C.G.I.T. under the supervision of Mrs. Ribey in Trinity Church.

All visited
During the nine days after the dinner the entire congregation will be visited by a layman of the church who will seek not only financial support through pledges but will give people an opportunity to take a more active part in the life of the church—more Sunday School Teachers, more choir members and so on.
The campaign is scheduled to close on June 8.

40th anniversary for Dr., Mrs. Onions

A surprise presentation was made to Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Onions after church Sunday morning, to mark their 40th wedding anniversary. Ralph Denny read a greeting and expressed the congratulations of the congregation to the couple. Mrs. Onions was given a crystal vase and Dr. Onions a cuff links and tie clip set. Both replied with a few amusing words of thanks. At the couples' club dinner in the church previously, an anniversary cake made a surprise appearance for the minister and his wife.
