BOYS' BICYCLE PRIZES were taken by Philip Johnston, first, Robbie Weirner in second and in third place, Ronnie Short. Philip Johnston's costume was one of national history when, dressed as a Mountie, he was celebrating the 100th anniversary of the force.

FINAL JUDGING at the recent Lion Club's festive weekend showed the girls' bicycle contest being won by Christina Bell, Sylvia Schelke in 2nd, both of Eden Mills and, in 3rd place Tina Gratner.

COSTUMES GALORE and the judges had a difficult decision to make with children from many areas of Eramosa lining up for entry in the Rockmosa carnival.

TOP ENTRY for the family floats was the Burton Hill family dressed in authentic early Rockwood Quaker costumes. They are pictured waiting for the parade to start up.

Comin's and Goin's

One more district man got his Christmas in May present this week when, at the Rockwood Ball Park, his name was drawn in the Eramosa ball draw by last month's winner, Walter Swanton. Barry Livingstone of R.R. 2 Guelph was the lucky winner of the $100 prize with George Smith the grinning salesman who received the $25 selling award and promptly invested in 5 more draw tickets in the project which could net a consistent winner a substantial amount all told. The Junior girls were supposed to have been the sport's highlight for the afternoon, however, due to consistent rain the field was too muddy and the game had been necessarily cancelled.

Well, look who is back from her trip about the British Isles. It's Marie Saunders looking well and hearty and it's welcome home to her from her many friends who missed seeing her around for the past few weeks.

If you've got a minute - and you have, call in to the General Hospital room 220 and visit with Mrs. Little. She fell and broke her hip last week and that 90 year old charmer is just ripe for visitors and has all the time in the world to spend with friends while she recuperates.

Word is that Charlie Giddens was hurt in an accident on a return trip from the southland of U.S.A. this week. Get well, Charlie and your friends hope to see you well and about without limping very soon.

The call is out - for all parents and interested parties of the Rockwood Centennial Grade eight school children. In preparation for their June graduation members of the Home and School are planning a bazaar to be held at the school on Saturday, June 9 from 2 to 5 p.m. and the hope is that everyone who can make anything will contribute. Costs are going up these days and it's only through community assistance that many things can be achieved. Wondering what to make? Phone Donna Clifford of Eden Mills and, as the organizer, she will give you some ideas. In this way, the June banquet will be assured for the district's grade 8 students. Remember though, we also need buyers and, if you can't donate at least make a point of purchasing.

Just in case you haven't heard this week is Nursing Home week and, if you haven't a friend in a home just remember "No man is an island" and human companionship shared with those who have no friends or relatives can be very rewarding from both sides of any fence.

Say "bye" to Marie Saunders and her friend Mary McIntyre of Guelph who left on Tuesday for a three months working time in Jasper. Have a great trip, kids, look after yourselves and don't work too hard and we'll look forward to seeing you around again come fall to take up your grade 13 studies at Bishop Macdonnell in Guelph plus Marie, all your local involvement endeavours including the Rockwood Brownies troop.

Word is that Kevin Root has reached the Northwest Territories via motorcycle for his summertime working span. Great going, Kev, have a good summer and we pray we'll see you home safely before your fall semester come September.

So you've lost your calendar! Well jot down the date of Saturday, June 9 with an underline under Rod and Gun Club where the Eden Mills Community Club will be holding their "Project Overhaul" Dance for everyone in the district who would like to attend. Want to know how much - call Marg Adair at 856-4484 and she'll get you up on all the info with the Traditions group for music.

Eden Mills

Sympathy expressed to Sinclair family

By Mrs. R. Wright
The congregation of Eden Mills Presbyterian Church welcomed to the pulpit on Sunday the Rev. Walter Jackson of Oshawa, a family who supplied for the Rev. Sinclair.

Mr. & Mrs. Sinclair and family deeply appreciate all the expressions of sympathy (including the silent ones) received from the people of Eden Mills and Rockwood and many other places. They have been a tremendous help in a time of need.

First Communion Sacred Heart

Sacred Heart Church, Rockwood, was the scene last Sunday, May 27 of the first communion of several district children.

Wearing white veils and dresses, Carol Swantek and Tina Gradinaru, were part of the communicant group which also included Michael Sheehy, David Dunne, David Coppes and Thomas Bell, all wearing Sunday suit attire.

Reverend F. Elliott said the mass for the children who were graduating after a ten week preparatory course given to them by Marie Saunders of Alma Street, Rockwood, a grade 12 student of Bishop MacDonnell High School of Guelph.

On hand to watch the official ceremony were members of the participants' families as well as other of the congregations of the local parish including St. Peter's of Oustic and Rockwood's Sacred Heart churches.

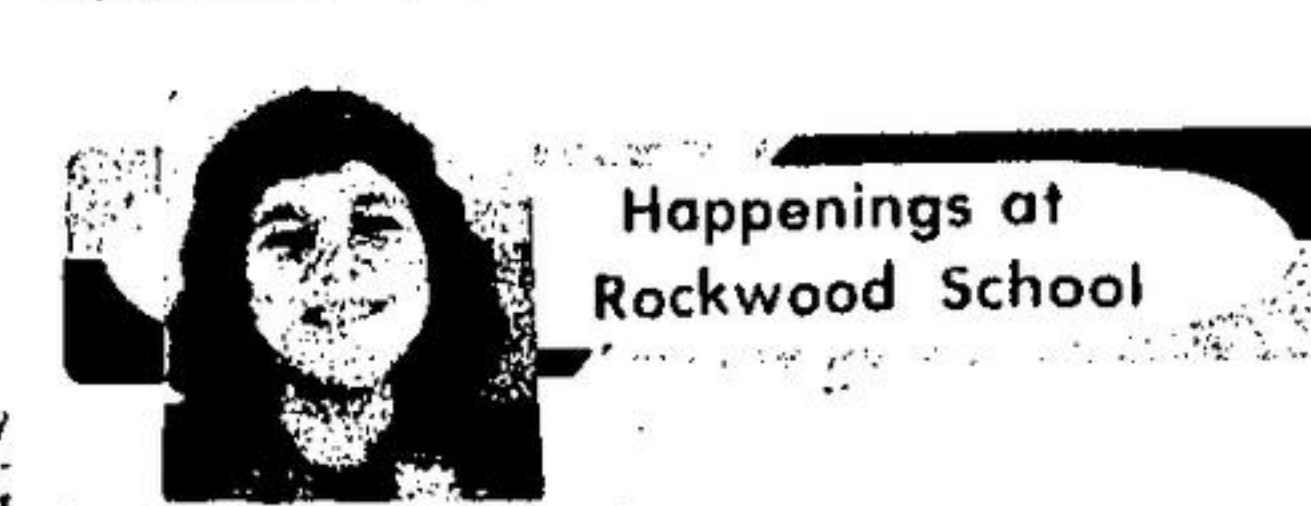

ANTIQUE TREASURES, old gramophones, milk, junk, artistry on the greens, fun, food, and ponies for the kids. Saturday's June 2 Flea Market is shaping up to be an annual big time event in the village at St. John's Anglican Church grounds. Christopher Hudson and Robbie Meadows display some of the wares collecting for the day which already is hosting dealers from many parts of southern Ontario.

Flea Market here Sunday

Junk, antiques, artists on the lawn, and contributors from many local districts will participate in Saturday, June 2 mammoth flea market which will be held on the grounds of St. John's Church, Rockwood, with many dealers launching their special projects for the first time.

Mann Made Leathercraft, Elizabeth Hoey of Elm Tree farm, Black Horse Antiques, David Ferris Woodcraft, pottery, ironware, sculpting, and on-the-spot artistry, it will all be there with candy apples being sold by the local boy scout groups and pony rides for the youngsters.

by Judy Finley
This Sunday the grade 8 students will be having fun when they go to Arrowhead Ranch near Collingwood. They will be returning on Tuesday after the two day trip.

Appoint co-ordinator

W. E. McCreary, 39, of Brantford has been hired as co-ordinator of Halton County Emergency Measures Organization. McCreary currently serves as deputy director of EMO in Brantford.

Old church filled 150th anniversary

By Mrs. Ron McLean
There was standing room only in old Ebenezer Church, when Mrs. Betty Griffiths preached, in connection with the 150th anniversary of services being held in the community. She took her text from Isaiah, "Remember ye not the former things, behold I will do a new thing."

Remembrance carries responsibility and commitment. God is calling us to make new memories to the glory of God.

Following the service, a social time was held when Mrs. Griffiths sang, "Amazing Grace." She was ordained at the maritime conference, and has a charge at Shediac, N.B. with three churches. It entails a drive of 55 miles per Sunday. Everyone wishes Mrs. Griffiths much success in her chosen work.

Next Sunday, while Mr. Finley is at conference the youth Bible class will take the service, when Steve Woods will preach. The lovely flowers in the sanctuary were in memory of the late Mrs. Georgina Simpson.

We see such indifference in the world around us. Are we making gods of the achievers, rather than the creator? God has done great things in the past, and He will do great things in the future, if we have courage and faith. Faith is an active, powerful word, producing firmness of purpose.

Beautyrest...

because day follows night

A good night's sleep is only half our story. The rest lasts all day.

If you wake up feeling as if you've never been to sleep, you obviously are not getting the rest you need to set you up for the day. Now we make a mattress that's designed to give you a really good night's sleep. It's called Beautyrest, by Simmons.

The hidden difference in every Beautyrest mattress is a Beautyrest, each coil is so close together, they rest on its neighbor, so it can give or apply pressure individually, according to your anatomy. They give under your shoulders and back without sagging elsewhere. You have a firm, supportive bed. It's the mattress with the hidden difference that sets you up for a better night's sleep. For more facts and details, contact your Beautyrest retailer.
