Centennial . . .

meeting so soon but after some discussion agreed to it, as long as it wasn't a waste of time.

Steering committee

Consensus of opinion was that council should consider likely names for a steering committee to replace the original centennial committee.

They also recommended all service clubs and groups be contacted again with the request that a representative co-operate with this new group.

The mayor stressed that council could not take leadership themselves. "This will be the busiest council this town has ever seen," he promised.

Councillor Coats said "The centennial commission had the right idea; it was too bad they didn't get the support." He pointed out many able persons are not involved in service clubs.

As council members wrote down the new meeting time in their note books, the mayor joked, "We're the victims of fate and time!"

Says James Wiersma, TD Manager, Acton

"Sure, saving is a problem. But what you don't see you don't miss."

Because it takes so much money just to get by these days, saving a few dollars out of each pay cheque gets tougher and tougher. Something always comes up. Instead of saving those few dollars you end up spending them. Toronto Dominion has a solution for you. It's called Cash-builder; the "set and forget" way to save.

You tell us how much you think you can manage to put into your savings account, and once a month, every other week or whenever you say, we'll automatically transfer that amount from your chequing account into your savings account. This way you probably won't even miss it.

Even if you already have a Premium Savings account, Cash-builder will ensure a successful savings programme. And if you've just finished paying off a loan, you can keep on putting aside those monthly payments—and pay yourself! Unlike some saving programmes, your money is not tied up. You can use it any time you want—for a vacation, for a car, or even the down payment for a house. Talk to us about Cash-builder. It's the new way to save at Toronto Dominion. See what a difference it makes to you.

Peeewe's dump Kitchener

Indusmin peeewe's came from behind to upset the Kitchener House League all-stars 9-4 in exhibition lacrosse play at Kitchener Thursday night.

Kitchener racked up a 3-0 lead early in the first period, but the peeewe's were able to fight back to a 3-2 first period score.

Todd McIntyre, Shane Withers and Dave McGilloway each potted two goals for Acton with singles going to Derrick Neeley, Rory McDowell and Randy Van Fleet. Assists went to Bruce McPhail and Randy McIntyre with two apiece and McGilloway, Withers and Bert Post with single helpers.

Pete Turkosz played a strong game in goal for Acton.

Indusmins edge Ancaster 7-5

Acton Indusmin peeewe's remained unbeaten in Golden Triangle minor lacrosse league action when they dumped Ancaster Maroons 7-5 at the community centre last Wednesday night.

A fine effort in goal by Pete Turkosz and Randy Van Fleet's three goal hat trick were key factors in the win.

Todd McIntyre, Shane Withers, Dave McGilloway and Todd Cook were the other Indusmin snipers. McIntyre, Withers, McGilloway, Post and Derrick Neeley drew assists.

Acton received 13 penalties for a total of 39 minutes (at three minutes straight time per penalty), just six minutes shy of the entire game which is 45 minutes.

At Toyota, the future is closer than you think.

What you see in the picture is something everybody wants. It's a new kind of car. A safer one.

The car is Toyota's ESV. (Experimental Safety Vehicle). It's still in the experimental stage. But getting closer to production every day.

It uses our specially developed radar system to inflate air bags inside to protect passengers a split second before impact.

It has a built-in central warning device to detect problems in the braking, lighting and air bag systems.

And best of all, by the time we're finished, it will be able to withstand a 50-mph barrier collision without structural damage to the passenger compartment.

You can't buy a Toyota ESV just yet. But hopefully, before long, you will be able to.

You see at Toyota, the future is closer than you think.
