

Arrange bus to picnic

The regular afternoon meeting of Acton Golden Age Club was held in Luxton Hall with Ivan Harris presiding. Two minute silence was observed in memory of Douglas McNabb.

Correspondence included information re the United Senior Citizens of Ontario convention slated for Sudbury Aug. 21 and 22. Mrs. Doris Fryer and R. L. Davidson were chosen as delegates. Several thank-you notes were read.

The zone picnic is being held in Burlington on June 20, and arrangements were made for a bus to leave the hall at 10.30 a.m. sharp, with each one taking their own lunch. It is hoped there will be a goodly number attend from the local club.

Birthdays were noted for Mrs. D. Reed and Mrs. J. Fuller and wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Donald Reed, who will celebrate their 50th on June 17.

Euchre prizes
Prizes for euchre were won by Mrs. M. Cristall, Mrs. F. Finnimore, Ivan Lilycrop and Robert McEnery.

For crokinole, winners were Mrs. M. Spear, Miss Annie Atkin, Mrs. D. Barker and Bert Davidson.

Sandwiches and cup cakes, served with a cup of tea concluded a pleasant afternoon.

SMART SPORTSWEAR was modelled at the schools' fashion show by Jennifer Krapek and Kim McCristall. All the articles shown were made in Mrs. White's home ec classes.

Hornby swamps Int. girls team

Acton Intermediate girls "B" team were swamped 17-4 by Hornby in Halton rural softball league play in Hornby last Thursday night.

Heather McEachern socked a three bagger for Acton in a losing cause.

Many errors contributed to the Acton defeat, but coach "Pop" Main feels his girls will improve with more practice. Hornby used bunting to good advantage in their victory.

Next game for Acton is Thursday June 14 at home against Glen Williams.

Home ec. students display fashions

Home economics students from the M.Z. Bennett, Robert Little and Brookville school staged a joint fashion show last Thursday afternoon in the R. L. auditorium. About 70 of Mrs. G. White's students took part as parents and friends watched and applauded. Rhona Silcock acted as commentator for the program.

Sharon White assisted her mother with the presentations and John Taylor played the organ. Refreshments were served afterward.

The girls had made a variety of attractive and practical articles of clothing.
