

The high school Outers Club members are away on a camping trip this week.

Major and Mrs. M. Sinclair, Gina and Ian of Ottawa visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Landsborough.

Ten Rangers and five leaders from Elliott Lake drove down for the Stratford Festival, spending two nights at the home of one of the leader's parents Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rognvaldson. Mrs. Robert Taylor, the former Janet Rognvaldson, left her daughter Michelle with her grandparents when the group went on to Stratford. They saw Taming of the Shrew Saturday, were sightseeing Sunday and shopping Monday before returning Tuesday to Elliott Lake. They made the trip in a van and station wagon, camping two nights at Stratford.

Mrs. Alex Pringle, Blue Springs Road, had as visitors recently, her son Donald of Vancouver and Oliver, B.C., and her daughter Catherine, with her husband Fred E. Parsons of Beeton and their son Donald, professor in the University of Illinois, in Urbana, Ill.

Clark Parsons is visiting in Bombay, India, with a fellow student of Toronto University who is being married in Bombay and having Clark as best man. Clark will visit in Paris on his way home.

Joan Parsons, Beeton, and her cousin Ann Pringle, Vancouver, are on a three month conducted tour of Mexico.

Spending Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Rognvaldson at their home were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rognvaldson of Rockwood; Mrs. Bruce Simpson, Christine, Jacqueline and Dick, Kitchener; Mr. and Mrs. Dickson Bailey and Danny, Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. Ewart Guay, Trenton; Rev. and Mrs. Harold Bailey, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Rognvaldson, Cambridge; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Raetsen and Louise, Guelph; Mr. Mrs. Clarence Rognvaldson with granddaughter Michelle Taylor of Elliott Lake; and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tatton and family, Acton.

Bad weather sends

U.C.W. picnickers inside

The annual picnic of unit 2 of the U.C.W. was held at the Shields farm, but due to the inclement weather the 19 members were forced to meet in the home for the social afternoon. Mrs. Force had charge of the meeting in the absence of president Mrs. Lidka. Mrs. Wilderspin had charge of the devotional and Mrs. Veldhuis read Scripture. Mrs. Wilderspin gave a reading on the need for peace throughout the world today and ended with the origin of an old hymn Would You Forget to Pray. Mrs. Shoemaker gave her report for the sick and shut-ins. A small amount of business was taken care of. There were 19

Mr. and Mrs. Hill Elliott and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Elliott were in Comber last week, for the funeral of an aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tryssenaar of Listowel spent the weekend with their families here.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Deveau are back again after a trip to Montreal where they visited his mother and other relatives.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Gerth and family, Elizabeth Dr., one day last week were her sister-in-law Mrs. Ron Ashley, baby son Bentley from Burnaby B. C. and her daughter Debbie, Kitchener; and Mrs. Gerth's brother Harold Ashley from Kitchener.

Cathy Papillon is home again after a Seneca College trip to Europe for a group of about 70, which took in Paris, Rome, Florence, Milan, Venice, Brussels, Amsterdam, Munich, Innsbruck, Copenhagen and London. She enters her second year in Fashion Retailing this fall and was awarded a bursary for the trip. She had a surprise meeting in Brussels with Bob Krul and Rick Livermore, who recognized her on the street. They are expecting to be away about a year travelling.

All retiring employees of Halton county board of education were guests of honor at a dinner held by the board last Thursday at the Burlington Golf and Country club. The group of about 40 included retiring principals, teachers, business managers, secretaries and custodians and assistant superintendent Don Thomas, who is well-known at the schools here. The two Acton public school principals were included and it was Elmer Smith who spoke on behalf of the entire group of retiring people. Others from Acton were Walter Dubois and Vivian Smith from the M. Z. Bennett school. Director of education Em Lavender and board chairman Bill Priestner also spoke. Acton-Nassagaweya board member Tom Watson reports all were very impressed by Mr. Smith's astute and timely words.

Plan Centennial Decoration Day

A special centennial Decoration Day parade and service will be planned in January. The Decoration Day committee met Wednesday evening of last week in the library to hear reports on this year's event. Eight service organizations were represented. It was agreed to contact church groups to add their support to the program next year. These groups will be notified of the date, time and place of another meeting in January when plans will begin. Officers for 1974 Decoration Day were elected: president Edgar Le Blanc and treasurer David Hunter. The secretary will be elected in January.

Adams - Flinders wedding

In a double-ring ceremony at St. Alban's church Susanne Emily Flinders and George Hugh Adams were married. Rev. H. Dawson officiated at the wedding ceremony Saturday, May 26 at 4 p.m. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Flinders, R.R. 3, Acton, is a graduate of York University with her B.A. degree and Lakeshore Teachers' College. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Adams of Toronto, is a graduate of University of Toronto with a B.A. Ph. E. degree and the Ontario College of Education. The bride wore a long white gown with blue trim, leg-of-mutton sleeves and accordion pleated skirt. She carried white carnations with orange can roses and baby's breath. Attendants Maid of Honor was Nancy Nicholls of Oshawa, bridesmaids Deirdre Villiers, Toronto, Rita Thompson, sister of the bride and Cathy Adams, sister of the groom, with junior bridesmaids Teri and Jenny Flinders, sisters of the bride. George Flinders escorted his daughter down the aisle. William Fawcett was groomsman and the ushers were Lothar Maier, John Hadbavny and Gary Adams. Mrs. Frank Oakes played the organ including Beethoven's Ode to Joy and the Theme from Romeo and Juliet. Reception Dinner and an evening reception followed at the Music Centre. Among the guests were Lynn Scott, aunt of the bride, who flew from Winnipeg and Don Munro, uncle of the groom, who came from Boston, Mass. The maid of honor Nancy Nicholls flew back from Vancouver to join the wedding party. The honeymoon trip was to Ottawa, Montreal and Kingston and the bride left wearing a pale blue pant suit with yellow stripe and yellow roses. The couple are living in West Toronto, and open house was held at their new home on Sunday, June 10.

Rev. W. Nicholson ordained, inducted

Rev. William Nicholson was ordained into the Presbyterian ministry and inducted into his first charge, Knox Presbyterian Church in Grand Valley. His wife is the former Vivian Smith of Acton, and they have a young son William Jr. Mr. Nicholson is the son of Mrs. William C. Nicholson, Guelph and the late Rev. William Nicholson. He graduated in May with honors from Knox College in Toronto with his degree of Master of Divinity. His sister, Mrs. Frank McKellar, Guelph, played the organ for the service and Rev. Forbes Thomson of St. Andrew's Guelph, gave a tribute to Mr. Nicholson and his late father. A reception was held afterward when flowers were presented to Mrs. Nicholson. Many friends attended.

Picnic ends nursery

The Tinkerbell Nursery for Physically and Mentally Handicapped Children (sponsored by the North Halton Association for the Mentally Retarded) wound up a very successful second year with a picnic at Acton Park on Thursday, June 14. There was a good turn-out of mothers, brothers and sisters, volunteers and their children, with a total of 22 children and 24 adults enjoying the sunny day. The somewhat cool breeze died down about noon enabling the children to go paddling in the lake while the adults sunbathed. Rev. McKenzie, mother of pupil Margaret-Ann, treated everyone to ice cream cones and before leaving, favors were distributed to all the children, compliments of Charles Baker, Bramalea, grandfather of another student, Lisa Keen. A good time was had by all. Among the pioneer names still found in the village of Campbellville are McPhail, Garrett, Easley, McLaren, Black, Mahon and Agnew.

Oldest member Mrs. Sayers, 92

On a beautiful June day members of the Afternoon Auxiliary W.M.S. of Knox church met at the home of Mrs. Gordon Johnston, R.R.3, Acton, for the annual meeting of associate members, convened by Mrs. Wm. McIntyre and Mrs. C. Hansen with Miss Isabel Anderson presiding. The service of worship was conducted by Mrs. Hansen and Mrs. Mainprize with Miss Bella-Maye Roszell contributing a solo Amazing Grace.

Now 92 years of age, Mrs. Sayers is living with her daughter Mrs. Flora Bruce at Ospringe. Hostess Mrs. Johnston is also a daughter.

Change hour

The service of worship was conducted by Mrs. Hansen and Mrs. Mainprize with Miss Bella-Maye Roszell contributing a solo Amazing Grace. Role of women Mrs. McIntyre presented a most interesting mission study showing the change in the pattern of mission work in the Bhil field in India and the important role of women in the church there today. From the book God Speaks to Women Today by Eugenia Price Miss Anderson read a portion dealing with Mary and Martha and showing how the two sisters, though as different as day and night, were accepted in that way by Jesus. During the social period all enjoyed visiting with their dearly-loved oldest member Mrs.

At the meeting of the Trinity United Church Board on Sunday night there was considerable discussion about the hour of service. Many people have objected to the early hour of 10 a.m. It was agreed that when Trinity resumes its regular services after the joint summer services with Knox, the service would be at 11 a.m. The effective date for the change will be September 9. Show Increases An interim report was received from Stan Lancaster, director of the financial campaign. The canvas is only one third completed, but returns show an increase over last year's givings. Mr. Lancaster will be back in September to arrange for the winding up of the visitation.
