White snapdragons and daisy mums decorated the Church of S. Alban for the marriage of Nancy Ellen Morris and William Donald Dukelow. Both are students at the University of thelph, the bride entering the fourth year of Consumer Studies majoring in textiles and clothing and the groom entering the fourth year in Science

The Rev Harry Dawson performed the ceremony at four o'clock on Saturday, August 4 and the couple exchanged rings. Mrs. Frank takes played the organ. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H G. Morris, 132 Elmore Dr. Acton and the groom

the son of Mr. and Mrs. C.D. imkelow, Islington

Return to university Their wedding trip is to the east const of Canada and Cape Cod, and when they return at the end the month they will be living in Guelph

The bride designed and made both her own gown and the groom's suit for the wedding. Her dress was of beige and white cotton lace with a beige satin ribbon and satin buttons all the unt from the high neck to the hem of the full skirt

She carried a colonial bouquet of stephanatis, yellow and pink roses, and had the same flowers in her hair. She also wore a gold watch locket, and heirloom of the groom's family, a gift of the

The groom's suit was white and with the brown shirt he wore a how tie and puff of the same material as the bridesmaids'

Mutron of honor was the bride's Sherry (Mrs. John McNabbi Acton, and the bridesmaids her sister Trudy (Mrs Alan McNabb) of Kingston and her sister-in-law of a week. Margaret (Mrs. Gordon Morris) Toronto.

They were brown and white gingham sundresses with full skirts and patch pockets trimmed with white cotton lace and shawls of the same material. Trudy McNabb and Margaret Morris made the outfits

Each carried a single rose, the matron of honor's yellow and the bridesmaids' pink.

Mr. Morris escorted his daughter. The groom's brother John Dukelow was groomsman and the ushers were Brian Itainey and Gordon Morris.

Reception at home A marquee was set up in the garden of the bride's home for the reception. The bride's mother were yellow chiffon, her yellow hat trimmed with peach colored daisy mums: The groom's mother wore powder blue crepe with corn-flower purse corsage.

NANCY MORRIS and Bill Dukelow were married in St. Alban's Church, Both attended the University of (Photo by Bill Stuckey) Guelph.

liamilton, who is 92 years of age, and the groom's grandmother from Hamilton were among the guests. Others came from London, Hamilton, Toronto. Ottawa, Detroit, Syracuse, Madoc, Prescott and Guelph for the wedding.

When the couple left, the bride wore a brown and yellow shirtaist dress.

Shower, presentation A miscellaneous shower for the bride was given by Mrs. Doris

The bride's grandfather from Graham on June 23. A presentation was made at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. Taylor of Hamilton.

For Mr. and Mrs. Harold Morris, weddings come in twos. Their first two daughters Sherry and Trudy were married in a double wedding to brothers John and Alan McNabb three years ago today, August 29, 1970.

Son Gordon was married to Margaret Slaven on July 28 and their third daughter, Nancy, a week later.

> a delicious lunch. Dave Reld closed the meeting. The next meeting will be quiz night to be followed by Achievement Day on Saturday, Sept. 22 in the morning at Milton Fair.

Women's Institutes house constitution penned there

Three-quarters of a century Federated Women's institutes of women the world over," noted go, about 100 rural women at- Ontario (FWIO). Known as the the Hon. Wm. A. Stewart, tending a special meeting of the Farmer's institute at Squire's Hall in Stoney Creek, Ontario, founded the Women's Institute movement at the urging of Adelaide Hoodless of Guelph.

The Saltfleet Township District wumen wanted "an organization of their own to improve their skills in the arts of homemaking and child care.

Since that time. Women's learning have grown to become the lurgest women's organization in the world, claiming some eight million members in 68 countries. Now, the house in which the Morney : Institute constitution was hand penned by Janet Lee in 1897, and the table on which she wrute, have been acquired by the Erland Lee House, after Mrs. Lake Ontario.

said Mrs. H. L. Noblitt, of Ottawa, current FWIO president, at a recent ceremony marking the acquisition of the house and its 1850 period furnishings by the FWIO's Erland Lee Committee. "The women who established

Lee's husband who gave the movement early support, the green-shuttered, white farmhouse stands on 2.9 acres atop the Niagara Escarpment, commanding an impressive view of

Starting place
"This is where it all started,"

the early Institute chapters couldn't foresee the important and valuable impact the movement would have for rural Community groups help Sheridan programs

More than 50 Halton and Peel Children. The session culminates Community services and organizations will participate in the special information-giving day for women Sept. 8 at Sheridan College entitled, I-Sight: Women Here, Women the three lecture theatres.

Some of the groups include Association of Children with Learning Disabilities, Department of Agriculture, Pollution Control, Consumer's Association of Canada, Ontario Women's Bureau, Canada Manpower and several community volunteer bureaus.

Each will have exhibits, films, slides and information available for the public during the day from June Callwood Toronto lecturer and author of and light lunch. There will be no speak on Women: Past, Present registration. and Future.

Voice, and You and Your 9430.

with a panel discussion entitled You and Your Future. Exhibits and displays will be set up in the main hall areas with panel discussion taking place in 1-Sight: Women Here, Women Now has been especially designed for women who are interested in learning about issues pertinent to their lives. One of the college organizers Sherri Birtwhistle said its purpose is to involve the women in their community and to help them develop an awareness of their effectiveness as women.

Free buses Two buses will operate on Saturday, bringing persons from 9:30 a.m. until 4 p.m. at northern Peel and Halton com-Sheridan's main campus in Oak- munities to Sheridan's Oakville

A free supervised children's Starting the day off will be centre will operate all day. The guest speaker June Callwood, cafeteria will be open for wine Women and the Law, who will admission charge or pre-

For more information on I-The program has been planned Sight: Women Here, Women under four areas of interest to Now, call the Burlington Campus women: You and Yourself, You at 639-0100 or Information Serand Your Rights, You and Your vices, Oakville Campus at $45Morris-Slaven wedding vows at Guelph church

Margarot Ann Slaven and Gordon Frederick Morris exchanged yown and rings in the Church of Our Lady, Guelph, Saturday afternoon, July 28. White mums, glads and white ribbons decorated the church and Father Ryan officiated.

The young couple are living in Toronto, where the bride is assistant liaison officer of the Bank of Nava Scotia head office, Toronto and the groom is a student at the University of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Terence M. Slaven, R.R. 4, Acton, are the parents of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Morris, 132 Elmore Dr., Acton, parents of the groom.

Another wedding honeymoon trip in Algorquin Park returning the following Friday to act as bridesmaid and usher at the wedding of two members of their own wedding party, the groom's sister Nancy Morris and Bill Dukelow.

Organist for the ceremony was John Merrin, Guelph, who also song Ave Marin and Amazing Grace.

The bride, escorted by her wore French lace with bouffant skirt and cathedral train. Her headdress was Spanish style with Chantilly lace petals and pearls, the flowing veil edged in lace and trimmed with lace flowers: She carried a cascade of red roses with white heather from Scotland for good luck. Old tradition tradition, two silver horseshoes from Scotland were presented to the bride by three-year-old Jason

Sweeney and four-year-old Collette O'Neill. Matron of honor was Mrs. Irene Miller, Hamilton, a cousin, and the bridesmaids Mary Ann Patricia Sweeney and Ann O'Neill of Toronto, and the Junior bridesmaid was Agnes Slaven, only sister of the bride. They wore red, white and navy full-skirted dresses and picture hats trimmed with the same material. Their bouquets were of white and red carnations with red groom's sister Nancy Morris.

Demonstration clipping

The fourth meeting of the Halton 4-H Holstein Call Club was held on Monday, Aug. 13 at 7.30 p.m. at the home of Bert Stewart, Hornby. Dave Reid opened the meeting with all members Larry Bennett showed the proper way to clip a calf. Bert Stewart and three members used the Stewart family's three 4-H calves and demonstrated showmanship for the 40 members and visitors.

Committees were nominated for the exhibit at Milton Fair and for the inter-club herdsman competition. Mrs. Stewart served

The July meeting was held at the farm of Jim Reld, Hornby, A lesson on milk quality was given by Jeff Nurse.

JIM SNOW and the Progressive Conservative Association invite you to attend THE SIXTH ANNUAL

Family Chicken Bar "B" Que

Sunday, September 9/73 - 4 to 7 p.m. Hornby Community Park - Hornby, Ontario Adults $2.00 Children $1.00

Model Airplane Flying Demonstration

GAMES, FUN FOR ALL

Hornby Park is located 1/4 mile west of Trafsigar Road on South side of Upper Bess Line.

threamed like bride The bride's godehlid Kathleen O'Neill wore a white lace gown just like the bride's with red velvet ribbons in her hair. She carried a small nosegay of red Groomsman was Barry Yontef of Toronto, Ushers were Jim Slaven, and Terry Slaven, brothers of the bride; David Naylor of Woodstock, Mark Taylor, Hamilton, and Bill Dukelow, Guelph.

The bride's youngest brother Michael was ring bearer, dressed the same as the groom.

The men were black tuxtalls with black satin lapels and black The couple took a week's velvet bowtles. The groom and ring bearer were white smrts with red-trimmed ruffles and the others, white shirts with blacktrimmed ruffles.

> As a surprise, for the bride, piper Ron White, in full Scottish dress, piped the wedding party and guests from the church.

usher David Naylor who played the plane. Cousin Ann O'Nelli and white dress and white gardenia. She didn't throw her Freuler, Acton, a friend; cousins bouquet but placed it later on the grave of her grandfather. .

Piper surprise The reception was held at the Guelph Curling club. At dinner the piper played again as well as performed an Irish step dance for the newlyweds. A dance followed. Guests attended from Santa Monica California, Cleveland Ohio, Toronto, Hamilton, Guelph, Woodstock, Detroit, London and Acton with an aunt coming from Scotland for the occasion. In another old country Welcoming guests the bride's mother wore sky blue, silver accessories and pink orchids, and the groom's mother a honey linen suit with flowers in her hair and > on her purse. Leaving, the bride were a red

Graham a miscellaneous

Norton a pantry shower, on July 6

MARGARET ANN SLAVEN and Gordon Morris were married in the Church of Our Lady, Guelph, July 28. They returned from a week in Algonquin Park

Showers held events were held. On June 9 Mary

Ann Freuler held a miscellaneous shower; on June 22 Mrs. Doris Several showers and special to act as bridesmaid and usher for the groom's sister the following week. They are living in Toronto.

Sydney Potter a miscellaneous cocktail party in Hamilton July B shower in Toronto and on July 16 when a gift was presented.

(Photo by Bill Stuckey)

shower; on June 27 Mrs. Dot miscellaneous shower. Dr. and Mrs. Taylor held a

Here is your chance to say thanks to the gal that checks you out each week!

Isabel Moore

Mabel Heatly

Anna Arnold

CANADA GRADE "A" FROZEN

POTATO SALAD or COLE SLAW

Carol Jones

Cast Your Ballot Before Sept. 8 For the Cashier of Your Choice

Turkeys UT.

BONELESS PICNIC SHOULDER 358 18 $1.49

"IGA SPECIAL" AYLMER CHOICE CUT Wax Beans 14-PL TO C

WELCHADE 3 of this $1 Grape Drink 6 artis $1

Tomato Juice Asparagus Tips "IGA SPECIAL"

BETTY CHOCKER

Cake Mixes

ASSORTED VARIETIES

"IGA SPECIAL"

FLORIDA (CONCENTRATED)

100% PURE FROZEN

Old South

Orange Juice

"KGA SPECIAL"

ORIOLE (100% VEGETABLE OIL)

Soft

Margarine

BACKBACON THE $1.49 BOLOGNA 10 850 "IGA SPECIAL" FLAVOR CRYSTALS

Swing Orange "IGA SPECIAL"

ASSORTED COLORS Viva Paper Towels

Coffee Frosting Mixes "- 10 15 02 37c Orange Juice

"PRESERVING TIME IS HERE" MR ICA HAS A COMPLETE LINE OF MESERVING NEEDS - JARS, RONGS, PARAWAK, ETC.

Hamburger Fixin's

"IGA SPECIAL"

ASSORTED VARIETIES

Coronation

Relishes

Rhubarh Ple Cream Ples ≈ :1.37

CRISP, PLUMP CALIFORNIA, PRODUCE OF U.S.A. NO. 1 GRADE Seedless Grapes OUTSPAN VALENCIA ORANGES LOCAL CHONN UNTARIO NO, I GRADE

WE RESERVE THE MIGHT TO LIMIT QUANTITIES ALL PRICES EFFECTIVE WED TO SAT, AUG 79, 30, 31, SEPT 1

Quality, Service and Value, all at IGA

Aluminum Foil

2 32 450 Serviettes "IGA SPECIAL"

LIQUID Javex Bleach

TOA SPECIAL" POWDERED Omo Detergent

"IGA SPECIAL" MRS. LUKE'S RASPSEARY OR Strawberry Jam

at IGA we really care