

Archibalds leave area activity nights begin

By Doris Flies
Friends and neighbours of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Archibald gathered in Ospringe school auditorium Saturday evening to bid them farewell from the community. A few games of euchre were played, high scores going to Mrs. Fred Baple and Elmer Hurren. The popular couple were then called to the front, and while Ken Stubbington read the address, they were presented with a swag lamp, mirror, and a bowl of money. The address was signed on behalf of the community by Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Stubbington, Mr. and Mrs. Don Milton, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sinclair, and Mr. and Mrs. Stan Matthews. Mr. and Mrs. Archibald both replied, and invited their friends to visit them in their home in Guelph. Lunch was served to conclude a social evening.

Miss Judy Ellis and Mr. Hashem Hazineh of Oakville spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ellis. Pat and Steven Ellis were home for the week-end.
U.K. guests
Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor, 3rd line, are now entertaining Mr. and Mrs. J. Hollingsworth from Derbyshire, England. Mrs. Taylor's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. Parker from Markham, South Wales, U.K. were also guests at the same home for three weeks.
Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Berry of Arthur visited one day with Mrs. Thomas Fines and Doris.

Congratulations to Miss Donna Milton who won the I.O.F. Insurance Co. scholarship.
Linen shower
Pat Ellis, Brenda Bruce and Judy Rafn were hostesses at a linen shower for Barbara Gates. The pleasant gathering was at the home of Mrs. Robert Ellis, and was attended by former school friends of the bride-to-be.
Next Monday evening, October 1, will see the beginning of Activity Night again. Registration, a 50c fee, will be on the same evening. There is no age limit. Girls 12 and under begin at 7 p.m. and girls 13 and over start at 8 p.m.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pankraz recently celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary. They and their guests enjoyed a bountiful dinner at their home, and later were treated to an evening of entertainment at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Flasher.

Banquet
Lydia Dudnik and Linda McKenzie attended the banquet of the Erin Softball Association in Erin United Church last Wednesday evening. Names of the 46 coaches were highlighted, and the teams they were coaching, also the position each team held at the end of the season.
