Obituary

W. Brown dies in city hospital

After an illness of about two years Wilbert Ballantyne Brown of R.R. 2, Acton, died September 17, Mr. Brown was in Toronto East General Hospital at the time of his death and was 50 years of age.

Funeral service was Sept. 20 at the Rumley-Shoemaker funeral home conducted by the Rev. A. H. McKenzie. Interment was in Fairview cemetery.

Palbearers were relatives and friends John Copthorne, Fairport Beach; Dale Copthorne, Brooklyn; Howard Brown, Wasaga Beach; Don Dedman, R.R. 2, Acton; Doug Brander, Stayner and Ross Griffith, Toronto.

Dairy farm
Mr. Brown was born in Howick, Quebec, son of the late Albert G. Brown and Janet (Lang) Brown. After his marriage to Elizabeth Trimble in 1947 at Toronto they lived in Toronto for a year before moving to Quebec. They owned and operated a dairy farm in Riverfield, Quebec, for eight years until 1955 when they moved to R.R. 2, Acton. Mr. Brown was a carpenter with J. B. MacKenzie and also was self-employed.

He is survived by his wife, family Ken and Betty Brown, R.R. 1, Acton; Wayne and Grace Brown, Guelph; Ross, Dianne, Roy, Ronald and Leslie at R.R. 2; sister Shirley (Mrs. Alan Hoakin) Farnham, Quebec and brothers Aylmer, Riverfield, Quebec; Walter, his twin brother, at Riverfield and Clifford at Howick, Quebec.

The R.C.A.F. (WD) Association of Hamilton, after several years of planning and research have published a book about the Women's Division of the R.C.A.F. They've asked the Free Press to help them reach former R.C.A.F. personnel and the general public. This book is the first story of the R.C.A.F. Airwomen serving from 1941 to the current Air Element. It's a factual humorous, illustrated hard cover book, selling for $4.50 per copy. Prepaid orders will be mailed through: RCAF (WD) ASSOCIATION, Book Committee, P.O. Box 712, Hamilton, Ontario.

A GLASS cubicle is all that remains now where Acton's C.N.R. station once stood. The building was recently sold by the Acton Lions Club to Joseph McCarthy who salvaged lumber from it. Reflected in the car mirror in the foreground is the platform where passengers used to await arrivals and departures from the east and west. (D. Gibbons photo)

Churchill

Gift for newlyweds trip west in report

by Mrs. Fred MacArthur
Morning worship at Churchill Community Church on Sunday was very well attended. Also Sunday School seems to be gaining each week. Rev. A. W. Fosbury's message was Autumnal meditations. Choir, anthem was "Rock My Soul".

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clothier of Newfoundland visited for two weeks with their sister Mrs. Alfred Saunders.

Lisa Bonnell enjoyed a birthday dinner last Friday with her parents in Toronto and visited different places of interest.

Mrs. Norman Turner's daughter-in-law Mrs. David's guest.

New grandchild Mrs. and Mrs. Wallace Swackhamer and Mr. and Mrs. Don Swackhamer enjoyed a motor trip to Manor, Saskatchewan and a visit with Rev. and Mrs. Robert Hyde and Jeremy. The Hydys recently moved from Carlyle and are now living in the Manse in Manor where Bob has been serving as minister since going to Saskatchewan.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Lawrence and Mrs. MacLawrence all of Newfoundland also Mr. and Mrs. Eric Lawrence of Toronto spent last week with Mrs. Alfred Saunders.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Anderson entertained the Churchill Community Church orchestra on Saturday September 29 to honor the new couple Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Denny. The evening was spent in playing games. Mrs. Clarence Denny showed pictures taken at the Calgary Stampede and some of Ray's pictures taken when a little boy. During the evening the couple were presented with a black leather stool and a corsage for Mary Lou. Raymond thanked all for the lovely gift also for the enjoyable evening not forgetting to mention the good times they have had together and that he plans being with them still. Mary Lou also thanked everyone and all enjoyed a happy evening together.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson served a delicious lunch.

Visitors Mrs. Clarence Huntsman of Beamsville and Miss Norma Smart of Niagara Falls, N.Y., called on Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson on Friday afternoon.

Let's talk about HORSES

By Jennifer Barr
So Acton has another successful fair to chalk up on the credit side. Comfortable weather, masses of people, and a better park layout, contributed to a memorable day. We spent most of the afternoon hitting between the horse show ring and the track. The placement of the ring was an improvement but it was still, unfortunately, far too small. Two of the jumps in the Fault and Out class had to be placed an awkward two-and-a-half paces from each other, thereby causing a lot of horses to crash through instead of over the second jump.

Quality & Low Price CARPET BARN

Visit the CARPET BARN in the old Can. Tire Building or phone Tom or Al at 877-9896
78 GUELPH ST., GEORGETOWN "BARGAINS BY THE YARD"

Despite these problems, contestants seemed cheerful, particularly the Lindvik sisters, Beth, Kris, and Katie, of 3rd Line Farm. Their laughing good humour throughout the many classes was the cause of much favorable comment among the spectators. It certainly is more pleasant to watch someone with a sense of humor blow a jump than so many of our youngsters with their "do or die" attitude.

Canadian team It was marvelous to see all those RTR riders in the parade. Marilyn Hicken's antique buckboard was pulled by a patient team of three-year-old horses owned a driven by Bob Dennis, Acton. The colt and filly were a beautiful pair of matched bays, reminiscent of the Canadian all-purpose horses.

The parade route was mercifully short. I had to pull a reluctant AnnaBelle all the way, grinning through clenched teeth, while a very embarrassed Patrick had to push from behind. That was the first parade AnnaBelle hasn't enjoyed. She must be in foal.

Centennial show The quality of horses shown was once again of very high calibre and, although there were less than the record-breaking number of last year's show, there was still a goodly amount. The judge was heard to say to a questioning onlooker that she hoped she didn't offend anyone by her placing of the Palomino class but she didn't really know anything about judging them (!). With some revamping, the Acton Fair horse show should become a fine competitive event surrounded by the happy atmosphere of a great community effort. Without modernizing, the horse show will probably get lamer and lamer until it dies. Come on, committee: let's make an effort for Centennial year.
