Over 200 enjoyed the fall fashion show at the curling club Wednesday night "by bettianne" of Georgetown. The charming models displayed pantsuits, skirts and blouses, short day dresses, long skirts and sweaters with accessories, handbags and jewellery. The shoes were by Ito's Shoes of Georgetown.

The closing number featured long gowns designed and created by bettianne.

Mrs. Lorraine Campbell skillfully narrated the show and was presented with a corsage from the ladies of the curling club.

Adding glow Serving of wine and cheese added a pleasing glow to the thoroughly enjoyable evening.

The models were Cynthia Partridge, Dorothy McCarthy, Gail Currie, Pauline Hughton, Marg Teezel, Susan Mooney, Anne Smith, Wendy Forsythe, Ingrid Dukema, Betty Anne Smith and Rod Smith.

Guitarist was Jorge Lasso from McMaster University.

Assisting the models were Jane Higgins and Janice Drinkwater. Lakeview Centre provided the carpet for the show.

Entertain W.I. guests from Newfoundland

Thirty-one Women's Institute members from the villages of Catolana, Little Catolana and Port Union, Newfoundland were guests of the 12 Women's Institute branches of Wellington Centre district for a few days.

Ontario Women's Institute members have been studying about their twin sister province this past year and Newfoundland ladies have been doing a similar study of Ontario and arranged this trip to become better acquainted.

Welcome Five members of the executive of Wellington Centre district went with bus driver, G. Aitken, to Toronto Union Station on Tuesday evening, September 18 at 10:30 to meet the visitors who had been travelling for three days by bus, boat and train.

On arriving back at Hillsburgh at the Erin Township Municipal building, they were officially welcomed by district president, Mrs. A. Sobal, past pres., Mrs. L. Lang and her husband Lloyd Lang, rove of Erin Township. Lunch was served by members of the Hillsburgh branch, and hostesses from each of the 12 branches took the visitors to their homes.

Hostess for the Ospringe branch was Mrs. E. Archibald, Guelph, whose guest was Mrs. Betty Mason and Mrs. J. McCulloch, Acton, president of Greenock branch entertained Mrs. Edith Huddler and Mrs. Emma Martin.

Take tours Each branch was responsible for entertainment of their personal guests on Wednesday and Friday and Thursday the entire group were together guests of the district. Greenock and Ospringe branches took their friends from Newfoundland to visit the MacDonald Institute at the University of Guelph; to the Colonel John MacRae home and Memorial Shrine, Guelph; to watch milking procedure at the dairy farm of Mr. and Mrs. D. Matthews, Speedside; to see potato harvesting at Mr. N. Somerville, Hillsburgh; to the Ontario School for the Deaf, Milton where staff member, Mrs. R. McKeown conducted a tour of the school; and to Shoppers World at Brampton. They were entertained for dinner and luncheon at the homes of Mrs. G. Wallace, Mrs. C. Allan and Mrs. E. Patten. A pot luck supper for all members was enjoyed at Mrs. G. Johnston's and an evening of slides was arranged with Mrs. J. McCulloch as hostess.

Hoodless home On Thursday the group from Newfoundland accompanied by the district executive, board member, Mrs. J. Bird and one representative from each branch, enjoyed a bus trip to the Adelaide Hoodless Home at St. George, and to the Flonoy Lee homestead at Stony Creek where they were warmly welcomed by Mrs. Austin Zeller, vice president of the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada.

Following a tour of the home a picnic lunch was enjoyed on the lawn. Driving through the Niagara Peninsula (fruit belt), they passed at Thorold to watch a large boat pass through the locks on the Welland Canal. A few of the ladies' husbands are employed on the ships which pass through here regularly. Brief stops were made at Hydro Floral clock, Queenston and at beautiful gardens along the Niagara Falls Parkway.

Dinner was enjoyed at the top of the Royal Tower overlooking the Falls and all could see the coloured illuminations. Mrs. E. Archibald and Mrs. C. Aitken were in the group to represent Ospringe and Greenock.

Say goodbye On Saturday the ladies said goodbye to new friends in Centre Wellington and travelled by bus to London and district to visit a fair, attend the ploughing match and other points of interest before returning to their homes in Newfoundland.

Ladies' Aid meets at Knox

The Ladies' Aid of Knox church met on Sept. 25 in the Dr. Stewart Hall with 12 members present and two visitors. The president opened the meeting with a poem, Autumn Carol. After a hymn, Mrs. McIntyre led in prayer. Roll call was answered with something we had served or grown in the last year.

The business part of the meeting was discussed. Mrs. Murray read the scripture and Mrs. Moran led in prayer.

Mrs. McIntyre had a contest which was enjoyed. After a hymn and The Lord's Prayer, a dainty lunch was served which was enjoyed by all.

Music teachers hold meeting

The thirteenth meeting of one Georgetown Trinity Teachers Association was held on Sunday, September 16 at the home of honorary president, Dorothy Richardson Scull. The president, Faye Pink presided; a treasurer's report was given by Ruth Wightman.

The membership discussed a joint Christmas party, but the plans were tabled until the next meeting. Requirements of the new members were discussed and several motions passed. The next meeting will be held Oct. 14 at the home of Mrs. Scull. On completion of all other business, a lovely tea was served by the hostess.

In the fridge, I have enough pastry dough to make one more pie. The recipe that's catching my eye this minute is one for Irish Whisky Pie. Sounds rather interesting!

Plan bazaar name conveners

The September meeting of the Acton Scout and Guide mothers was held at the Scout Hall on Tuesday, September 25 with Mrs. Barb Murchison, vice president in the chair. Plans for the annual bazaar for October 27 were made.

Mrs. June Payne will convene the bake table and Mrs. Ruth Haskell will be tea convener. Mrs. Dorothy Jordan will be in charge of the penny sale tickets. Tickets are also on sale for a doll and outfit and a boy's watch. The treasurer reported a successful booth at the fall fair.

Four generations maintain name

It was a happy occasion for John Bruce of Bower Ave. and family when a surprise party was held at the home of his daughter Mrs. D. F. Wilds to celebrate his 85th birthday, Sept. 29.

His family was complete except for one grandson who was unable to attend Ted Jr. The eldest son for four generations proudly claims the name "John Bruce" and all were present. John Bruce Sr. has four children, 12 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Families The families include Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Russell (Isabel), Karen and Ted Jr. of Ottawa; Kathy and Rob, May and Robert of Toronto; Mrs. and Mrs. D. F. Wilds of Acton; Norma and Bill Titus, Wanda and Wendy of Acton; Mary, Bob Hepburn, Kenny, Bruce and

GO slow

GO News, the regular publication from GO transit, reports in its September edition that summer strikes have created problems for the Toronto to Georgetown line.

"Production of coaches and power cab cars, and construction work on tracks and at stations have been set back," it says. "It is not yet clear how these delays will affect the Georgetown startup date, but everyone is working at full throttle to make up lost time."

With food prices sneaking up and up, the way they have been, I hate to let anything go to waste. So, the other day when son David brought in a six quart basket full of green tomatoes, I sat down with my cookbooks to see what I could do with them—other than throw them to Gard's pigs, that is. And here's what I came up with.

GREEN TOMATO PIE

Pastry for a 9 inch pie with lattice top
1 quart green tomatoes, sliced VERY thinly.
Boiling water
1 1/2 cups sugar
1 tsp. salt
3 tbsp. flour
1/4 tsp. nutmeg
parch cloves
grated rind and juice of 1 medium lemon
2 tsp. water
2 tsp. butter.
Line pie pan with pastry. Pour boiling water to cover over tomato slices and let stand five minutes. Drain.
Mix sugar, flour, spices, and salt. Stir in lemon rind. Fill pastry with layers of tomato slices, sprinkling each layer well with lots of sugar mixture and dotting it with butter.

When pan is full, mix water and lemon juice and pour over top. Arrange lattice top. Bake at 450 degrees for 10 minutes, then at 375 for 40 minutes or until tomatoes are tender.

And here's a couple of pie recipes that aren't quite so different.

SHOO-FLY PIE

1/4 cup flour
1/2 cup sugar
one-eighth tsp. salt
3 tsp. shortening
1 egg

BANANA PIE

5 bananas
one eighth tsp. salt
1/2 cup sugar
2 tsp. butter
2 tsp. lemon juice
1/2 tsp. nutmeg
1 cup whipped cream
1 baked pie shell
Mashed the bananas very smooth. Combine with salt, sugar, and butter in saucepan. Bring to a boil, stirring. Cool and fold in lemon juice, nutmeg, and whipped cream. Pour into pie shell and chill.

Line pie pan with pastry. Pour boiling water to cover over tomato slices and let stand five minutes. Drain.

Mix sugar, flour, spices, and salt. Stir in lemon rind. Fill pastry with layers of tomato slices, sprinkling each layer well with lots of sugar mixture and dotting it with butter.

When pan is full, mix water and lemon juice and pour over top. Arrange lattice top. Bake at 450 degrees for 10 minutes, then at 375 for 40 minutes or until tomatoes are tender.

And here's a couple of pie recipes that aren't quite so different.

Winners at Milton fair

First runner-up of Acton fall fair, Verna Fisher of R.R. 1, Georgetown, was chosen 4-H queen at Milton fair. She is 16 and attends Milton high school. Skills in homemaking and other projects the girls undertake during the year are judged to help decide who wins the title.

Verna will go on to competition at the C.N.E. next summer.

Also at Milton fair, regular exhibitor Mrs. Norm Robertson of Acton dominated in the food competitions. Her 50 entries netted her 45 prizes including 25 firsts, 11 seconds and nine thirds. At Acton fair, her 60 entries had brought her 52 prizes.

She recently gave up competing at Georgetown, but says she plans to continue showing at Milton and Acton for a long time yet.
