In a double-ring ceremony Patricia Joan Allen and Peter Humeniuk were married Saturday afternoon, August 4, at St. Paul's United Church, Brampton.

The bride is credit manager at B. F. Goodrich and is the daughter of Gordon W. Allen of Georgetown. The groom is the owner of Pete's Barber Shop in Acton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Humeniuk of Acton.

White, pink and mauve carnations, mums and glads decorated the church while Rev. Gordon Williams conducted the ceremony. Dave Espland played the organ; cousins of the bride Debbie and Diane Bousfield of Acton sang "The Wedding Prayer and O Perfect Love."

Carries roses
The bride wore white satin and chiffon with lace flowers accented with pearls and crystals, and matching head-dress and veil. She carried white and pink roses accented with mauve baby's breath.

Matron of honor was friend Mary Richard, Brampton and the bridesmaids Iris Allen, sister of the groom and sister-in-law of the bride; Sue Lee, Mississauga, a friend, and Marlene Allen, Brampton, sister. They wore light mauve gowns with dark mauve lace hooded coats and carried cascades of pink gladiolus, white button mums and mauve carnations.

Brian Allen, Brampton, the bride's brother, was groomsman and the ushers were Howard Walker, Georgetown; Carl Humeniuk, Oakville, and Danny Humeniuk, Brampton, brothers.

Matching dicker
The men in the wedding party wore white tuxedo jackets and black trousers with mauve carnation boutonnieres. The groom wore a black dicker and the others mauve dicker. Mr. Allen escorted his daughter.

The reception followed at the Junior Farmers Hall, Brampton, followed by a dance to Ross Hillier's orchestra.

Guests
Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Vanderen, Covin, California; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dutka, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Casely, Windsor, with others from Acton, Georgetown, Brampton and Toronto.

The bride's grandparents joined the wedding party, her grandmother wearing pastel blue with navy accessories and a corsage of white and blue mums. The groom's mother wore pink with white accessories, white and pink roses.

The honeymoon was to Hawaii and the bride left the reception wearing a long pastel mauve and pink gown with a mauve orchid corsage. They are living in Brampton.

Showers, stag
Before the wedding a kitchen shower for the bride-to-be was given by Marlene Allen; a personal shower by Mary Richard; a family party and presentation for the couple hosted by Mr. and Mrs. D. Rudy, Georgetown; a linen and bathroom shower given by Mrs. Eileen Bousfield, Acton, aunt of the bride, and a stag for the groom was held at Acton Legion hall.

A ruptured disc put postmaster Gordon McKeown in hospital for a few weeks. He's home again now recuperating. Best wishes for speedy return to mobility.

Friends are glad to have Mr. and Mrs. David Swetman and boys back in town. They had been living in Montreal, but kept their house in Acton in hopes of a speedy return.

Acton Legion Chorallers received a standing ovation when they sang at the opening of the new Legion hall at Bramalea Sunday. Premier Davis opened the octagonal building officially.

Mr. and Mrs. Colin MacColl have had a delightful holiday trip back to Scotland, where, they say, the heather on the hills was a thrilling sight. Mr. MacColl hasn't been back to the place of his birth at Doon since he was a lad and he encountered several cousins by chance.

Cons. Nick Farion was released from Milton hospital Thursday, after being injured during the arrest of an Acton youth Tuesday night. He's back on duty now.

Former resident dies

Acton friends were sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Mary Gowdy of Madison, Wisconsin, Sept. 9. Mrs. Gowdy lived at Limehouse and later on Main St. in Acton for many years before moving to the States.

She taught piano here and was the founder of the Music Club 20 years ago. She was a member of the Duke of Devonshire chapter of the I.O.D.E.

Many piano pupils as well as friends recall Mrs. Gowdy with affection.

Students at Western married

Two students at the University of Western Ontario, Ann Kerin Whatmough and Daniel Richard McGoey were married in Sacred Heart church, Rockwood. The bride's uncle the Rev. J. McGoey and Father Elliott performed the marriage ceremony on Saturday, August 25 at one o'clock and the sister-in-law of the groom Mrs. Peter McGoey played the organ.

Queen Ann's lace and white and yellow glads decorated the church. The bride is a second year nursing student; she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant A. Whatmough of Greenwood Farm, Nassagaweya.

The groom is also a second year student and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald McGoey of Toronto. Met at school. The bride attended high school in Acton for grades 12 and 13; the groom was at North Toronto C.I. where they had met in grade 11.

They are living now in the married students' residence at university.

The bride made her own wedding gown of polyester satin and wore the groom's mother's Irish lace veil which flowed into a train. She carried a bouquet of Queen Ann's lace and gladiolus, with a piece of ribbon from her grandmother's wedding bouquet of 60 years before.

Attendees
Maid of honor was a friend Pamela Tate, Toronto; bridesmaids were Kathy Lee, Toronto, and Nancy Abram, Edon Mills and the flower girl Leslie Whatmough, her sister. They wore ivory cotton print gowns and carried bouquets of daisies and Queen Ann's lace.

Mr. Whatmough escorted his daughter. Groomsman was his brother Bill McGoey and the ushers Peter McCann and Pat McGoey, Toronto. Luncheon was served in the garden at Greenwood Farm under an old pine tree. The bride had made her own wedding cake.

Among the guests was the bride's grandmother from Toronto.

The couple left for a honeymoon at Hallburton, the bride wearing a blue print Jersey dress she had made with a gardenia corsage.

Showers
There were showers and parties before the wedding. Pam Tate and Kathy Lee held a kitchen shower in Toronto; Nancy Abram a miscellaneous shower in Edon Mills and Susan McGoey a bathroom shower at the Jolly Miller tavern, Toronto. A party was given by the groom's godparents Mr. and Mrs. Fred Foy, Toronto and another by Mr. and Mrs. Peter and Mrs. Gerald McGoey in Toronto.

Eden Mills and the flower girl Leslie Whatmough, her sister. They wore ivory cotton print gowns and carried bouquets of daisies and Queen Ann's lace.

90 days

A Waterdown man charged in connection with several barn-burning incidents on Halloween night in 1971 was found guilty on one charge last week and sentenced to 90 days in jail.

Haltom Crown Attorney Jim Treleaven urged the judge to impose a stiff penalty, because there have been several incidents of arson lately in Kilbride and other rural areas in Haltom.
