First runner-up by Doris Fines Visiting over Thanksgiving weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Aitken was their niece Louise Moorhouse of Milverton, also their daughter and son-inlaw, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hutchison, and grandchildren

Steven, Jeffrey and Susan, from Kemptville. A number of people took advantage of the beautiful fall weather and colourful scenery, and took short jaunts around the countryside this past week. Mr. and Mrs. Ward Bruce have returned home from a month's vacation Saskatchewan, visiting with Ward's mother, Mrs. M. M. Bruce in Whitewood, also other relatives in Longbank, Regina, Saskatoon and Coleville. They spent an enjoyable time at Emma Lake and Turtle Lake. The north was delightful with the gorgeous showing of the rich autumn colors.

The girls of Ospringe 2, 4-H Homemaking Club had a very attractive exhibit at Erin Fair, entitled "What's Cooking, Ospringe?". It was very well done, on the project The Third Meal.

Group I also had a good exhibit from the Garden Club, and the Public School had a fine display of their handiwork. It is good to see them all taking part in the local Congratulations to Linda McKenzie who was first runner-up in the Miss Erin Fair contest on Saturday. There were seven contestants, the winner coming from R.R. 1, Terra Cotta. Linda attended the fair as lady-in-waiting to the Queen, and hieped give out awards, among other pleasant duties. She was also a guest at the fair dances.
