Registration slow at Y

Registration for Y programs is rather slow, but several evenings have been set up. The Friday night swimming program to Guelph is filled up with a waiting list. The girls' 3-F classes Saturday mornings have begun with leaders Pat Wood, Doreen Gibb, Carol Campbell and Shirley Broostad.

Wednesday nights the chess club meets, its membership is open to newcomers.

Need more: Still needing more are the Monday night boy's program and Tuesday night activities, and Thursday badminton or other sports.

Sandra Van Fleet, who had been taking over the job of Y co-ordinator this fall, was tragically killed in a car accident shortly after she began. Temporarily Mrs.

Region meets

Halton Regional Council will meet twice a month on Wednesday afternoons at 2 p.m., with committees meeting on alternate Wednesdays.

Some members of council favored evening meetings, and rotating meetings to the four area municipalities.

Councillors Gordon Brown, Vern Connell, Tom Hill, Anne MacArthur, Bill Mason and Jack Rattis will sit on the works committee.

Sitting on the planning committee will be Harry Barrett, Len Coxe, Archie Donaghey, Pat McLaughlin, Ted Ralfe and Jim Watson. Councillors Harry Barrett of Oakville and George Harrington of Burlington are the region's representatives on the police commission.

Two collisions damage $320

Two collisions in town the past week were investigated by Acton O.P.P.

Last Wednesday a car driven by Irma Seelen, Milton, struck a parked car owned by Paul Youngblut, Acton, while backing from a driveway on Church St. E.

Damage to the Youngblut car was estimated at $160 and to the Seelen car at $160.

On Thursday two cars, both southbound on Main, were in collision. Driver Donald McIsaac, R.R. 4, Acton, had estimated $100 damage and Max Zeller, Willowdale, estimated $50.
