

Married in Knox pair live in Brampton

In a double ring ceremony in Knox church Sept. 22, Bonnie Elizabeth Jones and Robert Peter Turkosz were married by the Rev. A. H. McKenna. White and yellow glads decorated the church for the afternoon ceremony and Ted Hansen played the organ including the theme from Love Story and O Perfect Love.

They are living in Brampton where the groom is clerk at the LCBO store. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones, 38 John St., and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Turkosz, 250 Mill St., Acton.

The bride wore candlelight organza with crocheted lace panels and ruffles. A cap of French lace held her chapel length veil edged with the same lace ruffles. She carried a cascade of yellow roses and white stephanotis.

Fall shades
Maid of honor was Linda Perry and the bridesmaids Karen Hofstede, Acton; Wendy Robinson, Stoney Creek and Debbie Turkosz, Acton. Their long gowns were of georgette in floral autumn shades and they wore yellow Swiss lace garden party hats. They carried cascades of yellow carnations trimmed with orange ribbon. Their gold belted necklaces were the gift of the bride.

Flower girls Beverly Clark, Brampton, cousin of the bride, and Marlene Rocher, Acton, cousin of the groom wore dresses matching the bridesmaids with yellow carnations in their hair and yellow nosegays. Their gold signet bracelets were the gift of the bride.

The bride was escorted by her father. Groomsman was Lloyd Smallwood and the ushers Steve Goy, Bob Andrews and Gary Turkosz.

Dinner, dance
Dinner and a dance were at the Legion hall. The parents of the bride joined the wedding party welcoming guests from Toronto, Stoney Creek, Mount Forest, Chapawauk, Sault Ste. Marie, Bolton, Brampton, Guelph, Burks Falls, Mississauga and Hamilton.

The bride's mother wore apricot chiffon trimmed with moss green lace and apricot carnations; the groom's mother wore pink with white carnations.

Church
The wedding cake, beautifully decorated by Mrs. G. Young as a church, was made by Mrs. Jones.

Leaving, the bride wore a full-length green plaid dress with eggshell collar and cuffs and a gardenia corsage. The couple spent their honeymoon in Northern Ontario.

A miscellaneous shower for the bride was given Aug. 9 by Linda Perry and Karen Hofstede. On Aug. 14 a miscellaneous shower for neighbors was arranged by Jane Watson, Agnes McIntyre, Oral Norton and Janice Withers.

A miscellaneous shower was given Aug. 26 by Louise Toth and Flo Rocher. A cup and saucer shower was held by Lily Higgins and Bette Footitt Sept. 5.

Presentations
A presentation for the bride and groom was held Sept. 1 by friends at Pickerel Lake, Burks Falls, where the Jones have their cottage. A presentation to the bride was made by co-workers at Bramalea Consolidated, Toronto, Sept. 19.

A stag for the groom was given by the ushers Sept. 7 and another stag Sept. 14 by friends at Simpsons where he worked previously.

Bad fog

Some school bus routes were cancelled last Thursday morning, due to thick fog in the area. The fog was worse at Georgetown than here; one Georgetown-bound driver commented "I've never seen worse".

Ford - MacDonald vows at Trinity

A pretty autumn wedding took place in Trinity United church on Saturday, October 6, when Linda Marie, daughter of Mrs. June MacDonald, Elora, became the bride of David Kenneth Ford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ford, 123 Crescent St., Acton in a double ring ceremony.

George Elliott played the organ and Dr. William Onions officiated.

The church was decorated with white gladioli with pink and mauve daisies, later given to the bride's mother and groom's mother.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Sandy Clyde, Elora. She wore chiffon over taffeta gown with a long flowing train with daisy appliques. Her matching waist length veil was held in place by large fitted wedding ring band, also with daisy appliques.

Clover
She wore a heart shaped brooch containing a four leaf clover which had belonged to her great grandmother. Her flowers were white gladioli with pink accents with pink and white ribbons falling from the bouquet to the floor.

Dreary start
Clocks went back an hour Saturday night, and people woke up to a dreary, rainy day to initiate the return to Standard Time. "At least," said one philosopher, "we don't have to shovel it."

Public school students enjoyed a Halloween dance at the M.Z. Bennett school last Friday evening.

Maid of honor, Miss Darlene Cudney, Mississauga, wore pink and mauve floral chiffon with ruffled neck and long ruffled sleeves. She carried white daisies with dark pink accents.

Bridesmaid was Mrs. Audrey Danard, Elora, aunt of the bride. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Ann Marie MacDonald, Elora, sister of the bride. They wore pink crepe with mauve trim and puffed sleeves. Their bouquets were mauve and white daisies. All the attendants wore miniature carnations in their hair with the junior bridesmaid's flourishes on a band of ribbon. Their bouquets matched the bride's with long ribbons.

Best man was Douglas Ford, Huttonville, brother of the groom. Ushers were Don Ford, Acton, brother of the groom and John Wilson, Guelph. The men in the wedding party wore black tuxedos, white ruffled shirts and black bow ties.

Reception

The reception was held at the home of the groom's parents. The bride's mother wore pink with white accessories and a corsage of white baby roses with pink tinted edges. The groom's mother wore mauve floral chiffon with matching flourettes in her hair and a corsage of pink baby roses.

Guests were present from Elora, Guelph, Norval, Alma, Fergus, Rockwood, Elmira, Downsview, Limehouse and Acton. Among the guests was the bride's grandmother Mrs. Mary Clyde, Fergus.

Leaving the bride wore a green and white dress with matching jacket and yellow carnations. After a trip to Niagara Falls, the couple are residing in Brampton.

Showers
Before the wedding a miscellaneous shower was held by the girls from Simpsons Limited Selig Division, Elora, where the bride formerly worked, at the home of Miss Mary Scott, Elora. A miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mrs. Del Jordan, MacDonald Blvd. by Mrs. Jordan and Mrs. W. Allen.

LINDA MARIE MacDonald and David Ford were married in Trinity United church October 6. They are living in Brampton.
